MANY DIPLOMAS

Given at the Grammar School Graduations.

THIS WAS THE DAY OF DAYS FOR PUPILS.

Elaborate Exhibitions Was the Order in Lowell Schools

The graduating exercises so finely begun yesterday were for the most part brought to a close today in the grammar and parochial schools with elaborate programs. Every school was the scene of these interesting affairs and the attendance of parents and friends was very large. In the Moody school there was a novel feature in the way of an exhibition of kindergarten work which is worthy of special note. Besides this the models from the manual training school made by the boys of the school were shown and of the models the chest of Frank Dupee was greatly admired. It may be said that the number of pupils graduated from the grammar into the high school is larger than ever before, which is not at all surprising as the classes increase in size each year.

The Colburn School

In this school today a class of pupils were given diplomas and sent out into the wide, wide world after an interesting exhibition to a large gathering of relatives and friends. The program opened with a reading from the life of Longfellow by Ralph Lewis, a song "The Open Window" by the class with violin accompaniment by Miss Jessie Sargent. Arthur Hinchey read a paper on "Longfellow at Home." Miss Lottie Tilson played a piano solo and Lillian Leith gave Priscilla's Answer from Longfellow's Myles Standish.

A very pretty dumb bell drill was carried out by the class. Annie Madigan read "To Stay at Home is Best," and the class rendered a descriptive song of "The death of Minnehaha" with readings by Kate Halloran and Lucy Nain. Francis Murphy read from "Evangeline," and Etta Morris and Lillian Leith gave a piano duet. Selections from Evangeline were also given by John O'Rourke, Mary Clogston, Dennis O'Neil, Hannah Sweeney, John Curry and Robert Sleeper. After a song with violin accompaniment by the girls the class went through a fancy step exercise and then exemplified "The Builders." The program proved a delightful one to all present. The ushers were George Barris and Frank Brennan.

The graduates were: George P. Barris, William F. Brennan, Thomas E. Carr, Jeremiah T. Connors, John J. Curry, Arthur P. Hinchey, George L. Hunt, Ralph A. Lewis, John W. Maguire, John S. Mahoney, Joseph H. McGlinchey, Robert Morris, Francis J. Murphy, Dennis F. O'Neill, John J. O'Rourke, Robert R. Sleeper, Cornelius J. Sullivan, Mary I. Clogston, Katherine A. Halloran, Lillian P. Leith, Anna S. Madigan, Etta A. Morris, Lucy A. Nain, Jessie B. Sargent, Hannah E. Sweeney, Lottie L. Tilson.

The Moody School

In this school at 9 o'clock was graduated a large class of pupils, each pupil receiving his or her diploma from the hands of sub committeeman Thomas P. Boulger.

The exercises as usual were of interest to a large gathering, and well they might, for the program was excellent in its composition, and each participant acquitted themselves finely, reflecting much credit upon Principal Greene and the corps of teachers. The program was as follows:

The Bartlett School

The teachers and Principal Durgin had hoped that today's exercises would be the last of this nature in the old Bartlett school, but it likely that they will be similarly repeated once more. The exercises today were of an interesting character, as usual. The program was as follows:

Singing, American Hymn
Reading, Hervé Riel — Edith M. Dempsey
Solo, In Old Madrid — Lena F. Reid
Essay, Famous American Women — Ethel M. Harmon
Song, Fiddle and I — Walter W. [illegible]

The Immaculate Conception

The graduating exercises of the Immaculate Conception parochial school were held last night in the school hall, and were largely attended by parents and friends of the pupils.

The clergymen present were Very Rev. J. M. Guillard, O. M. I., Rev. Frs. Joyce, Dacey and Dorgan, O. M. I. The stage was tastefully decorated with flowers and potted plants.

The program throughout was highly interesting and reflected much credit upon the Sister Superior. The principal feature of the evening's entertainment was the pretty operetta, "Queen Flora's Day Dream." Miss Ella McQuade taking the part of the queen, with Miss Lauretta Mi[illegible]rault as her favorite maid.

The scarf drill deserves special mention and the musical selections were very finely rendered, reflecting much credit on the musical instructress Madame LaBelle. The special prizes offered by different donors were presented by Fr. Joyce as follows: Gold medal for Christian Doctrine donated by J. J. Clum, awarded to James Gookin; gold medal donated by Rev. Fr. Joyce for highest rank in graduating class, boys division, to William Martin; gold medal, donated by Rev. Fr. Dorgan for highest rank in graduating class, girls division, to Bridget Smith; gold thimble donated by Dr. Hugh Walker for plain sewing in senior class to Mary Hallorin; gold thimble, donated by Rev. Fr. Joyce for plain sewing in junior class to Kittie McQuade; silver thimble, donated by Rev. Fr. Joyce, to Margaret McMinamon; silver thimble donated by Rev. Fr. Dorgan to Susie McMinamon.

Prizes for regular attendance not having missed one half day of school during the whole year were awarded Arthur McQuade and Edward Kelley. A silver watch donated by J. J. Clum for best class essay, was awarded to Bridget Smith. The program in full was as follows:

Stole Ham and Lager

A mean trick was played on Patrick Dempsey who resides on Jefferson street Saturday night.

Mr Dempsey was expecting a party of friends to spend Sunday with him and on the previous day bought a case of lager and boiled a fifteen pound ham for their entertainment. During the night however when all in the house were asleep the house was entered and the ham and beer stolen. The police went to work on the case and while they could not find the ham Officers Redmond, Welch and Maguire arrested John J. Fahey and William Shea charged with breaking and entering and larceny. In court this morning they pleaded guilty and were held in $500 each for the grand jury.

Of the Vocal Sort at the Council Meeting.

FOURTH OF JULY RESOLUTION PASSED 15 TO 8

Sites For School Houses Recommended For Purchase

The councilmen shot off vocal fireworks last evening to their own enjoyment and that of the spectators who gathered in the chamber gallery.

The cuckoos started out to even up matters and had Clerk Simonds read the report of the previous meeting. The report must have covered about 40 pages of a large book. Councilman Gordon of the committee on education succeeded in having resolutions passed for two new school houses.

When President Sparks called to order, Councilman O'Connell moved that the records of the last meeting be read. The motion passed and as the clerk was about to read the report Councilman O'Brien moved to dispense with the reading of the record. Councilman O'Connell however insisted on his motion and the clerk proceeded to read the report in a manner that could scarcely be understood by the members. Councilman Oliver interrupted the clerk and asked that he raise his voice in order that he might be heard. The report was accepted.

A communication was received from the Central Labor Union inviting the council to review the Labor Day parade. The invitation was accepted.

Councilman O'Connor moved that the building ordinance, laid on the table at the last meeting be acted upon.

Councilman Ryan wanted the clerk to read the ordinance.

Councilman Lebarge moved that Councilman O'Connor read the ordinance. Councilman Ryan objected and said we have a clerk for that purpose.

Clerk Simonds remarked that the clerk declined to read it.

The ordinance was finally referred to the Committee on Ordinance and Legislation without being read.

Several petitions were referred in concurrence.

The report relative to the watering of streets for the year 1894 was accepted.

The following reports were accepted: To continue the watering of Loring street; to discontinue the watering of Concord street.

On the question relative to the donation of the cannon in Monument square to the trustees of the Lowell Cemetery Council man Kilpatrick moved to adhere to former action and the motion passed.

Notice of suit for damages to the amount of $30,000 was received from John McKenzie, also one for $5000 from Ann Webb and one for $5000 from Hannah Welch.

To Celebrate the Fourth

Councilman Curtin's notice of reconsideration of the $2000 Fourth of July resolution was then acted upon.

Councilman Curtin expressed himself in favor of reconsideration. The members have had sufficient time to consider the question. The Ward Six councilman referred to the "hard times" and spoke a word for the toilers whose interests he said should be considered as well as those who are to reap the harvest.

Councilman Curtin's motion to reconsider was passed 15 to 8.

The resolution was then passed to a second reading 16 to 7.

Councilman Robinson moved the suspension of the 30th rule and the motion was passed 15 to 7.

Before a vote was taken on final passage Councilman Ryan said he was opposed to the resolution because it is too late to arrange for a celebration. The council should know very well that this resolution will never leave the upper board.

Councilman O'Connor claimed that the people demand this celebration.

We should impress upon the minds of the young the significance of the day and vote this sum of $2000.

Councilman Curtin said he was sorry to see the patriotism of the councilman from the third ward measured by $2000. If the councilman desired to display his patriotic feelings he should have introduced this resolution six weeks ago.

Councilman O'Connor replied that he was not bulging over with patriotism, but he had as much in him as the average man.

Councilmen Robinson and Trudel spoke in favor of the resolution and Councilman Kittredge said that he heard that Peter H. Donohoe is willing to give $10 toward a celebration provided ten or twenty others do the same.

"What's the matter with you?" interrupted Councilman Ryan, and the members smiled.

The resolution then took its final passage 15 to 8.

To Hasten Action

Councilman Lebarge introduced an order asking the street committee to report to the council on the new Moody street bridge before August 1. The councilman criticized the committee for delay already experienced. The order passed.

The board of health renewed its petition for a $10,000 loan for a stable for the health department.

The Payne Firework Co. sent in a notice of willingness to submit bids on fireworks.

Sites for New Schools

Upon recommendation of the committee on education an order was introduced for the purchase of sites for two new schools, one in Centralville, the other in Middlesex village.

Councilman O'Connor opposed the resolution because it gave to the committee on education power that properly belongs to the lands and buildings committee.

Councilman Gordon believed the committee competent to select the sites and purchase them.

Councilman O'Connor did not think it business to recommend any man's site, and then purchase it afterwards.

Councilman Curtin reminded the councilman from the third ward that no committee is a sub committee to the committee on lands and buildings. The report and recommendation of sites were adopted and the resolution to purchase land passed 16 to 7.

Then came the question of the loan of $25,000 to cover the matter. Of this $2400 is for the purchase of the lot corner Billings street and Aiken avenue, and $1900 for the lot corner Middlesex and Cornell streets. The remainder for buildings.

Councilman Ryan opposed the Middlesex village site and said one could be got cheaper.

Councilman Custy in a speech setting forth the claim for a new Bartlett school said he was in favor of the resolution, and though a member of the lands and buildings didn't care who made the purchase.

After a little more discussion the loan resolution passed by a unanimous vote.

The council then adjourned.

REPUBLICANS

In National League Will Declare Their Policy.

OPPOSED TO FREE COINAGE AND WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Maine Democrats Choose a Standard Bearer.

DENVER, June 27 — Standing room was at a premium at the spacious Broadway theater when the Republican National league convention assembled. The number of strangers in the city is estimated at 6000 of whom about one third are delegates.

The committee on resolutions, the members of which are appointed by the states, held a caucus which developed a strong majority in favor of frowning down all issues, such as free coinage of silver at 16 to 1 and woman suffrage.

The Texas delegation will attempt to have the basis of representation of the colored vote in the league of the southern states changed so that the power of the colored men will be cut down one-half.

The New York delegation is pushing Colonel E. A. McAlpin for the presidency, but the Illinois delegation insists that President William Tracy shall have a second term.

Opening of the Session

Dr Kerr B. Tupper of the First Baptist church of Denver opened the session with prayer. President Tracy then introduced F. C. Goudy president of the State Republican league of Colorado, who welcomed the delegates to Denver and the state.

The Nebraska Glee club sang a brand new campaign song, and President W. W. Tracy of Springfield Ills., then delivered his annual address.

A motion was adopted that the president and secretary be authorized to prepare and transmit to Mme Carnot and the republic of France the sense of the league on the assassination of President Carnot. A resolution was adopted that the chairman of each delegation prepare a list of names for each of the committees.

A mass meeting was held last night at which addresses were made by General D. H. Hastings of Pennsylvania, Hon John M. Thurston of New York, Hon A. B. Cummings of Georgia, Mrs J. Ellen Foster of Iowa, Senator Fred F. Dubois of Idaho and General Cyrus Bussy of New York.

Saunders Defended Cleveland

When the Carnot resolution came up objection was made on the ground that the President of the United States had already expressed the sympathy of himself and the American people. A delegate shouted that Grover Cleveland did not represent all the people of the United States.

This roused the ire of Senator Saunders of Montana who said that Cleveland did represent every citizen of the United States.

"How about Queen Lil?" interrupted a delegate, but the senator ignored the question.

In the afternoon Henry B. Blackwell of Massachusetts offered a resolution in favor of woman suffrage, which, under the rules, went to the committee on resolutions.

Delegate Herringdon of Arizona introduced a resolution in favor of bi-metallism.

Ex Governor Prince of New Mexico submitted a resolution favoring the admission of New Mexico as a state.

Letters of regret were then read from Henry C. Lodge, Thomas B. Reed, J. S. Fassett, Governor Nelson of Minnesota, General Alger, Robert T. Lincoln, J. S. Clarkson and others.

JOHNSON ACCEPTS.

Nominated For Governor by Democrats of the Pine Tree State

LEWISTON, Me., June 27 — The Democratic state convention adopted a resolution of sympathy to France, one favoring the election of the next United States senators by popular vote, one disapproving the practice of trusts of bringing pauper labor to this country to take the place of citizens, one favoring the limitation of the hours of labor for women and minors to 58 hours a week, one condemning the labor bureau of this state as partisan run in the interests of Republicans, one condemning the legislative acts relating only to single towns or cities such as the one creating the police commission of Biddeford, the recent increase of salaries of state officers and one endorsing the Chicago platform in the last campaign, especially its clause on the money question.

In the district convention D. J. McGillicuddy of Lewiston was nominated for congress by acclamation.

The chairman then announced that the next business was the nomination of a candidate for governor, and the delegates shouted for John Scott.

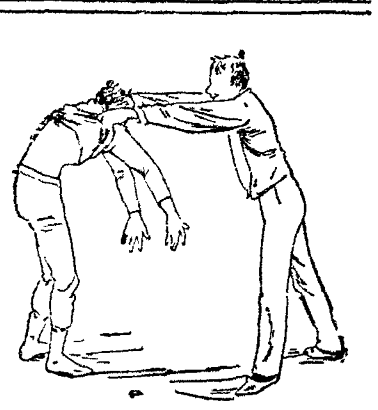

The nomination for governor, the chief duty of the convention, was made by John Scott of Bath, seconded by D. J. McGillicuddy, Tristram Goldthwait and William Henry Clifford, and was adopted unanimously by the convention. The man thus selected is Charles F. Johnson of Waterville. He accepted the nomination.

The following state committee was appointed: Androscoggin, D. J. McGillicuddy, Lewiston; Aroostook, Peter C. Keegan, Van Buren; Cumberland, Llewellyn Barton, Portland; Franklin, Enoch W. W. Whitcomb; Hancock, Edward I. Brado, Ellsworth; Kennebec, Fred Emery Bean, Hallowell; Knox, J. H. Montgomery, Camden; Lincoln, George H. Coombs, Waldoboro; Somerset, W. J. Bradbury, Fairfield; Washington, Frank W. Sawyer; York, Tristram Goldthwaite, Biddeford; Waldo, W. P. Kilgore, Belfast; Oxford, Byron L. Kimball, Norway; Penobscot, Edward Connors, Bangor; Piscataquis, Henry Hudson, Guilford; Sagadahoc, George E. Hughes, Bath.

Vermont Populists' Ticket.

MONTPELIER, Vt., June 27 — The Populist state convention nominated the following ticket: Governor, Thomas S. McGinnis of Jericho, farmer; lieutenant governor, Henry W. Conro of South Hero; secretary of state, A. L. Bowen of South Dorset; treasurer, Dr. Walter S. Curtis of West Randolph; auditor of accounts, Charles S. Lewis of South Reading. The convention adopted the Omaha platform as the state platform. Several lurid speeches were made. Less than 50 were present including reporters.

SENATOR HILL'S

Amendments Debated and Defeated by Senate.

THREE OTHER SENATORS ENDORSE HILL'S POSITION.

The Sugar Schedule Causes Some Annoyance.

WASHINGTON, June 27 — The senate spent another day debating the income tax provisions of the tariff bill, without making any perceptible progress.

Over five hours were devoted to the discussion of two amendments offered by Senator Hill, the first to exempt the interest on state, county and municipal bonds and the second to exempt the interest on state bonds from the operation of the tax. The debate drifted into an exhaustive examination of the power of congress and states' rights. Three Democrats, Messrs Gray, Pugh and Caffery, sided with the New York senator. Both amendments were defeated.

The Democratic managers, having learned that Senator Hill intended to turn his batteries on the sugar schedule when it was reached, set to work to ascertain if there was any break in their lines.

They were in conference for several hours Monday and yesterday, talking over the situation. There has been considerable alarm felt, and they appear to be rather nervous as the time approaches when a vote is to be taken.

They appear to be fully aware of the fact that there are a great many points in the bill that are not altogether satisfactory to the compromisers—Gorman, Brice, Camden and Murphy.

Coal and Sugar

The conferences are understood to be for the purpose of perfecting the measure so that these senators and one or two others who are looked upon as doubtful would be sure to vote for it.

The greatest alarm is felt for coal and sugar. The indications are that there will be some change made in the sugar schedule. Although the compromisers, Gorman, Brice and others, have steadily insisted that the schedule should not take effect until next January, they have, it is understood, consented to yield this point.

The amendment suggested by Secretary Carlisle, relieving sugar importers from foreign countries from the payment of the discriminating 1 cent duty, will also be adopted. This concession is regarded as necessary in view of the attitude Germany has taken with regard to her products. No other changes or modifications on sugar will be made.

The Democratic managers made strenuous efforts yesterday to ascertain how the Populists intend to vote on the proposition to strike out the sugar schedule when it is made, but they decline to state what their attitude will be on that motion. Irby of South Carolina, however, informed them he would vote for the proposition.

If the three other Populists vote to strike out the sugar schedule the Democratic margin will be very small, and it may take the vote of the vice president to save it. It is no wonder, therefore, that the Democratic managers are alarmed.

A New National Holiday

The warm weather and the uninteresting nature of the proceedings in the house kept both members and sightseers away and the chamber wore a somewhat deserted appearance. The deficiency bill occupied the greater part of the day, the main fight being on the paragraph relative to Indian depredation claims. This was finally agreed to. It carries an appropriation of $100,000. A number of bills and resolutions were passed, the most important being a senate bill to make Labor Day a national holiday. The bill requires but the signature of the president to become a law. The day set is the first Monday in September.

Full of Water

NEWPORT, R. I., June 27 — Steamer Plymouth left early this morning for New York under her own steam, under convoy of tugs Right Arm and Hustler. She will go direct to Hoboken, N. J. She is filled with water between the two hulls.

Would Borrow $500,000

BOSTON, June 27 — The receivers of the New York and New England railroad have petitioned the United States circuit court for permission to borrow the sum of $500,000 with which to pay interest on first mortgage bonds and taxes.

Given at the Grammar School Graduations.

THIS WAS THE DAY OF DAYS FOR PUPILS.

Elaborate Exhibitions Was the Order in Lowell Schools

The graduating exercises so finely begun yesterday were for the most part brought to a close today in the grammar and parochial schools with elaborate programs. Every school was the scene of these interesting affairs and the attendance of parents and friends was very large. In the Moody school there was a novel feature in the way of an exhibition of kindergarten work which is worthy of special note. Besides this the models from the manual training school made by the boys of the school were shown, and of the models the chest of Frank Dupee was greatly admired. It may be said that the number of pupils graduated from the grammar into the high school is larger than ever before, which is not at all surprising as the classes increase in size each year.

The Colburn School.

In this school today a class of pupils were given diplomas and sent out into the wide, wide world after an interesting exhibition to a large gathering of relatives and friends. The program opened with a reading from the life of Longfellow by Ralph Lewis; a song, "The Open Window," by the class with violin accompaniment by Miss Jessie Sargent; Arthur Hinchey read a paper on "Longfellow at Home;" Miss Lottie Tilson played a piano solo, and Lillian Leith gave Priscilla's Answer" from Longfellow's Myles Standish.

A very pretty dumb bell drill was carried out by the class. Annie Madigan read "To Stay at Home is Best," and the class rendered a descriptive song of "The death of Minnehaha" with readings by Kate Halloran and Lucy Nain. Francis Murphy read from "Evangeline," and Etta Morris and Lillian Leith gave a piano duet. Selections from Evangeline were also given by John O'Rourke, Mary Clogston, Dennis O'Neil, Hannah Sweeney, John Curry and Robert Sleeper. After a song with violin accompaniment by the girls, the class went through a fancy step exercise and then exemplified "The Builders." The program proved a delightful one to all present. The ushers were George Barris and Frank Brennan.

The graduates were: George R. Barris, William F. Brennan, Thomas E. Carr, Jeremiah T. Connors, John J. Curry, Arthur P. Hinchey, George L. Hunt, Ralph A. Lewis, John W. Maguire, John S. Mahoney, Joseph H. McGlinchey, Robert Morris, Francis J. Murphy, Dennis F. O'Neill, John J. O'Rourke, Robert R. Sleeper, Cornelius J. Sullivan, Mary E. Clogston, Katherine A. Halloran, Lillian P. Leith, Anna S. Madigan, Etta A. Morris, Lucy A. Nain, Jessie B. Sargent, Hannah E. Sweeney, Lottie E. Tilson.

The Moody School.

In this school at 9 o'clock was graduated a large class of pupils, each pupil receiving his or her diploma from the hands of subcommitteeman Thomas P. Bouiger.

The exercises as usual were of interest to a large gathering, and well they might, for the program was excellent in its composition, and each participant acquitted themselves finely, reflecting much credit upon Principal Greene and the corps of teachers. The program was as follows:

Graduating Class.

The Bartlett School.

The teachers and Principal Durgin had hoped that to-day's exercises would be the last of this nature in the old Bartlett school, but it likely that they will be similarly repeated once more. The exercises today were of an interesting character, as usual. The program was as follows:

Singing, American Hymn.
Reading, Herve Riel ..... Edith M. Dempsey
Solo, In Old Madrid ..... Lena M. Reid
Essay, Famous American Women,
Ethel M. Barmon
Song, Fiddle and I ..... Walter W. Bruce

The Immaculate Conception.

The graduating exercises of the Immaculate Conception parochial school, were held last night in the school hall, and were largely attended by parents and friends of the pupils.

The clergymen present were Very Rev. J. M. Guillard, O. M. I., Rev. Frs. Joyce, Darcy and Durgan, O.M.I. The stage was tastefully decorated with flowers and potted plants.

The program throughout was highly interesting and reflected much credit upon the Sister Superior. The principal feature of the evening's entertainment was the pretty operetta, "Queen Flora's Day Dream." Miss Ella McQuade taking the part of the queen, with Miss Lauretta Mirault as her favorite maid.

The scarf drill deserves special mention, and the musical selections were very finely rendered, reflecting much credit on the musical instructress, Madame LaBelle. The special prizes offered by different donors were presented by Fr. Joyce as follows: Gold medal for Christian Doctrine, donated by J. J. Cluin, awarded to James Gookin; gold medal, donated by Rev. Fr. Joyce for highest rank in graduating class, boys' division, to William Martin; gold medal, donated by Rev. Fr. Stole Ham and Lager.

A mean trick was played on Patrick Dempsey who resides on Jefferson street, Saturday night.

Mr. Dempsey was expecting a party of friends to spend Sunday with him and on the previous day bought a case of lager and boiled a fifteen pound ham for their entertainment. During the night, however, when all in the house were asleep, the house was entered and the ham and beer stolen. The police went to work on the case, and while they could not find the ham, Officers Redmond Welch and Maguire arrested John J. Fahey and William Shea charged with breaking and entering and larceny. In court this morning they pleaded guilty and were held in $500 each for the grand jury.

Mr. Phelps' Requests.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The brief will of the late William Walter Phelps is dated Sept. 11, 1889. To his son, John, Judge Phelps leaves the family vault and homestead farm near Simsbury, Conn. A trust of $500,000 is created for his son Sheffield, and one of $300,000 for his daughter Marian. The balance of the estate is left to his wife and children in equal shares. The sum of $50,000 is to be added to a like amount left by Mr. Phelps' father to Yale university.

Of the Vocal Sort at the Council Meeting.

FOURTH OF JULY RESOLUTION PASSED 15 TO 8.

Sites For School Houses Recommended For Purchase.

The councilmen shot off vocal fireworks last evening to their own enjoyment, and that of the spectators who gathered in the chamber gallery.

The "cuckoos" started out to even up matters and had Clerk Simonds read the report of the previous meeting. The report must have covered about ten pages of a large book. Councilman Gordon of the committee on education succeeded in having resolutions passed for two new school houses.

When President Sparks called to order, Councilman O'Connell moved that the records of the last meeting be read. The motion passed and as the clerk was about to read the report, Councilman O'Brien moved to dispense with the reading of the record. Councilman O'Connell however insisted on his motion and the clerk proceeded to read the report in a manner that could scarcely be understood by the members. Councilman Oliver interrupted the clerk and asked that he raise his voice in order that he might be heard. The report was accepted.

A communication was received from the Central Labor Union, inviting the council to review the Labor Day parade. The invitation was accepted.

Councilman O'Connor moved that the building ordinance, laid on the table at the last meeting, be acted upon.

Councilman Ryan wanted the clerk to read the ordinance.

Councilman Lebarge moved that Councilman O'Connor read the ordinance. Councilman Ryan objected, and said we have a clerk for that purpose.

Clerk Simonds remarked that the clerk declined to read it.

The ordinance was finally referred to the Committee on Ordinance and Legislation without being read.

Several petitions were referred in concurrence.

The report relative to the watering of streets for the year 1894 was accepted.

The following reports were accepted: To continue the watering of Luring street; to discontinue the watering of Concord street.

On the question relative to the donation of the cannon in Monument square to the trustees of the Lowell Cemetery, Councilman Killpatrick moved to adhere to former action, and the motion passed.

Notice of suit for damages to the amount of $5000 was received from John McKenzier also one for $5000 from Ann Webb, and one for $5000 from Hannah Welch.

To Celebrate the Fourth.

Councilman Curtin's notice of reconsideration of the $2000 Fourth of July resolution was then acted upon.

Councilman Curtin expressed himself in favor of reconsideration. The members have had sufficient time to consider the question. The Ward Six councilman referred to the "hard times" and spoke a word for the toilers, whose interests he said should be considered as well as those who are to reap the harvest.

Councilman Curtin's motion to reconsider was passed, 15 to 8.

The resolution was then passed to a second reading, 16 to 7.

Councilman Robinson moved the suspension of the 35th rule and the motion was passed, 15 to 7.

Before a vote was taken on final passage, Councilman Ryan said he was opposed to the resolution because it is too late to arrange for a celebration. The council should know very well that this resolution will never leave the upper board.

Councilman O'Connor claimed that the people demand this celebration.

"We should impress upon the minds of the young the significance of the day and vote this sum of $2000."

Councilman Curtin said he was sorry to see the patriotism of the councilman from the third ward measured by $2000. If the councilman desired to display his patriotic feelings, he should have introduced this resolution six weeks ago.

Councilman O'Connor replied that he was not bulging over with patriotism, but he had as much in him as the average man.

Councilmen Robinson and Tryder spoke in favor of the resolution, and Councilman Kittredge said that he heard that Peter H. Donohoe is willing to give $100 toward a celebration provided ten or twenty others do the same.

"What's the matter with you?" interrupted Councilman Ryan, and the members smiled.

The resolution then took its final passage, 15 to 8.

To Hasten Action.

Councilman Lebarge introduced an order asking the street committee to report to the council on the new Moody street bridge before August 1. The councilman criticized the committee for delay already experienced. The order passed.

The board of health renewed its petition for a $10,000 loan for a stable for the health department.

The Payne Firework Co. sent in a notice of willingness to submit bids on fireworks.

Sites for New Schools.

Upon recommendation of the committee on education a resolution was introduced for $25,000 for sites for two new school houses, one in Centralville, the other in Middlesex village.

Councilman O'Connor opposed the resolution because it gave to the committee on education, power that properly belongs to the lands and buildings committee.

Councilman Gordon believed the committee competent to select the sites and purchase them.

Councilman O'Connor did not think it business to recommend any man's site, and then purchase it afterwards.

Councilman Curtin reminded the councilman from the third ward that no committee is a sub-committee to the committee on lands and buildings. The report and recommendation of sites were adopted and the resolution to purchase land passed 16 to 7.

Then came the question of the loan of $25,000 to cover the matter. Of this $2400 is for the purchase of the lot corner Billings street and Aiken avenue, and $1000 for the lot corner Middlesex and Cornell streets. The remainder for buildings.

Councilman Ryan opposed the Middlesex village site and said one could be got cheaper.

Councilman Canty in a speech setting forth the claim for a new Bartlett school said he was in favor of the resolution, and though a member of the lands and buildings didn't care who made the purchase.

After a little more discussion the loan resolution passed by unanimous vote.

The council then adjourned.

PRESIDENT ELECTED.

M. CASIMIR-PERIER SUCCEEDS THE MARTYRED PRESIDENT.

Election Took Place at Palais de Versailles This Morning and the Result Was as Predicted.

REPUBLICANS

In National League Will Declare Their Policy.

OPPOSED TO FREE COINAGE AND WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Maine Democrats Choose a Standard Bearer.

DENVER, June 27.—Standing room was at a premium at the spacious Broadway theater when the Republican National league convention assembled. The number of strangers in the city is estimated at 6000, of whom about one-third are delegates.

The committee on resolutions, the members of which are appointed by the states, held a caucus which developed a strong majority in favor of frowning down all issues, such as free coinage of silver at 16 to 1, and woman suffrage.

The Texas delegation will attempt to have the basis of representation of the colored vote in the league of the southern states changed so that the power of the colored men will be cut down one-half.

The New York delegation is pushing Colonel E. A. McAlpin for the presidency, but the Illinois delegation insists that President William Tracy shall have a second term.

Opening of the Session.

Dr. Kerr B. Tupper of the First Baptist church of Denver opened the session with prayer. President Tracy then introduced F. C. Goudy, president of the State Republican league of Colorado, who welcomed the delegates to Denver and the state.

The Nebraska Glee club sang a brand new campaign song, and President W. W. Tracy of Springfield, Ills., then delivered his annual address.

A motion was adopted that the president and secretary be authorized to prepare and transmit to Mme. Carnot and the republic of France the sense of the league on the assassination of President Carnot. A resolution was adopted that the chairman of each delegation prepare a list of names for each of the committees.

A mass meeting was held last night, at which addresses were made by General D. H. Hastings of Pennsylvania, Hon. John M. Thurston of New York, Hon. A. B. Cummings of Georgia, Mrs. J. Ellen Foster of Iowa, Senator Fred T. Dubois of Idaho and General Cyrus Bussy of New York.

Saunders Defended Cleveland.

When the Carnot resolution came up objection was made on the ground that the President of the United States had already expressed the sympathy of himself and the American people. A delegate shouted that Grover Cleveland did not represent all the people of the United States.

This roused the ire of Senator Saunders of Montana, who said that Cleveland did represent every citizen of the United States.

"How about Queen Lil?" interrupted a delegate, but the senator ignored the question.

In the afternoon Henry B. Blackwell of Massachusetts offered a resolution in favor of woman suffrage, which, under the rules, went to the committee on resolutions.

Delegate Herrington of Arizona introduced a resolution in favor of bi-metallism.

Ex-Governor Prince of New Mexico submitted a resolution favoring the admission of New Mexico as a state.

Letters of regret were then read from Henry C. Lodge, Thomas B. Reed, J. S. Fassett, Governor Nelson of Minnesota, General Alger, Robert T. Lincoln, J. S. Clarkson and others.

JOHNSON ACCEPTS.

Nominated For Governor by Democrats of the Pine Tree State.

LEWISTON, Me., June 27.—The Democratic state convention adopted a resolution of sympathy to France, one favoring the election of the next United States senators by popular vote, one disapproving the practice of trusts of bringing pauper labor to this country to take the place of citizens, one favoring the limitation of the hours of labor for women and minors to 48 hours a week, one condemning the labor bureau of this state as partisan, run in the interests of Republicans, one condemning the legislative acts relating only to single towns or cities, such as the one creating the police commission of Biddeford, the recent increase of salaries of state officers, and one endorsing the Chicago platform in the last campaign, especially its clause on the money question.

In the district convention D. J. McGillicuddy of Lewiston was nominated for congress by acclamation.

The chairman then announced that the next business was the nomination of a candidate for governor, and the delegates shouted for John Scott.

The nomination for governor, the chief duty of the convention, was made by John Scott of Bath, seconded by D. J. McGillicuddy, Tristram Goldthwait and William Henry Clifford, and was adopted unanimously by the convention. The man thus selected is Charles F. Johnson of Waterville. He accepted the nomination.

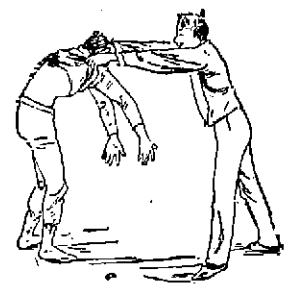

The following state committee was appointed: Androscoggin, D. J. McGillicuddy, Lewiston; Aroostook, Peter C. Regan, Van Buren; Cumberland, Llewellyn Barton, Portland; Franklin, Enoch W. W. Whitcomb; Hancock, Edward E. Brado, Ellsworth; Kennebec, Fred Emery Bean, Hallowell; Knox, J. H. Montgomery, Camden; Lincoln, George H. Coombs, Waldoboro; Somerset, W. J. Bradbury, Fairfield; Washington, Frank W. Sawyer; York, Tristram Goldthwaite, Biddeford; Waldo, W. P. Kilgore, Belfast; Oxford, Byron L. Kimball, Norway; Penobscot, Edward Connors, Bangor; Piscataquis, Henry Hudson, Guilford; Sagadahoc, George E. Hughes, Bath.

Vermont Populists' Ticket.

MONTPELIER, Vt., June 27.—The Populist state convention nominated the following ticket: Governor, Thomas S. McGinnis of Jericho, farmer; lieutenant governor, Henry W. Conro of South Hero; secretary of state, A. L. Bowen of South Dorset; treasurer, Dr. Walter S. Curtis of West Randolph; auditor of accounts, Charles S. Lewis of South Reading. The convention adopted the Omaha platform as the state platform. Several lurid speeches were made. Less than 50 were present, including reporters.

SENATOR HILL'S

Amendments Debated and Defeated by Senate.

The Sugar Schedule Causes Some Annoyance.

WASHINGTON, June 27. — The senate spent another day debating the income tax provisions of the tariff bill, without making any perceptible progress.

Over five hours were devoted to the discussion of two amendments offered by Senator Hill, the first to exempt the interest on state, county and municipal bonds, and the second to exempt the interest on state bonds from the operation of the tax. The debate drifted into an exhaustive examination of the power of congress and states rights. Three Democrats, Messrs. Gray, Pugh and Caffery, sided with the New York senator. Both amendments were defeated.

The Democratic managers, having learned that Senator Hill intended to turn his batteries on the sugar schedule when it was reached, set to work to ascertain if there was any break in their lines.

They were in conference for several hours Monday and yesterday, talking over the situation. There has been considerable alarm felt, and they appear to be rather nervous as the time approaches when a vote is to be taken.

They appear to be fully aware of the fact that there are a great many points in the bill that are not altogether satisfactory to the compromisers—Gorman, Brice, Camden and Murphy.

Coal and Sugar.

The conferences are understood to be for the purpose of perfecting the measure so that these senators and one or two others who are looked upon as doubtful would be sure to vote for it.

The greatest alarm is felt for coal and sugar. The indications are that there will be some change made in the sugar schedule. Although the compromisers, Gorman, Brice and others, have steadily insisted that the schedule should not take effect until next January, they have, it is understood, consented to yield this point.

The amendment suggested by Secretary Carlisle, relieving sugar importers from foreign countries from the payment of the discriminating 1-cent duty, will also be adopted. This concession is regarded as necessary in view of the attitude Germany has taken with regard to her products. No other changes or modifications on sugar will be made.

The Democratic managers made strenuous efforts yesterday to ascertain how the Populists intend to vote on the proposition to strike out the sugar schedule when it is made, but they decline to state what their attitude will be on that motion. Irby of South Carolina, however, informed them he would vote for the proposition.

If the three other Populists vote to strike out the sugar schedule the Democratic magin will be very small, and it may take the vote of the vice president to save it. It is no wonder, therefore, that the Democratic managers are alarmed.

A New National Holiday.

The warm weather and the uninteresting nature of the proceedings in the house kept both members and sightseers away, and the chamber wore a somewhat deserted appearance. The deficiency bill occupied the greater part of the day, the main fight being on the paragraph relative to Indian depredation claims. This, as finally agreed to, carries an appropriation of $100,000. A number of bills and resolutions were passed, the most important being a senate bill to make Labor Day a national holiday. The bill requires but the signature of the president to become a law. The day set is the first Monday in September.

Full of Water.

NEWPORT, R. I., June 27.—Steamer Plymouth left early this morning for New York under her own steam, under convoy of tugs Right Arm and Hustler. She will go direct to Hoboken, N. J. She is filled with water between the two hulls.

Would Borrow $500,000.

BOSTON, June 27.—The receivers of the New York and New England railroad have petitioned the United States circuit court for permission to borrow the sum of $500,000 with which to pay interest on first mortgage bonds and taxes.

Fooling the People.

You can fool some of the people all the time; you can fool all the people some of the time; but you can't fool all the people all the time by getting out a second-hand newspaper. Compare THE SUN with other local papers.

THE BOSTON elevated is not much higher than the West End as yet.

HON. GEORGE A. Marden takes exception to the charge that the Jesuits are running the Courier.

THE STREET department has a big gang of men at work and the employes are earning every cent they receive.

ON SATURDAY the owners of the various sites offered for the normal school will have an opportunity to show their liberality.

GOV. GREENHALGE probably thinks that once is enough to be blamed and criticized for appointing the same man. He is not going to leave himself open to criticism for appointing his friends.

MUNICIPAL reform is taking deep root in many cities notably New York, Boston, Portland and in other cities of less importance. The craze will spread and may strike Lowell very severely.

THE COURSE of the Meigs bill in the legislature somewhat resembles that of the tariff bill in congress. The bill passed by the lower board in each case will pass the upper in a very different form.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT that several mills in Lowell and Lawrence will close during July and August betokens hard times ahead. It is not likely that the passage of the tariff bill will effect a change before the fall.

THE SCHOOL BOARD adjourned without doing any important business Monday evening. The business of two meetings had been laid over awaiting attention and yet a few members agreed to adjourn. This was done in the interest of the schools of course.

ANTHONY COMSTOCK and the Supreme court do not agree in regard to what Anthony would term the immorality of the Arabian Nights and the Decameron. It is well always that there is a tribunal in which there is a big residue of justice and common sense.

THE MAYOR of Woburn suspended the chief of police for ten days recently and was sustained in so doing by the city council although he refused to state his reasons. The chief himself was not heard from either. Perhaps he was unconscious of the affair until it was all over.

THE INDIGNATION meeting at East Weymouth called to denounce a number of Italians who took the place of union workmen in a shoe shop, was calculated to frighten the foreigners. The unusual accompaniment of cannon booming in the vicinity was a very impressive sort of emphasis given to the speeches made at the meeting. The Italians should be shipped back to New York.

THERE IS a political committee appointed by the legislature to sit during the recess and prepare compaign material for the fall. There is also to be a committee to sit during the same time to investigate whether undue influence was used in the passage of the Bell Telephone, the Meigs and Cape Cod canal bills. The committee may make some exposures if it does its duty.

AT A certain post office it was found that letters were being stolen. A decoy letter was sent by a detective addressed to a fictitious name and number. The carrier could not find the person addressed and put the money in his pocket. He was brought to court and found guilty of taking the money, but as the letter was not intended to be delivered to anybody the judge discharged him. How is that for law? It may be law, but it certainly is not justice.

THE GHOULISH glee of the anarchists at the death of President Carnot is sufficient to excite the bitterest hatred of this fell society. If the French people adopted the Roman method of executing anarchists proved guilty of murder, the latter would not be so ready to assassinate high government officials. To tear one of these wretches, Soulo for example, to pieces limb from limb, would be none too cruel considering the enormity of his crime. No ordinary death will deter these fanatics from similar acts.

The dignity of the senate was exemplified when one member characterized another as "a man performing the role of a baboon," and still further when another honorable gentleman changed the form to "a baboon performing the functions of a man." It is pretty clear that "rules" in such a body would be in order.—Newport News.

It would have been timely for a third to remark you're both a pair of chimpanzees.

GOV. GREENHALGE deserves the gratitude of the commonwealth for his veto of the Bell Telephone bill. The people will rejoice to know that in this notorious swindle he has taken a bold stand against monopoly and for the commonweal. In this veto the lobby has received a heavy blow and the honor of the old Bay State has been saved.

SEC'Y CARLISLE is seriously considering some method of stamping out the padrone system, by which Italians are given to a species of bossism equal to slavery, on their landing here. The padroni will have to be careful or they will soon find themselves in trouble.

THE PEOPLE of Boston should know whether they want the Meigs bill. The republican legislature denies them the use of the referendum which is a plank in the republican platform put there for effect only.

WE HAVE not had a drowning accident this summer, so far, nor a shooting accident, but wait till after the Fourth before offering felicitations.

IF GOV. Tillman was in the U. S. senate he would make things hum. He might favor calling out the troops to count a quorum.

CURRENT CLIPPINGS.

The Children.

Only to keep them so,
Soft, warm and young,
The wee, feeble fingers,
The babbling tongue,
Tears that we kiss away,
Smiles that we win—
Careless of knowledge,
As guiltless of sin.

Only to keep them so,
Frank, true and pure—
Of our full wisdom
So lovingly sure.
Our frown all they shrink from,
Our fiat their law;
Our store, whence all gladness
They fearlessly draw.

Only to keep them so,
Sweet hands that cling,
Sweet lips that laugh for us,
Sweet tones that ring.
Curls that we train to wave,
Feet that we guide.
Each fresh step a wonder,
Each new word a pride.

Only to keep them so!
Women and men
Are the tunies that circled us,
Lovingly then;
Gentle and good to us,
Patient and strong,
Guarding our weaknesses,
Bearing us long.

Tenderly mocking us,
Old thoughts and ways
That scarcely keep measure
With life's rapid days;
Good to us—waiting.
Our sunset shows fair!
But only to have them so,
Just as they were!

—All the Year Round.

That Wonderful Baby Boy.

The proud young mother had come to pay her first visit, accompanied by the infant son and heir and his nurse.

"I don't wish to appear in any way partial," she said, "but really for a child of 16 months I consider Algernon a marvel of intelligence. He understands every word that is said and joins in the conversation with a sagacity that almost alarms me at times. Speak to the lady, Algernon."

"Boo boo," said Algernon.

"Listen to that!" cried the delighted mother. "He means, 'How do you do?' Isn't it wonderful!"

"Now, Algernon, ask the lady to play for you (he adores the piano). Now, Algie, dear" (very coaxingly).

"Boo boo!" said Algernon.

"He means music by that. 'Boo boo' —'mu-sic.' Isn't he too smart for anything? Now, love, tell the lady mamma's name?"

"Boo boo!" said Algernon.

"That's right. 'Boo boo'—'Louise!' My name's Louise, you know. Oh, dear, I do hope he isn't too clever to live! Now, say by by to the lady, precious."

"Boo boo!" said Algernon.

"'Boo boo'—'by by.' Why, upon my word there's hardly any difference. Bless his little darling heart! Isn't he a wonder?"—Chicago Herald.

Need For Lawyers.

It was a great satisfaction to Mr. and Mrs. Barclay when their son Henry decided to study law. He had not been a particularly forward boy in his studies, but the parents were glad to recall several instances where dull boys had developed into great statesmen or smart business men, and Henry received every encouragement. In due time he was admitted to the bar and opened an office in a neighboring town. After long months of waiting he was employed as counsel over a disputed will. The case was taken into court, and Henry's client won. The will was broken, and Henry sent in his bill, but the man was not prompt in payment.

Mrs. Barclay was delighted at her son's success, and on his first visit home after the trial said:

"Now, Henry, I want you to tell your old ma just how much money you made. Of course, getting the will set aside as you did, the man must have given you a considerable sum. How much property was there?"

"The will left $10,000 to public charities, $5,000 for a town library, and the remainder of the property to an old schoolmate," replied Henry.

"And never mentioned his own nephew! Do tell! I don't wonder he took it to law. He must be real pleased to think you done so well for him."

"I don't know," replied Henry thoughtfully. "I gave a good deal of time to it, but the judge said there wasn't any need of going in to the case. He said that, as old Mr. Griggs didn't leave a cent anyway, his will wasn't of any account."

"Is his nephew real bright minded?" asked Mrs. Barclay.

"He seems to be, but he's dreadful slow pay."

"Well, my son, I don't wonder there has to be lawyers. If folks don't know no more than to make such wills, and their relations don't know no more than to go to law about it, why, it seems to me that you'll do real well," and Mrs. Barclay smiled hopefully as she bade her son goodby and watched him walk slowly down the street.—Youth's Companion.

Fooling the People.

You can fool some of the people all the time; you can fool all the people some of the time; but you can't fool all the people all the time by getting out a second-hand newspaper. Compare THE SUN with other local papers.

THE BOSTON elevated is not much higher than the West End as yet.

HON. GEORGE A. Marden takes exception to the charge that the Jesuits are running the Courier.

THE STREET department has a big gang of men at work and the employes are earning every cent they receive.

ON SATURDAY the owners of the various sites offered for the normal school will have an opportunity to show their liberality.

GOV. GREENHALGE probably thinks that once is enough to be blamed and criticized for appointing the same man. He is not going to leave himself open to criticism for appointing his friends.

MUNICIPAL reform is taking deep root in many cities notably New York, Boston, Portland and in other cities of less importance. The craze will spread and may strike Lowell very severely.

THE COURSE of the Meigs bill in the legislature somewhat resembles that of the tariff bill in congress. The bill passed by the lower board in each case will pass the upper in a very different form.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT that several mills in Lowell and Lawrence will close during July and August betokens hard times ahead. It is not likely that the passage of the tariff bill will effect a change before the fall.

THE SCHOOL BOARD adjourned without doing any important business Monday evening. The business of two meetings had been laid over awaiting attention and yet a few members agreed to adjourn. This was done in the interest of the schools of course.

ANTHONY COMSTOCK and the Supreme court do not agree in regard to what Anthony would term the immorality of the Arabian Nights and the Decameron. It is well always that there is a tribunal in which there is a big residue of justice and common sense.

THE MAYOR of Woburn suspended the chief of police for ten days recently and was sustained in so doing by the city council although he refused to state his reasons. The chief himself was not heard from either. Perhaps he was unconscious of the affair until it was all over.

THE INDIGNATION meeting at East Weymouth called to denounce a number of Italians who took the place of union workmen in a shoe shop, was calculated to frighten the foreigners. The unusual accompaniment of cannon booming in the vicinity was a very impressive sort of emphasis given to the speeches made at the meeting. The Italians should be shipped back to New York.

THERE is a political committee appointed by the legislature to sit during the recess and prepare campaign material for the fall. There is also to be a committee to sit during the same time to investigate whether undue influence was used in the passage of the Bell Telephone, the Meigs and Cape Cod canal bills. The committee may make some exposures if it does its duty.

AT A certain post office it was found that letters were being stolen. A decoy letter was sent by a detective addressed to a fictitious name and number. The carrier could not find the person addressed and put the money in his pocket. He was brought to court and found guilty of inkling the money, but as the letter was not intended to be delivered to anybody the judge discharged him. How is that for law? It may be law, but it certainly is not justice.

THE GHOULISH glee of the anarchists at the death of President Carnot is sufficient to excite the bitterest hatred of this fell society. If the French people adopted the Roman method of executing anarchists proved guilty of murder, the latter would not be so ready to assassinate high government officials. To tear one of these Devilets, Santo for example, to pieces limb from limb, would be none too cruel considering the enormity of his crime. No ordinary death will deter these fanatics from similar acts.

The dignity of the senate was exemplified when one member characterized another as "a man performing the role of a baboon," and still further when another honorable gentleman changed the form to "a baboon performing the functions of a man." It is pretty clear that "rules" in such a body would be in order.—Newport News.

It would have been timely for a third to remark you're both a pair of chimpanzees.

GOV. GREENHALGE deserves the gratitude of the commonwealth for his veto of the Bell Telephone bill. The people will rejoice to know that in this notorious swindle he has taken a bold stand against monopoly and for the commonweal. In this veto the lobby has received a heavy blow and the honor of the old Bay State has been saved.

SELBY CARLISLE is seriously considering some method of stamping out the padrone system, by which Italians are given to a species of bossism equal to slavery, on their landing here. The padroni will have to be careful or they will soon find themselves in trouble.

THE PEOPLE of Boston should know whether they want the Meigs bill. The republican legislature denies them the use of the referendum which is a plank in the republican platform put there for effect only.

WE HAVE not had a drowning accident this summer, so far, nor a shooting accident, but wait till after the Fourth before offering felicitations.

IF GOV. Tillman was in the U. S. senate he would make things hum. He might favor calling out the troops to count a quorum.

CURRENT CLIPPINGS.

The Children.

Only to keep them so,
Soft, warm and young,
The wee, feeble fingers,
The babbling tongue,
Tears that we kiss away,
Smiles that we win—
Careless of knowledge,
As guiltless of sin.

Only to keep them so,
Frank, true and pure—
Of our full wisdom
So lovingly sure.
One frown all they shrink from,
Our flat their law;
Our store, whence all gladness
They fearlessly draw.

Only to keep them so,
Sweet hands that cling,
Sweet lips that laugh for us,
Sweet tones that ring.
Curls that we train to wave,
Feet that we guide,
Each fresh step a wonder,
Each new word a pride.

Only to keep them so!
Women and men
Are the things that circled us,
Lovingly then;
Gentle and good to us,
Patient and strong;
Guarding our weaknesses,
Bearing us long.

Tenderly mocking us,
Old thoughts and ways
That scarcely keep measure
With life's rapid days;
Good to us—waiting,
Our sunset shows fair!
But only to have them so,
Just as they were!
—All the Year Round.

That Wonderful Baby Boy.

The proud young mother had come to pay her first visit, accompanied by the infant son and heir and his nurse.

"I don't wish to appear in any way partial," she said, "but really for a child of 16 months I consider Algernon a marvel of intelligence. He understands every word that is said and joins in the conversation with a sagacity that almost alarms me at times. Speak to the lady, Algernon."

"Boo boo," said Algernon.

"Listen to that!" cried the delighted mother. "He means, 'How do you do?' Isn't it wonderful!"

"Now, Algernon, ask the lady to play for you (she adores the piano). Now, Algy, dear" (very coaxingly).

"Boo boo!" said Algernon.

"He means music by that. 'Boo boo' —'mu-sic.' Isn't he too smart for anything? Now, love, tell the lady mamma's name?"

"Boo boo!" said Algernon.

"That's right. 'Boo boo'—'Louise!' My name's Louise, you know. Oh, dear, I do hope he isn't too clever to live! Now, say by by to the lady, precious."

"Boo boo!" said Algernon.

"'Boo boo'—'by by.' Why, upon my word there's hardly any difference. Bless his little darling heart! Isn't he a wonder?"—Chicago Herald.

Not at Home.

Strawber—Miss Palisade wouldn't seem when I called on her last night.

Singerly—No. You were 10 minutes too late.

Strawber—What do you mean?

Singerly—I got there first.—Vogue.

A Good Definition.

Tommy—Pa, what does the paper mean when it says "comment is unnecessary."

Mr. Figg—It means that the writer didn't know what to say.—Indianapolis Journal

Liked It.

She (at piano)—Listen! Do you enjoy this refrain?

He—Very much. The more you refrain the better I like it.—Texas Siftings.

SUNBEAMS.

Prepared For an Emergency.

Widow—Arrah, an is it yersilf, Policeman Murphy, I dunno?

Policeman—It is that same, by this token. I've got ordors to go down an arrist two nimbers of the slaughter house gang!—Life.

Need For Lawyers.

It was a great satisfaction to Mr. and Mrs. Barclay when their son Henry decided to study law. He had not been a particularly forward boy in his studies, but the parents were glad to recall several instances where dull boys had developed into great statesmen or smart business men, and Henry received every encouragement. In due time he was admitted to the bar and opened an office in a neighboring town. After long months of waiting he was employed as counsel over a disputed will. The case was taken into court, and Henry's client won. The will was broken, and Henry sent in his bill, but the man was not prompt in payment.

Mrs. Barclay was delighted at her son's success, and on his first visit home after the trial said:

"Now, Henry, I want you to tell your old ma just how much money you made. Of course, getting the will set aside as you did, the man must have given you a considerable sum. How much property was there?"

"The will left $10,000 to public charities, $5,000 for a town library, and the remainder of the property to an old schoolmate," replied Henry.

"And never mentioned his own nephew! Do-tell! I don't wonder he took it to law. He must be real pleased to think you done so well for him."

"I don't know," replied Henry thoughtfully. "I gave a good deal of time to it, but the judge said there wasn't any need of going in to the case. He said that, as old Mr. Griggs didn't leave a cent anyway, his will wasn't of any account."

"Is his nephew real bright minded?" asked Mrs. Barclay.

"He seems to be, but he's dreadful slow pay."

"Well, my son, I don't wonder there has to be lawyers. If folks don't know no more than to make such wills, and their relations don't know no more than to go to law about it, why, it seems to me that you'll do real well," and Mrs. Barclay smiled hopefully as she bade her son goodby and watched him walk slowly down the street.—Youth's Companion.

So Much Female Suffering Needless

Mrs. Julia A. Rice, Florence, Kentucky, says:—

"I suffered eight years

"From woman's early troubles.

"I could find no permanent relief until, one year ago, I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Relief then came with it almost immediately, and at this time I am a well woman.

"I absolutely know, not only by my own experience, but by others also, that this is a harmless and sure remedy for

"Irregularity, suppressed or painful menstruations, weakness of the stomach, sick headache, and female complaints generally. There is no need of so much female suffering. Here is the remedy. It is wicked not to accept the relief it will bring." At druggists.

ITALIANS

Are Now in Great Danger in France.

CARNOT'S FATE HAS TAMED POLITICAL AMBITION.

Santo is Proud of His Bloody Work.

GRENOBLE, June 27.—There has been serious rioting here, and all trouble does not seem to be ended. After the news of the attempted assassination of the president had reached here, and before it was known that he was mortally wounded, a number of French and Italian workmen employed on the horsecar lines were drinking in a wineshop. An Italian made a remark which the Frenchmen regarded as an insult. A free fight followed and caused the gathering of a mob of Frenchmen.

The latter invaded the yards of the horsecar company and attacked and badly beat the Italians who were employed there.

Another riotous French mob formed on the Avenue Thiers. The Italian cafes were attacked and their contents destroyed in some cases, and in others they were simply compelled to close. A number of Italians' stores were treated in the same manner.

The mob marched through the streets shouting: "Down with the Italians."

The police were unable to disperse the rioters, and several Italians were beaten and kicked. Later the mob was re-enforced and proceeded to the Rue Gambetta. There somebody cried: "To the Italian consulate."

The police in vain tried to check the mob, but they were overpowered. The leaders of this demonstration procured a ladder, fixed it to the balcony of the Italian consulate and several of the rioters entered the consulate, tore up the Italian flag, smashed the escutcheon, broke the furniture, threw the statuettes upon the floor and kicked them to pieces, and finally seizing upon two large and handsome oil paintings, representing King Humbert and Queen Margherita of Italy, they threw them into the street.

Soldiers then charged upon the mob. After a short conflict the rioters were driven out of the consulate and out of the street in which it is situated. The prefect made an apology to the Italian consul for the outrageous manner in which the rioters had behaved.

The two leaders of the attack upon the Italian consulate were arrested, and this caused a renewal of the disturbance. Several dangerous mobs gathered as soon as the news of the arrest of the ringleaders became known, and finally matters assumed such a serious aspect that the prefect was compelled to summon the troops of the garrison.

The military authorities occupied all the public squares and boulevards with infantry, cavalry and artillery, and Grenoble was to all intents and purposes in a state of siege. The officers in command of the troops were given orders to take stern measures to prevent rioting.

Widow Bears Up Bravely

Mme. Carnot returned to Paris from Lyons with the remains of the president coffined in plain oak. The civil and police authorities received her, but no time was spent in vain compliments.

About 7000 persons, chiefly members of the working class, were massed outside the railway station. The widow was accompanied by her three sons to Paris. The train was awaited at the terminus by a funeral wagon, two landaus and a coupe for the officers who went with the president to Lyons. The mournful party were soon conveyed to the palace of the Elysee.

Mme. Carnot has not touched food since Sunday night, but she was able yesterday to drink deep draughts of milk, flavored with coffee. Her mental and moral vigor sustains her. She spent yesterday ordering mourning, arranging for the funeral, dictating answers to the telegrams from Queen Victoria, President Cleveland, Emperor William, Empress Augusta, the czar, King Humbert and others, and receiving the ambassadors bringing them.

Danger Was In the Air.

Madame Carnot has piles of letters threatening her husband and sons, received before and after the executions of Vaillant and Henry. Not long ago, M. Carnot, when walking in the bois with General Borius, was shadowed by a fellow of whom he could only rid himself of by retreating to his carriage. He had been warned from Italy to keep well guarded. Other warnings came from Brussels to beware of the Grand Prix on June 17.

On June 20 the prefect of Herault telegraphed the minister of the interior that a dangerous Italian anarchist named Santo had arrived at Cette. This intimation was also ignored, with the Lyons tragedy for the consequence.

Ambition Dwindling.

Seemingly M. Carnot's fate tames the ambition of those politicians who coveted the presidency. M. Lacour, speaker of the senate, refuses to run for the office. Prime Minister Dupuy seemingly has the best chances, but is less keen than was M. Casimir-Perier.

M. Brisson, who has been a candidate twice already, has some chances. M. Casimir-Perier would just now be dangerous, because he is repugnant to the industrial working classes. A large number of Opportunists may unite with the Radicals and Socialists on M. Brisson, or M. Bourgeois. Bourgeois is a dark horse, but so was Carnot in 1887, under different circumstances, however. A presidential election is in the nature of a vatican conclave, and is the object of endless bargaining and intriguing.

M. Casimir-Perier is the man for the wealthy bourgeoisie and aristocratic society. He is wise in his own conceit, but the responsibility involved in the presidency might cure this. In America he might pass for an old-fashioned Whig.

Anarchist Ravings.

According to The Matin, Louise E. Michel, the notorious woman anarchist, says that the execution of President Carnot was not more than a simple act of justice. In M. Carnot a whole class, the whole bourgeois world, has been struck at. M. Carnot embodied the capitalist republic. It was not merely Deibler's (the executioner's) president, but also the Panamaists' president, who has fallen under Cesario's dagger. Anarchy will once more have deserved well of mankind, for love of mankind is the sole object of anarchy. Individual revolt is the prelude to a grand plebian revolution from which social harmony will emerge.

Alexander E. Cohen, a Belgian anarchist, who was recently expelled from France, says it was not an assassination, but an execution. Ravachol, Vaillant and Henry have been avenged. Carnot was pitiless to anarchists. Coldly and cruelly, despite counsels to clemency, he handed them over to Deibler. He who sows the wind will reap the whirlwind.

An article from The Parti Socialiste, published prior to the execution of Vaillant, declares that if he allowed the execution nobody would pity Carnot if one day he should meet the little unpleasantness of seeing his wooden carcass shattered by a bomb. The Radical papers objected to The Parti Socialiste being prosecuted for the article.

LYONS, June 27.—At 7 o'clock last evening a riotous mob gathered and marched upon the northern district of the city. Upon arriving there the rioters attacked and looted a number of stores owned by Italians. During the pillaging, a barrel of petroleum exploded and three of the rioters were burned to death.

The rioting continues at this hour, and troops have been hastily dispatched to the northern district. In addition, all the dangerous points about Lyons have been occupied by the military, and most serious trouble is apprehended.

About 600 people were arrested during the rioting yesterday.

The mayor of Lyons has issued a proclamation in which he says: "The malefactors, who in the guise of patriots are committing heinous deeds of vandalism and pillage, will be punished as vulgar criminals." The mayor then appealed to all honest citizens to assist the authorities in repressing rioting.

No Personal Grievance.

LONDON, June 27.—A dispatch from Lyons says that Santo stated while being examined by the magistrate that he had no personal grievance against President Carnot. He killed him because he was a tyrant.

The magistrate asked: "Are you an anarchist?"

Santo replied: "Yes, and I am proud of it."

"Why did you kill the president?"

"I will tell a jury; they shall know the motives that prompted my action."

"How did you stab M. Carnot?"

"I pushed aside a cuirassier's horse. I had the dagger concealed in my sleeve and I only had to raise my hand. I aimed at his stomach and brought my arm down sharply, at the same time shouting, 'Vive l' anarchie.' The crowd rushed at and prostrated me, and I was beaten mercilessly."

"You persist in affirming that you did not have accomplices?"

"Yes, but is the president dead?"

Santos gathered from the magistrate's silence that his blow had been effective. He smiled with satisfaction, and, raising his hand, simulated the stabbing.

The examination lasted four hours, and the magistrate was convinced that Santo acted alone.

Carnot's Successor.

PARIS, June 27.—At a plenary meeting of all the Republican senators to decide upon a candidate for the presidency, a vote was taken with the following result: M. Casimir-Perier, 144; M. Dupuy, 15; M. Brisson, 6; M. de Freycinet, 4; M. Constans, 2; M. Araget, 2; M. Loubet, 2; M. Cavaignac, 1.

England's Sorrow.

LONDON, June 27.—In the house of commons a resolution of sorrow and indignation at the murder of President Carnot was adopted. In the house of lords a motion expressing sympathy with France in her sorrow was adopted.

No Serious Rioting.

ROUEN, June 27.—Several Italians have been beaten here, but no serious rioting has occurred.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

Doings at Brighton and Watertown For the Week Ending June 27.

Amount of live stock on the market:

| | Cattle. | Sheep and lambs. | Swine. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Western | 3,826 | 10,962 | 23,850 |
| Massachusetts | 84 | 6 | 71 |
| Maine | 95 | ... | 14 |
| New Hampshire | 143 | 78 | 344 |
| Vermont | 116 | 230 | 169 |
| Totals | 4,264 | 11,276 | 24,448 |

Prices for western beef cattle pr 100 lbs, live weight. Choice, $4.50@4.75; second quality, $4@4.50; third quality, $3@3.50; poorest grades of coarse oxen, cows, bulls, stags, Texans, Colorados, etc, 3c pr lb.

Prices for northern and eastern beef cattle pr lb, dressed weight: Choice, 5½@6¾c; first quality, 5@5½c; second quality, 4½@4¾c.

Hides, tallow, etc—Hides, 4½@5c pr lb; tallow, 3@4c pr lb; calf skins, 75c each; lamb skins, 50c each; sheared skins, 25c each; branded hides, 3c pr lb.

Northern and eastern beef cattle—There was a good supply of stock from these states, and there was a fairly active demand. Good cattle sold readily at values from ¼@½c pr lb stronger than last week.

Milch cows and springers—There was a good supply of fairly good cows on the market, but the demand was slow and the market dull.

Veal calves—The supply was a trifle lighter than last week. Among the arrivals were some very good veals, but the majority of the offerings were of a rather poor quality. Prices showed a decline of from ¼@½c pr lb from last week.

Sheep and lambs—The supply was much lighter than last week, but it cannot be said that the market is any better. A few young spring lambs were among the offerings, but it is hard to dispose of even these to advantage. Drovers would do better to let the stock run till next fall, when the dressed mutton market will undoubtedly be improved. No change could be quoted in values.

Bunked In a Barn.

PROVIDENCE, June 27.—The Swift industrial delegation of the Boston tramps arrived at East Greenwich, Mass., last evening, 23 strong. They lunched in a saloon, were talked to by Mrs. H. S. Merryfield of Boston, and went to sleep in a barn.

Bullets Hit the Mark.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., June 27.—Edward St. Onge last night discovered his wife sitting in the lap of Charles Reed, a well-known man of the town, and fired two shots from a revolver at him, both taking effect.

Windle's Record Lowered.

WALTHAM, Mass., June 27.—John S. Johnson rode right through the record for a flying mile awheel here yesterday, doing the distance in 1:56, breaking the record of Windle, which was 1:58.

Train Robbery In Georgia.

SAVANNAH, June 27.—A train on the Savannah and Western railroad was held up near Homerville by six masked men. The safe in the express car was robbed of its contents, $1222 in cash.

A Remarkable Fall of Rain.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 27.—The heaviest rainfall in 40 years fell here Sunday and Monday. Twelve inches was the amount that fell. Great damage has been done to fencing and growing crops.

Brains Were Turned by Too Many Dime Novels.

CAME TO LOWELL TO SHOOT INDIANS AND BUFFALO.

Had a Good Layout for Deadly Encounters.

Two dime novel struck youths, Walter E. Lecas, of 104 Waite street, and Willie G. Church, both of Maplewood, came to grief in this city this morning.

They were on their way to Nashua to shoot Indians and camp out, when arrested by Officer Redmond Welch.

Walter and Willie belong to a club in Maplewood where dime novels form the library.

They had read many of these and wishing to follow in the footsteps of Jesse James, Six Fingered Mike and Daredevil Dick and other frontier heroes, they collected a camping outfit and started out.

They spent last night in the wilds of Lexington and this morning boarded a train north, showing tickets for Nashua, where they claimed to live.

At the Bleachery they tried to get off the train and the conductor being suspicious turned them over to Officer Welch when the train arrived at Lowell.

When examined at the police station it was found that they carried a rifle, two loaded revolvers, a dangerous looking bowie knife, four sheath knives, four boxes of cartridges, two fishing lines, two gold rings, a tent, blanket, small mattress, overcoat, frying pan, etc., etc.

They were locked up and their parents notified. At two o'clock this afternoon they were allowed to go home in custody of a young man who called for them. After a few hours in a hot cell their desire for Indian fighting had flown, and the poor red brother is again out of danger.

Denies There Was a Plot.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

LYONS, June 26—Santo today reaffirmed his statement that he alone was responsible for President Carnot's death.

FOR IRON HALLERS.

News That is Not Good News for Many of the Old Officers.

News which will startle thousands of the Iron Hall in Massachusetts was received in Boston yesterday in a dispatch from Indianapolis.

It is to the effect that 54 branches of the order in the state, more than one-third of the whole number, have received word from Robert A. Knight, the Massachusetts receiver, that deficiencies have been found in their accounts, and adding that if the amounts are not made good, and in the hands of the receiver at Indianapolis by June 30 their branches will be thrown out altogether.

The amounts that the different lodges are short, it is said, will range from $25 to $10,000. The branch thought to be the most affected is the largest one in Massachusetts No. 34, located in Cambridge. This branch at the time of the collapse had more than 800 members.

The amount of the deficiency is said to be large, and it is said by those who claim to know that the branch will not be able to raise the necessary amount to send to Indianapolis within so short a time.

Another branch that will be badly affected is the sisterhood branch of Cambridgeport, comprising more than 300 members. The amount of money that it is said the branch will have to raise is about $1000. It is said that some of the officers had a meeting Saturday night and that they decided to make no attempt to raise the money.

It is impossible for the officers to do it alone, as they are said to have no list of the certificate holders.

In the list of lodges affected by the above order is No. 386. According to an 1892 report Branch 386 was located in Lowell.

Sacred Heart School.

The pupils of the Sacred Heart school gave a delightful exhibition in the school hall last night. The hall was finely decorated with flowers. During the program Miss Gertrude McLaughlin presented the pastor, Rev. Joseph Lavcie, O. M. I., a fine bouquet. The little ones who took part in the program acquitted themselves finely and reflected much credit upon the Sisters of Mary, their teachers.

The program follows:

"Bring of Flowers the Fairest," opening hymn, solos by Lizzie Condon and Lizzie Murphy.
Addresses of welcome, seven boys and one girl.
Wedding waltz, instrumental duet, Edith Farrington and Mary Ellen Cuff.
"The Bird's Picnic," recitation, twelve little girls.
Spelling Bee; schoolmaster, Master Frank Maguire.
"The Spider and the Fly," dialogue, Mary Ella and Kitty Lowney, assisted by several little girls.
"Home, Sweet Home," instrumental, Anna Neilon.
"Mrs. Brown's Luggage," comic song and scene.
"When I am a Man," recitation, little boys.
"Six Little Grandmas," pantomime and song.
"The Farmer," song, little boys.
"Game of Chance," dialogue, Martin Maguire, John Kerwin, Eddie Fox and John Dougherty.
Instrumental solo, Fairy Queen waltz.
"Mother's Birthday," song and chorus, little girls.
Proclamation of promotions and good notes.

Tomorrow evening the closing exercises of the grammar school will take place, when the following program will be carried out:

Opening hymn, "Heart of Jesus."
Address to pastor and parents, Master Frank Casey and Grace Spence.
"Feast of the Sacred Heart," recitation, seven girls.
Instrumental solo, Miss Edith Farrington.
"Mrs. Brown's Luggage," comic song and scene.
Instrumental solo, Anna Neilon.
"The Singular Man," recitation, boys.
"The Witches," song.
"The Boston Boys," dialogue and flag drill.
"Where is My Hat?" recitation, girls.
Instrumental duet, Edith Farrington and Mary Ella Cuff.
"The Lightheart's Pilgrimage," allegory.
Proclamation of promotions and premiums.

The High School.

The graduation of the largest class in the school's history and the first one from the new school began at the High school hall this afternoon at 3 o'clock. It was practically, as far as the program was concerned, a rehearsal of the public and general exercises at Huntington hall tomorrow evening together with an exhibition of the mental capabilities of many of the pupils, the attendance today being more particularly parents and friends of the graduates. The program proved very enjoyable and it included several features new for the school.

This morning, John P. Mahoney offered as a site for the normal school, the Meadowcroft estate at the corner of Moore and Lawrence streets.

INVESTIGATION WANTED.

ORDER INTRODUCED IN THE LEGISLATURE TODAY.

Special Committee to Sit During the Recess and Report to the Next General Court.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

BOSTON, June 26.—Rep. Bennett of Everett introduced an order in the house today for a house committee to investigate the charge of undue influence in the passage of the Bell Telephone bill, Meigs bill and Cape Cod canal bill. The committee is to sit all summer and report to the new general court. On request of Mr. Moriarty of Worcester the bill was laid over until tomorrow.

LYING IN STATE.

Funeral of Pres. Carnot Will Occur on Sunday Next

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

PARIS, June 26.—The remains of Pres. Carnot arrived here this morning and were placed in state at the Palace Elysees. The funeral will occur Sunday and the body will be placed in the Pantheon.

BURBANK GOT LEFT.

Gov. Greenhalge Made a Nomination for State Fire Marshal.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

BOSTON, June 26.—Gov. Greenhalge sent the following nominations to the executive council today: C. W. Whitcomb to be state fire marshal; Charles Gifford of Newburyport to be gas and electric light commissioner; John E. Sanford to be railroad commissioner; Luther Hill of Spencer, deposed by Gov. Russell, to be trial justice: Otis W. Sole of Abington to be clerk of the second district court.

FROM THE WIRE.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

Bridgeport, Ct., had a $15,000 fire today. Wheeler & Howe's four story block was burned.

A man named Harrington belonging in Brooklyn, shot and killed himself on the streets of Haverhill this morning.

The London, Eng., grand jury refused to indict Gen. Houston of California for manslaughter, in killing a man by poking him in the eye with an umbrella.

Two Anarchists Arrested.

Associated Press to THE SUN.

VIENNA, June 26—Two anarchists believed to know something of the plot by which President Carnot was killed, were arrested today.

LOCAL NOTES.

Joseph Ayotte and David Drummond are rejoicing. It is a boy in the former case, a girl in the latter.

It was reported at city hall this morning that City Engineer Bowers had been offered a position out of town with a salary of $4500.

Mayor Pickman, Chief Hosmer and Mr. William Brophy, electrician of Boston, are holding a conference in the mayor's office today, relative to the overhead wires in this city.

An electric car coming down Middlesex street at 6.15 a. m. today, collided with one of Hanson's barges. The front of the car was demolished. Travel was delayed about half an hour.

O'Donnell & Gilbride are always leaders in novelties and their latest is a window attraction which pleases the little folks. In it is an automatic figure dressed as a circus clown playing a musical instrument.

The Methuen cotton mills are to be closed on Saturday for a period of four weeks. It is given out that this shut down is not due entirely to lack of orders, but repairs are also to be made in some parts of the mill.

The work on the city hall lot goes on and the objection to the removal of the statute of Victory to use a popular expression, seems to "cut no figure" whatever. The removal of the statue was included in Mr. Eliot's plan.

It is understood that the sub-committee which investigated the crushed stone manufactured at Salem, will report in favor of using it as a top dressing, upon one street as an experiment. The stone for the foundation will be taken from our own crusher.

Two more sites have been offered for the normal school, one on the corner of Ottawa and New York streets, in Centralville, the other at the corner of Middlesex and Walker streets. The committee appointed to receive the state board of education, met last night and made arrangements. Two ladies will be added to the committee, as there are ladies on the board.

COTTOLENE IS MADE TO EAT

It is a vegetable product, made from clarified cotton seed oil—as bright, pure and golden as the Southern sunshine in which it grew.

From this clean and appetizing source comes the new food-product, Cottolene, which is fast revolutionizing the art of cooking, and with which, in healthfulness, flavor, adaptability and economy, no other shortening or cooking fat can compare.

IMITATIONS are MADE TO SELL

To sell on the merits of the genuine. To sell by substitution; or by deception. To sell to the injury of the genuine, to the dissatisfaction of the consumer, to the detriment of the dealer, to the loss of all concerned.

If you wish the best food and the best health, you should insist that your cooking be done with genuine Cottolene. Refuse all counterfeits.

Sold in 3 and 5 pound pails.

Are Now in Great Danger in France.

CARNOT'S FATE HAS TAMED POLITICAL AMBITION.

Santo is Proud of His Bloody Work.

GRENOBLE, June 27.—There has been serious rioting here, and all trouble does not seem to be ended. After the news of the attempted assassination of the president had reached here, and before it was known that he was mortally wounded, a number of French and Italian workmen employed on the horsecar lines were drinking in a wineshop. An Italian made a remark which the Frenchmen regarded as an insult. A free fight followed and caused the gathering of a mob of Frenchmen.

The latter invaded the yards of the horsecar company and attacked and badly beat the Italians who were employed there.

Another riotous French mob formed on the Avenue Thiers. The Italian cafes were attacked and their contents destroyed in some cases, and in others they were simply compelled to close. A number of Italians' stores were treated in the same manner.

The mob marched through the streets shouting: "Down with the Italians."

The police were unable to disperse the rioters, and several Italians were beaten and kicked. Later the mob was re-enforced and proceeded to the Rue Gambetta. There somebody cried: "To the Italian consulate."

The police in vain tried to check the mob, but they were overpowered. The leaders of this demonstration procured a ladder, fixed it to the balcony of the Italian consulate and several of the rioters entered the consulate, tore up the Italian flag, smashed the escutcheon, broke the furniture, threw the statuettes upon the floor and kicked them to pieces, and finally seizing upon two large and handsome oil paintings, representing King Humbert and Queen Margherita of Italy, they threw them into the street.

Soldiers then charged upon the mob. After a short conflict the rioters were driven out of the consulate and out of the street in which it is situated. The prefect made an apology to the Italian consul for the outrageous manner in which the rioters had behaved.

The two leaders of the attack upon the Italian consulate were arrested, and this caused a renewal of the disturbance. Several dangerous mobs gathered as soon as the news of the arrest of the ringleaders became known, and finally matters assumed such a serious aspect that the prefect was compelled to summon the troops of the garrison.

The military authorities occupied all the public squares and boulevards with infantry, cavalry and artillery, and Grenoble was to all intents and purposes in a state of siege. The officers in command of the troops were given orders to take stern measures to prevent rioting.

Widow Bears Up Bravely

Mme. Carnot returned to Paris from Lyons with the remains of the president coffined in plain oak. The civil and police authorities received her, but no time was spent in vain compliments.

About 7000 persons, chiefly members of the working class, were massed outside the railway station. The widow was accompanied by her three sons to Paris. The train was awaited at the terminus by a funeral wagon, two landaus and a coupe for the officers who went with the president to Lyons. The mournful party were soon conveyed to the palace of the Elysee.

Mme. Carnot has not touched food since Sunday night, but she was able yesterday to drink deep draughts of milk, flavored with coffee. Her mental and moral vigor sustains her. She spent yesterday ordering mourning, arranging for the funeral, dictating answers to the telegrams from Queen Victoria, President Cleveland, Emperor William, Empress Augusta, the czar, King Humbert and others, and receiving the ambassadors bringing them.

Danger Was In the Air.

Madame Carnot has piles of letters threatening her husband and sons, received before and after the executions of Vaillant and Henry. Not long ago, M. Carnot, when walking in the bois with General Borius, was shadowed by a fellow of whom he could only rid himself of by retreating to his carriage. He had been warned from Italy to keep well guarded. Other warnings came from Brussels to beware of the Grand Prix on June 17.

On June 20 the prefect of Herault telegraphed the minister of the interior that a dangerous Italian anarchist named Santo had arrived at Cette. This intimation was also ignored, with the Lyons tragedy for the consequence.

Ambition Dwindling.

Seemingly M. Carnot's fate tames the ambition of those politicians who coveted the presidency. M. Lacour, speaker of the senate, refuses to run for the office. Prime Minister Dupuy seemingly has the best chances, but is less keen than was M. Casimir-Perier.

M. Brisson, who has been a candidate twice already, has some chances. M. Casimir-Perier would just now be dangerous, because he is repugnant to the industrial working classes. A large number of Opportunists may unite with the Radicals and Socialists on M. Brisson or M. Bourgeois. Bourgeois is a dark horse, but so was Carnot in 1887, under different circumstances, however. A presidential election is in the nature of a vatican conclave, and is the object of endless bargaining and intriguing.

M. Casimir-Perier is the man for the wealthy bourgeoisie and aristocratic society. He is wise in his own conceit, but the responsibility involved in the presidency might cure this. In America he might pass for an old-fashioned Whig.

Anarchist Ravings.

According to The Matin, Louise E. Michel, the notorious woman anarchist, says that the execution of President Carnot was not more than a simple act of justice. In M. Carnot a whole class, the whole bourgeois world, has been struck at. M. Carnot embodied the capitalist republic. It was not merely Deibler's (the executioner's) president, but also the Panamaists' president, who has fallen under Cesario's dagger. Anarchy will once more have deserved well of mankind, for love of mankind is the sole object of anarchy. Individual revolt is the prelude to a grand plebian revolution from which social harmony will emerge.

Alexander E. Cohen, a Belgian anarchist, who was recently expelled from France, says it was not an assassination, but an execution. Ravachol, Vaillant and Henry have been avenged. Carnot was pitiless to anarchists. Coldly and cruelly, despite counsels to clemency, he handed them over to Deibler. He who sows the wind will reap the whirlwind.

An article from The Parti Socialiste, published prior to the execution of Vaillant, declares that if he allowed the execution nobody would pity Carnot if one day he should meet the little unpleasantness of seeing his wooden carcass shattered by a bomb. The Radical papers objected to The Parti Socialiste being prosecuted for the article.

LYONS, June 27.—At 7 o'clock last evening a riotous mob gathered and marched upon the northern district of the city. Upon arriving there the rioters attacked and looted a number of stores owned by Italians. During the pillaging, a barrel of petroleum exploded and three of the rioters were burned to death.

The rioting continues at this hour, and troops have been hastily dispatched to the northern district. In addition, all the dangerous points about Lyons have been occupied by the military, and most serious trouble is apprehended.

About 600 people were arrested during the rioting yesterday.

The mayor of Lyons has issued a proclamation in which he says: "The malefactors, who in the guise of patriots are committing heinous deeds of vandalism and pillage, will be punished as vulgar criminals." The mayor then appealed to all honest citizens to assist the authorities in repressing rioting.

No Personal Grievance.

LONDON, June 27.—A dispatch from Lyons says that Santo stated while being examined by the magistrate that he had no personal grievance against President Carnot. He killed him because he was a tyrant.

The magistrate asked: "Are you an anarchist?"

Santo replied: "Yes, and I am proud of it."

"Why did you kill the president?"

"I will tell a jury; they shall know the motives that prompted my action."

"How did you stab M. Carnot?"

"I pushed aside a cuirassier's horse. I had the dagger concealed in my sleeve and I only had to raise my hand. I aimed at his stomach and brought my arm down sharply, at the same time shouting, 'Vive l' anarchie.' The crowd rushed at and prostrated me, and I was beaten mercilessly."

"You persist in affirming that you did not have accomplices?"

"Yes, but is the president dead?"

Santos gathered from the magistrate's silence that his blow had been effective. He smiled with satisfaction, and, raising his hand, simulated the stabbing.

The examination lasted four hours, and the magistrate was convinced that Santo acted alone.

Carnot's Successor.

PARIS, June 27.—At a plenary meeting of all the Republican senators to decide upon a candidate for the presidency, a vote was taken with the following result: M. Casimir-Perier, 144; M. Dupuy, 15; M. Brisson, 6; M. de Freycinet, 4; M. Constans, 2, M. Araget, 2; M. Loubet, 2; M. Cavaignac, 1.

England's Sorrow.

LONDON, June 27.—In the house of commons a resolution of sorrow and indignation at the murder of President Carnot was adopted. In the house of lords a motion expressing sympathy with France in her sorrow was adopted.

No Serious Rioting.

ROUEN, June 27.—Several Italians have been beaten here, but no serious rioting has occurred.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

Doings at Brighton and Watertown For the Week Ending June 27.

Amount of live stock on the market:

| | Cattle. | Sheep and lambs. | Swine. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Western | 3,826 | 10,062 | 23,860 |
| Massachusetts | 84 | 6 | 71 |
| Maine | 95 | .... | 14 |
| New Hampshire | 143 | 78 | 344 |
| Vermont | 116 | 230 | 169 |
| Totals | 4,264 | 11,276 | 24,448 |

Prices for western beef cattle pr 100 lbs, live weight: Choice, $4.50@4.75; second quality, $4@4.50; third quality, $3@3.50; poorest grades of coarse oxen, cows, bulls, stags, Texans, Colorados, etc, 3c pr lb.

Prices for northern and eastern beef cattle pr lb, dressed weight: Choice, 6½@6¾c; first quality, 5½@5¾c; second quality, 4½@4¾c.

Hides, tallow, etc—Hides, 4½@5c pr lb; tallow, 3¼c pr lb; calf skins, 75c each; lamb skins, 50c each; sheared skins, 25c each; branded hides, 3c pr lb.

Northern and eastern beef cattle—There was a good supply of stock from these states, and there was a fairly active demand. Good cattle sold readily at values from 5½@6½c pr lb stronger than last week.

Milch cows and springers—There was a good supply of fairly good cows on the market, but the demand was slow and the market dull.

Veal calves—The supply was a trifle lighter than last week. Among the arrivals were some very good veals, but the majority of the offerings were of a rather poor quality. Prices showed a decline of from 1½@¼c pr lb from last week.

Sheep and lambs—The supply was much lighter than last week, but it cannot be said that the market is any better. A few young spring lambs were among the offerings, but it is hard to dispose of even these to advantage. Drovers would do better to let the stock run till next fall, when the dressed mutton market will undoubtedly be improved. No change could be quoted in values.

Booked In a Barn.

PROVIDENCE, June 27.—The Swift industrial delegation of the Boston tramps arrived at East Greenwich, Mass., last evening, 23 strong. They lunched in a saloon, were talked to by Mrs. H. S. Merryfield of Boston, and went to sleep in a barn.

Bullets Hit the Mark.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., June 27.—Edward St. Onge last night discovered his wife sitting in the lap of Charles Reed, a well-known man of the town, and fired two shots from a revolver at him, both taking effect.

Windle's Record Lowered.

WALTHAM, Mass., June 27.—John S. Johnson rode right through the record for a flying mile awheel here yesterday, doing the distance in 1:56, breaking the record of Windle, which was 1:58.

Train Robbery In Georgia.

SAVANNAH, June 27.—A train on the Savannah and Western railroad was held up near Homerville by six masked men. The safe in the express car was robbed of its contents, $1222 in cash.

A Remarkable Fall of Rain.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 27.—The heaviest rainfall in 40 years fell here Sunday and Monday. Twelve inches was the amount that fell. Great damage has been done to fencing and growing crops.

FROM OUR 5 O'CLOCK EDITION Of Yesterday.

FOOLISH BOYS

Brains Were Turned by Too Many Dime Novels.

CAME TO LOWELL TO SHOOT INDIANS AND BUFFALO.

Had a Good Layout for Deadly Encounters.

Two dime novel struck youths, Walter E. Lecas, of 104 Waite street, and Willie G. Church, both of Maplewood, came to grief in this city this morning.

They were on their way to Nashua to shoot Indians and camp out, when arrested by Officer Redmond Welch.

Walter and Willie belong to a club in Maplewood where dime novels form the library.

They had read many of these and wishing to follow in the footsteps of Jesse James, Six Fingered Mike and Daredevil Dick and other frontier heroes, they collected a camping outfit and started out.

They spent last night in the wilds of Lexington and this morning boarded a train north, showing tickets for Nashua, where they claimed to live.

At the Bleachery they tried to get off the train and the conductor being suspicious turned them over to Officer Welch when the train arrived at Lowell.

When examined at the police station it was found that they carried a rifle, two loaded revolvers, a dangerous looking bowie knife, four sheath knives, four boxes of cartridges, two fishing lines, two gold rings, a tent, blanket, small mattress, overcoat, frying pan, etc., etc.

They were locked up and their parents notified. At two o'clock this afternoon they were allowed to go home in custody of a young man who called for them. After a few hours in a hot cell their desire for Indian fighting had flown, and the poor red brother is again out of danger.

Denies There Was a Plot.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

LYONS, June 26—Santo today reaffirmed his statement that he alone was responsible for President Carnot's death.

FOR IRON HALLERS.

News That is Not Good News for Many of the Old Officers.

News which will startle thousands of the Iron Hall in Massachusetts was received in Boston yesterday in a dispatch from Indianapolis.

It is to the effect that 54 branches of the order in the state, more than one-third of the whole number, have received word from Robert A. Knight, the Massachusetts receiver, that deficiencies have been found in their accounts, and adding that if the amounts are not made good, and in the hands of the receiver at Indianapolis by June 30 their branches will be thrown out altogether.

The amounts that the different lodges are short, it is said, will range from $25 to $10,000. The branch thought to be the most affected is the largest one in Massachusetts No. 34, located in Cambridge. This branch at the time of the collapse had more than 800 members.

The amount of the deficiency is said to be large, and it is said by those who claim to know that the branch will not be able to raise the necessary amount to send to Indianapolis within so short a time.

Another branch that will be badly affected is the sisterhood branch of Cambridgeport, comprising more than 300 members. The amount of money that it is said the branch will have to raise is about $1000. It is said that some of the officers had a meeting Saturday night and that they decided to make no attempt to raise the money.

It is impossible for the officers to do it alone, as they are said to have no list of the certificate holders.

In the list of lodges affected by the above order is No. 386. According to an 1892 report Branch 386 was located in Lowell.

Sacred Heart School.

The pupils of the Sacred Heart school gave a delightful exhibition in the school hall last night. The hall was finely decorated with flowers. During the program Miss Gertrude McLaughlin presented the pastor, Rev. Joseph Lavoie, O. M. I., a fine bouquet. The little ones who took part in the program acquitted themselves finely and reflected much credit upon the Sisters of Mary, their teachers.

The program follows:

"Bring of Flowers the Fairest," opening hymn, solos by Lizzie Condon and Lizzie Murphy.

Addresses of welcome, seven boys and one girl.

Wedding waltz, instrumental duet, Edith Farrington and Mary Ellen Cuff.

"The Bird's Picnic," recitation, twelve little girls.

Spelling Bee; schoolmaster, Master Frank Maguire.

"The Spider and the Fly," dialogue, Mary Ella and Kitty Lowney, assisted by several little girls.

"Home, Sweet Home," instrumental, Anna Neilon.

"Mrs. Brown's Luggage," comic song and scene.

"When I am a Man," recitation, little boys.

"Six Little Grandmas," pantomime and song.

"The Farmer," song, little boys.

"Game of Chance," dialogue, Martin Maguire, John Kerwin, Eddie Fox and John Dougherty.

Instrumental solo, Fairy Queen waltz.

"Mother's Birthday," song and chorus, little girls.

Proclamation of promotions and good notes.

Tomorrow evening the closing exercises of the grammar school will take place, when the following program will be carried out:

Opening hymn, "Heart of Jesus."

Address to pastor and parents, Master Frank Casey and Grace Spencer.

"Feast of the Sacred Heart," recitation, seven girls.

Instrumental solo, Miss Edith Farrington.

"Mrs. Brown's Luggage," comic song and scene.

Instrumental solo, Anna Neilon.

"The Singular Man," recitation, boys.

"The Witches," song.

"The Boston Boys," dialogue and flag drill.

"Where is My Hat?" recitation, girls.

Instrumental duet, Edith Farrington and Mary Ella Cuff.

"The Lightheart's Pilgrimage," allegory.

Proclamation of promotions and premiums.

The High School.

The graduation of the largest class in the school's history and the first one from the new school began at the High school hall this afternoon at 3 o'clock. It was practically, as far as the program was concerned, a rehearsal of the public and general exercises at Huntington hall tomorrow evening together with an exhibition of the mental capabilities of many of the pupils, the attendance today being more particularly parents and friends of the graduates. The program proved very enjoyable and it included several features new for the school.

This morning, John P. Mahoney offered as a site for the normal school, the Manlowcroft estate at the corner of Moore and Lawrence streets.

INVESTIGATION WANTED.

ORDER INTRODUCED IN THE LEGISLATURE TODAY.

Special Committee to Sit During the Recess and Report to the Next General Court.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

BOSTON, June 26.—Rep. Bennett of Everett introduced an order in the house today for a house committee to investigate the charge of undue influence in the passage of the Bell Telephone bill, Meigs bill and Cape Cod canal bill. The committee is to sit all summer and report to the new general court. On request of Mr. Moriarty of Worcester the bill was laid over until tomorrow.

LYING IN STATE.

Funeral of Pres. Carnot Will Occur on Sunday Next.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

PARIS, June 26.—The remains of Pres. Carnot arrived here this morning and were placed in state at the Palace Elysees.

The funeral will occur Sunday and the body will be placed in the Pantheon.

BURBANK GOT LEFT.

Gov. Greenhalge Made a Nomination for State Fire Marshal.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

BOSTON, June 26.—Gov. Greenhalge sent the following nominations to the executive council today: C. W. Whitcomb to be state fire marshal; Charles Gifford of Newburyport to be gas and electric light commissioner; John E. Sanford to be rail road commissioner; Luther Hill of Spencer, deposed by Gov. Russell, to be trial justice; Otis W. Sole of Abington to be clerk of the second district court.

FROM THE WIRE.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

Bridgeport, Ct., had a $45,000 fire today. Wheeler & Howe's four story block was burned.

A man named Harrington belonging in Brooklyn, shot and killed himself on the streets of Haverhill this morning.

The London, Eng., grand jury refused to indict Gen. Houston of California for manslaughter, in killing a man by poking him in the eye with an umbrella.

Two Anarchists Arrested.

Associated Press to THE SUN.

VIENNA, June 26—Two anarchists believed to know something of the plot by which President Carnot was killed, were arrested today.

LOCAL NOTES.

Joseph Ayotte and David Drummond are rejoicing. It is a boy in the former case, a girl in the latter.

It was reported at city hall this morning that City Engineer Bowers had been offered a position out of town with a salary of $4500.

Mayor Pickman, Chief Hosmer and Mr. William Brophy, electrician of Boston, are holding a conference in the mayor's office today, relative to the overhead wires in this city.

An electric car coming down Middlesex street at 6.15 a. m. today, collided with one of Hanson's barges. The front of the car was demolished. Travel was delayed about half an hour.

O'Donnell & Gilbride are always leaders in novelties and their latest is a window attraction which pleases the little folks. In it is an automatic figure dressed as a circus clown playing a musical instrument.

The Methuen cotton mills are to be closed on Saturday for a period of four weeks. It is given out that this shut down is not due entirely to lack of orders, but repairs are also to be made in some parts of the mill.

The work on the city hall lot goes on and the objection to the removal of the statute of Victory to use a popular expression, seems to "cut no figure" whatever. The removal of the statue was included in Mr. Eliot's plan.

It is understood that the sub-committee which investigated the crushed stone manufactured at Salem, will report in favor of using it as a top dressing, upon one street as an experiment. The stone for the foundation will be taken from our own crusher.

Two more sites have been offered for the normal school, one on the corner of Ottawa and New York streets, in Centralville, the other at the corner of Middlesex and Walker streets. The committee appointed to receive the state board of education, met last night and made arrangements. Two ladies will be added to the committee, as there are ladies on the board.

COTTOLENE IS MADE TO EAT

It is a vegetable product, made from clarified cotton seed oil—as bright, pure and golden as the Southern sunshine in which it grew.

From this clean and appetizing source comes the new food-product, Cottolene, which is fast revolutionizing the art of cooking, and with which, in healthfulness, flavor, adaptability and economy, no other shortening or cooking fat can compare.

IMITATIONS are MADE TO SELL

To sell on the merits of the genuine. To sell by substitution; or by deception, To sell to the injury of the genuine, to the dissatisfaction of the consumer, to the detriment of the dealer, to the loss of all concerned.

If you wish the best food and the best health, you should insist that your cooking be done with genuine Cottolene. Refuse all counterfeits.

Sold in 3 and 5 pound pails.

"I AM NOW A CURED MAN."

The following wonderful statement was sent us by C. B. Carpenter, Druggist, 140 Main St., Spencer, Mass.

DANA SARSAPARILLA CO.:

GENTS.—Some ten years ago I commenced to fail. INDIGESTION and EXTREME CONSTIPATION caused me to lose flesh very fast. I employed Physicians and tried Sarsaparillas, but continued to grow worse. I had a continuous headache, my skin turned yellow, and my friends thought I must die. My strength left me and courage also. This was my condition last February when I commenced to take

DANA'S SARSAPARILLA

Before the first bottle was gone, there was a great improvement. My friends wanted to know what caused such a change in me. I replied "DANA'S SARSAPARILLA." I am now taking my third bottle and consider myself at the age of 46, after Doctors had failed, a CURED MAN.

Yours respectfully, J. R. HERSEY.

THE LITTIG MURDER.

Mrs. Butchman Said to Have Made an Incriminating Statement.

NATICK, Mass., June 27.—The mysterious murder of Jacob Littig at Wellesley on June 1, 1893, was, it is reported, suddenly recalled on Sunday last at the Cape district, the German colony on the line between South Natick and Wellesley. It is stated that on that date Mary, the wife of Fritz Butchman, the engineer at Pfeiffer's shoeshop, over-indulged in wine.

When Fritz attempted to upbraid her she became furious, and a battle ensued, in which the woman had two ribs broken. In this condition she is said to have rushed into the streets, yelling at the top of her voice: "You have killed Littig, and now you want to kill me!" She was placed under a doctor's care, and is reported as convalescing. It is expected that Butchman will be brought up for trial.

Jacob Littig, with the back of his head battered in as if with a stone or a club, was found on the Wellesley boundary line, a few rods from Butchman's house. Butchman was held for investigation, but discharged subsequently, as his wife refused to testify against him.

The last time Littig was seen alive he was seen leaving Butchman's house. Half an hour afterward Charles Georke heard sounds of a scuffle in front of his house, and heard Littig's groans, but was afraid to go out, and waited till the morning, when the body was found near the fence on the roadside.

Butchman told a straight story and was released from custody. Of late he has been acting as a special police officer in Wellesley. Littig's was the sixth murder in almost as many years in this section, and nobody has ever been brought to punishment for the crimes.

STORE IS CLOSED.

Victims Would Like to Know the Whereabouts of Druggist Frank Moulton.

WORCESTER, Mass., June 27.—A man who gave his name as Frank Moulton bought a drug store at 235 Main street six weeks ago. He attended church, exhorted in prayer meetings and attained a reputation for piety. He opened an account with the Quinsigamond National bank. Ten days ago he deposited a cashier's check for $5400, purporting to be drawn by the National bank of Tama, on the First National bank of Chicago, payable to Moulton on order.

June 20 he drew $1300 against it, taking a cashier's check from the Quinsigamond bank on a New York bank.

He went to Providence, where he is known as W. B. Snow, and has a reputation for zeal in temperance work. He got a reputable citizen to identify him, cashed his check and skipped. He only paid $300 down on the drug store, and last night the mortgagee foreclosed and closed up the store. The police are looking for the forger.

Married in Bangor.

At Bangor yesterday James Arthur Snare of Chelmsford, Mass., and Miss Sarah Jenness Freese were married at the home of the bride's mother, on Cedar street.

Rev. John McCaw Foster of St. John's Episcopal church officiated, and the bridal couple during the ceremony stood beneath the traditional bell.

Mr. Snare is in business in Lowell, and a number of his friends were here for the wedding.

HYMENEAL.

Mr. Patrick Cox, the well known clerk for P. Dempsey, and Miss Sarah Gannon, were married at St Patrick's parochial residence yesterday afternoon. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Cox repaired to their new home, 35 Marsh street where a wedding feast was in waiting, and of which immediate friends and relatives of the couple partook. The bride looked charming in a gown of white silk with pearl trimmings. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Mary Lowe, who wore a gown of pearl gray silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of tea roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Edward Cox. The happy couple left the city on an evening train for a bridal trip to include New York and Montreal, the latter place being the home of the bride. They were the recipients of many costly wedding gifts, and their friends wish them a happy future.

BOARD OF TRADE.

REVIEW OF ITS OWN EFFORTS THE PAST WINTER.

Self Congratulations Seemed to be in Order Among the Members For What Had Been Accomplished.

The Board of Trade held a very lightly attended meeting last evening, nine members being present when President Hansom called to order.

A vote of thanks from the Orchestral club for the use of the rooms was received.

Sec. Smith read a letter from Capt. Dolan of Lawrence, secretary of the Board of Trade of that city, relating to the regular outing of the Merrimack valley boards of trade.

D. H. Varnum, who has been in communication with the Lawrence board, spoke of the elaborate arrangements which were being made for the outing. He also spoke on the meeting held in Lawrence yesterday, at which the matter of a state highway was discussed.

Mr. Charles E. Adams made brief remarks on the matter of a state highway.

The report of the committee on insurance rates was not ready to be given. Secretary Smith said the committee had got together much matter but it had not been congested as yet, and he suggested laying over the matter until the September meeting.

The next business was Secretary Smith's report on legislation which reviewed the legislative matters discussed by the board and the outcome of their discussion. The matter of grade crossings was reviewed and the secretary thought this the time for a complete reorganization of the local railroad system. The revision of the charter relating to the election of the overseers of the poor and the normal school matters were also dwelt upon. He complimented the unity of action which was noticeable among the citizens of Lowell in the latter fight.

The highway commission was mentioned after which discussion of the comparison between the system of governments in an English and American manufacturing city, the outcome of which was the presentation to the legislature by the board of a bill for license commission, thus taking the granting of licenses out of the hands of the board of aldermen, was taken up, and the subsequent fate of the bill and the present commission were reviewed.

He then mentioned the prospects for a better municipal government. Among other things he said that a committee of the city government had found sewers near home built for a third what they cost here.

"There are already indications of a revival of interest in legitimate municipal affairs here," the report said, "We are going to have better streets among other things."

"The human product of our common schools is the raw material of Massachusetts, and wealth lies in working it up by creating self sustaining men and women to engage in profitable occupations. If we are not to utilize it for its own profit and the consequent profit of the whole community, it is folly to spend one quarter million of our revenues in our schools."

The report intimated that the money which could be saved on sewers would be more sufficient to open up higher departments in our school system, giving the children of the wage earner a more general and beneficial education.

It was unanimously accepted.

Pres. Hansom then spoke on the matter of a normal school site. He hoped the members would do all that was in their power to make the visit of the state board of education both pleasant and profitable. There were 30 or more sites to be seen.

Charles E. Adams spoke further on the outing, and urged a big representation of the local board. Lowell has the largest board, and should have 60 per cent. of its members present. There should be more concentrated action among the members.

D. H. Varnum said that the Lawrence people believe that were it not for the hustlers in Lowell the normal school would have been in that city. He thought that a big crowd of these hustlers should go down.

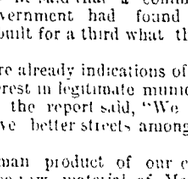

Mr. Chalifoux suggested that each member appoint himself a committee of one to see a certain number of members and get them out for the outing.

The matter was finally referred to the directors.

The board then adjourned.

VETOED BILL

The Governor Kills the Bell Telephone Swindle.

ALLEGED CORRUPT PRACTICES TO BE INVESTIGATED.

The Color Line to be Obliterated in Records.

BOSTON, June 27.—The senate spent another day in conference on the Meigs elevated railway bill. Several amendments were agreed upon.

Governor Greenhalge has vetoed the bill to authorize the American Bell Telephone company to increase its capital to $50,000,000.

To the press the governor furnished the following statement regarding his disapproval: First, there is no immediate call for such an increase. Second, the company claims not to be a quasi-public corporation. The claim is not tenable It is potentially and legally, by its charter, entitled to do a telephone business itself. Third, it should not be exempt from laws as to stock watering. Fourth, it is in effect a quasi-public corporation, and should be subject to all laws and restrictions imposed upon such corporations. It is believed that the bill cannot be passed over the veto in spite of its support in the house and senate.

In the house Mr. Bennett introduced an order providing for the appointment of a special committee composed of seven members of the house, to sit during the recess, to investigate what undue influence or corrupt practices were resorted to to secure the passage of the bills to increase the capital stock of the American Bell Telephone company, to incorporate the Boston Elevated (Meigs) Railway company, to incorporate the Massachusetts Ship Canal company or any other measures concerning which the committee believe inquiry is necessary as to influence of the lobby.

Mr. Teamoh introduced a bill to terminate the use of the term "colored" applied to persons. The bill provides that the word "color" or "colored" shall be hereafter omitted in all official records of births, marriages or deaths, and if so requested by any applicant, it shall be omitted from existing records.

The death of Mr. Smalley of Nantucket was announced, and the house adjourned, after the speaker appointed the members to attend the funeral.

DIED IN A HOSPITAL.

Waltham Man Believed to Have Been the Victim of an Assault.

BOSTON, June 27.—Henry Cain, 25 years old, is charged with assaulting Daniel Connelly, 26 years old, a Waltham baseball player, on Monday night. Connelly, while under the influence of liquor, engaged a room at Hotel Royal, and upon being assigned a room he went out. About 11 o'clock he was brought into the hotel in a dazed condition. Two men who were with him said he had been assaulted by a man on Alden street, who had run away. Dr. Thompson ordered him to the city hospital, where he died yesterday morning. Cain confessed that he had struck a man Monday night in self defense, but said that he did not know that he had injured the man. Cain is held to await an autopsy on the deceased to determine what was the cause of death.

Is the President Uneasy?

STUPENDOUS OFFERINGS -IN- LADIES' SUITS AND WAISTS

Thursday, Friday, Saturday, of This Week.

Like the man who made it an invariable rule of his life, to take a bath once a year whether he needed it or not, it is a good plan for every lady whose eye rests upon this announcement to inspect the wonderful bargains we offer in seasonable and much-sought for goods.

All our high grade LADIES' SUITS AND WAISTS will be thrown into an unrelenting vortex at prices which will constitute the most stupendous offering ever made in mid-season.

Ladies' Black and Blue Serge Suits that were $7, down to $3.98 each.

Ladies' Black and Blue Serge, Cheviot and Covert Suits that were $10.50, down to $6.75 each.

All our Ladies' Novelty Suits that have sold at $15 to $23, down to $10 each.

Ladies' Duck Suits $1.49 to $4.98 each.

LADIES' VESTS AND WAISTS.

If there is a lady in town who hasn't got a new Shirt Waist by the end of this week, it's because she has not seen our stock. If you've got an eye for merit and a taste for economy, you may gratify both by taking advantage of this offer:

200 dozen LADIES' SHIRT WAISTS in printed Percales and Satines, Chambrays in pink, blue and lavender, striped and figured Dimity and White Lawns, many of them with Laundered Collars and Cuffs, worth from 75c. to $1.50. The entire aggregation will be offered at 50c. EACH.

LADIES' DUCK VESTS in Red, White, and Ecru, $1.23 EACH.

LADIES' COTTON UNDERWEAR.

You never bought stylish, well made Underwear as you buy here this week. An oversanguine manufacturer (overstocked) short of cash, unloads several thousand dollars' worth at less than half his original price, and they go to you the same way. This week will witness the season's most remarkable Cotton Underwear showing at Lowell's recognized Cotton Underwear centre, which of course you know is on our second floor. Never such a gathering—never such values.

THE LITTIG MURDER.

Mrs. Butchman Said to Have Made an Incriminating Statement.

NATICK, Mass., June 27.—The mysterious murder of Jacob Littig at Wellesley on June 1, 1893, was, it is reported, suddenly recalled on Sunday last at the Cape district, the German colony on the line between South Natick and Wellesley. It is stated that on that date Mary, the wife of Fritz Butchman, the engineer at Pfeiffer's shoeshop, over-indulged in wine.

When Fritz attempted to upbraid her she became furious, and a battle ensued, in which the woman had two ribs broken. In this condition she is said to have rushed into the streets, yelling at the top of her voice: "You have killed Littig, and now you want to kill me!" She was placed under a doctor's care, and is reported as convalescing. It is expected that Butchman will be brought up for trial.

Jacob Littig, with the back of his head battered in as if with a stone or a club, was found on the Wellesley boundary line, a few rods from Butchman's house. Butchman was held for investigation, but discharged subsequently, as his wife refused to testify against him.

The last time Littig was seen alive he was seen leaving Butchman's house. Half an hour afterward Charles Georke heard sounds of a scuffle in front of his house, and heard Littig's groans, but was afraid to go out, and waited till the morning, when the body was found near the fence on the roadside.

Butchman told a straight story and was released from custody. Of late he has been acting as a special police officer in Wellesley. Littig's was the sixth murder in almost as many years in this section, and nobody has ever been brought to punishment for the crimes.

WORCESTER, Mass., June 27.—A man who gave his name as Frank Moulton bought a drug store at 235 Main street six weeks ago. He attended church, exhorted in prayer meetings and attained a reputation for piety. He opened an account with the Quinsigamond National bank. Ten days ago he deposited a cashier's check for $3400, purporting to be drawn by the National bank of Tama, on the First National bank of Chicago, payable to Moulton on order.

June 20 he drew $1500 against it, taking a cashier's check from the Quinsigamond bank on a New York bank.

He went to Providence, where he is known as W. B. Snow, and has a reputation for zeal in temperance work. He got a reputable citizen to identify him, cashed the check and skipped. He only paid $300 down on the drug store, and last night the mortgages foreclosed and closed up the store. The police are looking for the forger.

Married in Bangor.

At Bangor yesterday James Arthur Spare of Chelmsford, Mass., and Miss Sarah Jenness Freese were married at the home of the bride's mother, on Cedar street.

Rev. John McCaw Foster of St. John's Episcopal church officiated, and the bridal couple during the ceremony stood beneath the traditional bell.

Mr. Spare is in business in Lowell, and a number of his friends were here for the wedding.

HYMENEAL.

Mr. Patrick Cox, the well known clerk for P. Dempsey, and Miss Sarah Gannon, were married at St. Patrick's parochial residence yesterday afternoon. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Cox repaired to their new home, 35 Marsh street where a wedding feast was in waiting, and of which immediate friends and relatives of the couple partook. The bride looked charming in a gown of white silk with pearl trimmings. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Mary Lowe, who wore a gown of pearl gray silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of tea roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Edward Cox. The happy couple left the city on an evening train for a bridal trip to include New York and Montreal, the latter place being the home of the bride. They were the recipients of many costly wedding gifts, and their friends wish them a happy future.

BOARD OF TRADE.

REVIEW OF ITS OWN EFFORTS THE PAST WINTER.

Self Congratulations Seemed to be In Order Among the Members For What Had Been Accomplished.

The Board of Trade held a very lightly attended meeting last evening, nine members being present when President Hanscom called to order.

A vote of thanks from the Orchestral club for the use of the rooms was received.

Sec. Smith read a letter from Capt. Dolan of Lawrence, secretary of the Board of Trade of that city, relating to the regular outing of the Merrimack valley boards of trade.

D. H. Varnum, who has been in communication with the Lawrence board, spoke of the elaborate arrangements which were being made for the outing. He also spoke on the meeting held in Lawrence yesterday, at which the matter of a state highway was discussed.

Mr. Charles E. Adams made brief remarks on the matter of a state highway.

The report of the committee on insurance rates was not ready to be given. Secretary Smith said the committee had got together much matter but it had not been congested as yet, and he suggested laying over the matter until the September meeting.

The next business was Secretary Smith's report on legislation which reviewed the legislative matters discussed by the board and the outcome of their discussion. The matter of grade crossings was reviewed and the secretary thought this the time for a complete reorganization of the local railroad system. The revision of the charter relating to the election of the overseers of the poor and the normal school matters were also dwelt upon. He complimented the unity of action which was noticeable among the citizens of Lowell in the latter fight.

The highway commission was mentioned after which discussion of the comparison between the system of governments in an English and American manufacturing city, the outcome of which was the presentation to the legislature by the board of a bill for license commission, thus taking the granting of licenses out of the hands of the board of aldermen, was taken up, and the subsequent fate of the bill and the present commission were reviewed.

He then mentioned the prospects for a better municipal government. Among other things he said that a committee of the city government had found sewers near home built for a third what they cost here.

"There are already indications of a revival of interest in legitimate municipal affairs here," the report said, "We are going to have better streets among other things."

"The human product of our common schools is the raw material of Massachusetts, and wealth lies in working it up by creating self sustaining men and women to engage in profitable occupations. If we are not to utilize it for its own profit and the consequent profit of the whole community, it is folly to spend one quarter million of our revenues in our schools."

The report intimated that the money which could be saved on sewers would be alone sufficient to open up higher departments in our school system, giving the children of the wage earner a more general and beneficial education.

It was unanimously accepted.

Pres. Hanscom then spoke on the matter of a normal school site. He hoped the members would do all that was in their power to make the visit of the state board of education both pleasant and profitable. There were 30 or more sites to be seen.

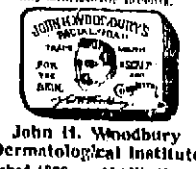

Charles E. Adams spoke further on the outing, and urged a big representation of the local board. Lowell has the largest board, and should have 90 per cent. of its members present. There should be more concentrated action among the members.

D. H. Varnum said that the Lawrence people believe that were it not for the hustlers in Lowell the normal school would have been in that city. He thought that a big crowd of these hustlers should go down.

Mr. Chalifoux suggested that each member appoint himself a committee of one to see a certain number of members and get them out for the outing.

The matter was finally referred to the directors.

The board then adjourned.

VETOED BILL

The Governor Kills the Bell Telephone Swindle.

ALLEGED CORRUPT PRACTICES TO BE INVESTIGATED.

The Color Line to be Obliterated in Records.

BOSTON, June 27.—The senate spent another day in conference on the Meigs elevated railway bill. Several amendments were agreed upon.

Governor Greenhalge has vetoed the bill to authorize the American Bell Telephone company to increase its capital to $50,000,000.

To the press the governor furnished the following statement regarding his disapproval: First, there is no immediate call for such an increase. Second, the company claims not to be a quasi-public corporation. The claim is not tenable. It is potentially and legally, by its charter, entitled to do a telephone business itself. Third, it should not be exempt from laws as to stock watering. Fourth, it is in effect a quasi-public corporation, and should be subject to all laws and restrictions imposed upon such corporations. It is believed that the bill cannot be passed over the veto in spite of its support in the house and senate.

In the house Mr. Bennett introduced an order providing for the appointment of a special committee composed of seven members of the house, to sit during the recess, to investigate what undue influence or corrupt practices were resorted to to secure the passage of the bills to increase the capital stock of the American Bell Telephone company, to incorporate the Boston Elevated (Meigs) Railway company, to incorporate the Massachusetts Ship Canal company or any other measures concerning which the committee believe inquiry is necessary as to influence of the lobby.

Mr. Teamoh introduced a bill to terminate the use of the term "colored" applied to persons. The bill provides that the word "color" or "colored" shall be hereafter omitted in all official records of births, marriages or deaths, and if so requested by any applicant, it shall be omitted from existing records.

The death of Mr. Smalley of Nantucket was announced, and the house adjourned, after the speaker appointed the members to attend the funeral.

DIED IN A HOSPITAL.

Waltham Man Believed to Have Been the Victim of an Assault.

BOSTON, June 27.—Henry Cain, 25 years old, is charged with assaulting Daniel Connelly, 26 years old, a Waltham baseball player, on Monday night. Connelly, while under the influence of liquor, engaged a room at Hotel Royal, and upon being assigned a room he went out. About 11 o'clock he was brought into the hotel in a dazed condition. Two men who were with him said he had been assaulted by a man on Alden street, who had run away. Dr. Thompson ordered him to the city hospital, where he died yesterday morning. Cain confessed that he had struck a man Monday night in self defense, but said that he did not know that he had injured the man. Cain is held to await an autopsy on the deceased to determine what was the cause of death.

Is the President Uneasy?

WASHINGTON, June 27.—President Cleveland's statement on the safe condition of the treasury's finances is regarded by some members of congress as unusual. They say it indicates uneasiness which had not been previously made evident. It is not construed as paving the way for another issue of bonds.

Northampton Doctor In Trouble.

MANY DIPLOMAS

Given at the Grammar School Graduations.

THIS WAS THE DAY OF DAYS FOR PUPILS.

Elaborate Exhibitions Was the Order in Lowell Schools.

The graduating exercises so finely begun yesterday were for the most part brought to a close today in the grammar and parochial schools with elaborate programs. Every school was the scene of these interesting affairs and the attendance of parents and friends was very large. In the Moody school there was a novel feature in the way of an exhibition of kindergarten work which is worthy of special note. Besides this the models from the manual training school made by the boys of the school were shown, and of the models the chest of Frank Dupee was greatly admired. It may be said that the number of pupils graduated from the grammar into the high school is larger than ever before, which is not at all surprising as the classes increase in size each year.

The Colburn School.

In this school today a class of pupils were given diplomas and sent out into the wide, wide world after an interesting exhibition to a large gathering of relatives and friends. The program opened with a reading from the life of Longfellow by Ralph Lewis; a song, "The Open Window," by the class with violin accompaniment by Miss Jessie Sargent, Arthur Hinchey read a paper on "Longfellow at Home;" Miss Lottie Tilson played a piano solo, and Lillian Leith gave Priscilla's Answer" from Longfellow's Myles Standish.

A very pretty dumb bell drill was carried out by the class. Annie Madigan read "To Stay at Home is Best," and the class rendered a descriptive song of "The death of Minnehaha" with readings by Kate Halloran and Lucy Nain. Francis Murphy read from "Evangeline," and Etta Morris and Lillian Leith gave a piano duet. Selections from Evangeline were also given by John O'Rourke, Mary Clogston, Dennis O'Neill, Hannah Sweeney, John Curry and Robert Sleeper. After a song with violin accompaniment by the girls, the class went through a fancy step exercise and then exemplified "The Builders." The program proved a delightful one to all present. The ushers were George Barris and Frank Brennan.

The Moody School.

In this school at 9 o'clock was graduated a large class of pupils, each pupil receiving his or her diploma from the hands of subcommitteeman Thomas P. Boulger.

The exercises as usual were of interest to a large gathering, and well they might, for the program was excellent in its composition, and each participant acquitted themselves finely, reflecting much credit upon Principal Greene and the corps of teachers. The program was as follows.

Song, When May Breezes Murmur . . Kiept
Declamation, Abou Ben Adhem . . Leigh Hunt

The Bartlett School.

The teachers and Principal Durgin had hoped that to-day's exercises would be the last of this nature in the old Bartlett school, but it likely that they will be similarly repeated once more. The exercises today were of an interesting character, as usual. The program was as follows:

Singing, American Hymn.
Reading, Herve Riel . . Edith M. Dempsey
Solo, In Old Madrid . . Lena M. Reed
Essay, Famous American Women,
Ethel M. Harmon
Song, Fiddle and I . . Walter W. Bruce
Class Prophecy . . Thomas J. O'Donnell

OUR COMMON COUNCIL.

IT PASSED A RESOLUTION FOR THE FOURTH.

Lively Time in the Body Over Sites For New School Houses Needed.

The councilmen shot off vocal fireworks last evening to their own enjoyment, and that of the spectators who gathered in the chamber gallery.

The "cuckoos" started out to even up matters and had Clerk Simonds read the report of the previous meeting. The report must have covered about ten pages of a large book. Councilman Gordon of the committee on education succeeded in having resolutions passed for two new school houses.

When President Sparks called to order, Councilman O'Connell moved that the records of the last meeting be read. The motion passed and as the clerk was about to read the report, Councilman O'Brien moved to dispense with the reading of the record. Councilman O'Connell however insisted on his motion and the clerk proceeded to read the report in a manner that could scarcely be understood by the members. Councilman Oliver interrupted the clerk and asked that he raise his voice in order that he might be heard. The report was accepted.

A communication was received from the Central Labor Union, inviting the council to review the Labor Day parade. The invitation was accepted

Councilman O'Connor moved that the building ordinance, laid on the table at the last meeting, be acted upon.

Councilman Ryan wanted the clerk to read the ordinance.

Councilman Lebarge moved that Councilman O'Connor read the ordinance. Councilman Ryan objected, and said we have a clerk for that purpose.

Clerk Simonds remarked that the clerk declined to read it.

The ordinance was finally referred to the Committee on Ordinance and Legislation without being read

Several petitions were referred in concurrence.

The report relative to the watering of streets for the year 1894 was accepted.

The following reports were accepted: To continue the watering of Loring street; to discontinue the watering of Concord street.

On the question relative to the donation of the cannon in Monument square to the trustees of the Lowell Cemetery, Councilman Killpatrick moved to adhere to former action, and the motion passed.

Notice of suit for damages to the amount of $5000 was received from John McKenzier also one for $5000 from Ann Webb, and one for $5000 from Hannah Welch.

To Celebrate the Fourth

Councilman Curtin's notice of reconsideration of the $2000 Fourth of July resolution was then acted upon.

Councilman Curtin expressed himself in favor of reconsideration. The members have had sufficient time to consider the question. The Ward Six councilman referred to the "hard times" and spoke a word for the toilers, whose interests he said should be considered as well as those who are to reap the harvest.

Councilman Curtin's motion to reconsider was passed, 15 to 8.

The resolution was then passed to a second reading, 16 to 7

Councilman Robinson moved the suspension of the 35th rule and the motion was passed, 15 to 7

Before a vote was taken on final passage, Councilman Ryan said he was opposed to the resolution because it is too late to arrange for a celebration. The council should know very well that this resolution will never leave the upper board.

Councilman O'Connor claimed that the people demand this celebration

"We should impress upon the minds of the young the significance of the day and vote this sum of $2000"

Councilman Curtin said he was sorry to see the patriotism of the councilman from the third ward measured by $2000. If the councilman desired to display his patriotic feelings, be should have introduced this resolution six weeks ago.

Councilman O'Connor replied that he was not bulging over with patriotism, but he had as much in him as the average man

Councilmen Robinson and Tryder spoke in favor of the resolution, and Councilman Kittredge said that he heard that Peter H. Donohoe is willing to give $100 toward a celebration provided ten or twenty others do the same.

"What's the matter with you?" interrupted Councilman Ryan, and the members smiled.

The resolution then took its final passage, 15 to 8.

To Hasten Action.

Councilman Lebarge introduced an order asking the street committee to report to the council on the new Moody street bridge before August 1. The councilman criticized the committee for delay already experienced. The order passed.

The board of health renewed its petition for a $10,000 loan for a stable for the health department.

The Payne Firework Co. sent in a notice of willingness to submit bids on fireworks.

Sites for New Schools.

Upon recommendation of the committee on education a resolution was introduced for $25,000 for sites for two new school houses, one in Centralville, the other in Middlesex village.

Councilman O'Connor opposed the resolution because it gave to the committee on education, power that properly belongs to the lands and buildings committee.

Councilman Gordon believed the committee competent to select the sites and purchase them.

Councilman O'Connor did not think it business to recommend any man's site, and then purchase it afterwards

Councilman Curtin reminded the councilman from the third ward that no committee is a sub-committee to the committee on lands and buildings. The report and recommendation of sites were adopted and the resolution to purchase land passed 16 to 7

Then came the question of the loan of $25,000 to cover the matter. Of this $2400 is for the purchase of the lot corner Billings street and Aiken avenue, and $1900 for the lot corner Middlesex and Cornell streets. The remainder for buildings.

Councilman Ryan opposed the Middlesex village site and said one could be got cheaper.

Councilman Custy in a speech setting forth the claim for a new Bartlett school said he was in favor of the resolution, and though a member of the lands and buildings didn't care who made the purchase.

After a little more discussion the loan resolution passed by an unanimous vote.

The council then adjourned.

PLEASE ASK PERMISSION.

City Ordinances Must be Observed or Offenders Will Have to Pay Fines as One Did Today.

Three drunks.

Louis Tessier, a travelling vender of patent medicines who lives in Montreal, pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness. Louis said he comes here every summer and stays two months, after which he goes to Nashua, Manchester and Concord. He had been in before and had done 30 days for drunkenness. Said Judge Hadley to him, "How long do you intend to stay in this city?"

Tessier: "Two months, your Honor."

Judge Hadley: "How long will it take you to get out of this commonwealth?"

Tessler: "About two months and a half."

Judge Hadley: "Well, I will give you just one day. If you are found in this city after tomorrow you will go to Bridgewater."

Joseph Libbey, a dudishly dressed young man with a hair cut that was decidedly Berry Wall, was charged with breaking and entering the house of Gilbert P. Morton, and stealing, therefrom, a watch, ring and some money. Libbey said he didn't break into the house as the door was open. The case was continued until July 3.

Patrick Corcoran while erecting a derrick at the new St. Jean Baptiste church mutilated a shade tree in front of the residence of Jos Smith on Merrimack street without asking permission of the city forester or any one else. He was fined one dollar.

Harriet Bourdeau, a stubborn child was placed on probation.

Wm McShea was fined $2 for an allged assault on Michael J. O'Boyle.

Thomas Drew wanted to go to the brewery opening last week and not caring to walk took a horse and wagon belonging to Roswell Fox. He had not gone far when Mr. Fox took the team away from him. He was fined $5.

VETO UPHELD

House Would Not Pass the Telephone Bill.

BY A BIG MAJORITY IT SUSTAINED THE GOVERNOR.

Friends of the Bill Raised Points of Order.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

BOSTON, June 27.—Rep. Roberts of Chelsea raised the point in the house today that Gov. Greenhalge had not returned his veto of the Bell Telephone bill within the five days prescribed by law, and therefore it would not hold.

Speaker Meyer claimed the point was a constitutional one and refused to entertain it.

Motions to refer the matter to the judiciary committee and to delay action till tomorrow were refused.

By a vote of 115 to 39 the house sustained the vote of Gov. Greenhalge.

In the house by a vote of 54 to 13 the house passed the amended weavers' particulars bill of the senate making it apply only to cotton mills.

MAN SHOT

Big Break in Charlestown Prison Today.

CHAIR SHOP WAS SET ON FIRE.

Officers Use Their Revolvers in Self Defence.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

BOSTON, June 27.—There was a fire and outbreak at Charlestown state prison at 1.55 p. m. In the rumpus two men were shot and one was reported to be dead. It is learned that the chair shop was found to be on fire, and the men at work there at once broke out in disorder.

In the trouble the officers drew their clubs and charged the men to force them back into their cells but failing in this they drew their revolvers and fired.

Many of the officers fired in the air, but one, Thomas Donovan, fearing for his life, shot a convict, Joseph Oakes, fatally wounding him.

Later—It is now learned that the second man was not shot; he was badly clubbed. A detail of officers from station 15 assisted in restoring order.

The chair shop was a 2½ story building and probably caught fire from a locomotive spark.

The damage by fire was $500, but by water will be very heavy.

Prisoners in other departments became restless and were with difficulty restrained. There is still great excitement inside and outside the prison.

FIGHT IS ON.

TWO RAILROADS TIED UP BY THE SWITCH TENDERS.

Latest Move in the Pullman Contest—All Chicago Suburban Trains Abandoned—Leaders are Confident of Success of Boycott.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

CHICAGO, June 27.—The switch tenders and the crews of the switch engines on the Illinois Central Railroad in this city struck at 12 o'clock last night, by orders from the American Railway Union, of which they are members.

This is the latest extension of the strike in connection with the boycott of Pullman cars. It practically ties up the Illinois Central and the roads depending on it (the Michigan Central and Big Four) in this city.

Late last night all suburban trains on the Illinois Central were abandoned on account of the trainmen who are members of the American railway union joining the switchmen in their strike.

Chief Arthur of the brotherhood of locomotive engineers, telegraphed:

"The rules of our order will not allow us to cooperate with you. We blame Pullman for refusal to arbitrate differences."

Stole Ham and Lager.

A mean trick was played on Patrick Dempsey who resides on Jefferson street, Saturday night.

Mr. Dempsey was expecting a party of friends to spend Sunday with him and on the previous day bought a case of lager and boiled a fifteen pound ham for their entertainment. During the night, however, when all in the house were asleep, the house was entered and the ham and beer stolen. The police went to work on the case, and while they could not find the ham. Officers Redmond, Welch and Maguire arrested John J. Fahey and William Shea charged with breaking and entering and larceny. In court this morning they pleaded guilty and were held in $500 each for the grand jury

Ward Six Caucus

The contest in Ward Six for the nomination of a candidate for the common council closes to-night. It is a hot battle. A friend of Dennis O'Neil called at the SUN office to say that he is a good Democrat, but everybody who knows Dennis is sure of that already.

Jerry Tompkins is prominent in the ward, and is making a big fight. His friends are confident that he will win. Meanwhile Thomas E. O'Day, Cornelius Dugan, P. McGlinchy and Mr. Donohoe are quietly hustling.

The candidates met last night and elected these caucus officers: Timothy F. Hourihan, chairman, William F. Curtin, secretary; William F. Martin, ballot distributor. The polls will open at 5 o'clock this evening.

Marriage Intentions.

The following intentions were recorded at the city clerk's office to-day:

Michael Donnelly 33, to Mary McAndrews 32.
James P. Mackin 26, to Mamie E. Grinnell 23.

Given at the Grammar School Graduations.

THIS WAS THE DAY OF DAYS FOR PUPILS.

Elaborate Exhibitions Was the Order in Lowell Schools.

The graduating exercises so finely begun yesterday were for the most part brought to a close today in the grammar, and parochial schools with elaborate programs. Every school was the scene of these interesting affairs and the attendance of parents and friends was very large. In the Moody school there was a novel feature in the way of an exhibition of kindergarten work which is worthy of special note. Besides this the models from the manual training school made by the boys of the school were shown, and of the models the chest of Frank Dupee was greatly admired. It may be said that the number of pupils graduated from the grammar into the high school is larger than ever before, which is not at all surprising as the classes increase in size each year.

The Colburn School.

In this school today a class of pupils were given diplomas and sent out into the wide, wide world after an interesting exhibition to a large gathering of relatives and friends. The program opened with a reading from the life of Longfellow by Ralph Lewis; a song, "The Open Window," by the class with violin accompaniment by Miss Jessie Sargent; Arthur Hinchey read a paper on "Longfellow at Home;" Miss Lottie Tilson played a piano solo, and Lillian Leith gave Priscilla's Answer" from Longfellow's Myles Standish.

A very pretty dumb bell drill was carried out by the class. Annie Madigan read "To Stay at Home is Best," and the class rendered a descriptive song of "The death of Minnehaha" with readings by Kate Halloran and Lucy Nain. Francis Murphy read from "Evangeline," and Etta Morris and Lillian Leith gave a piano duet. Selections from Evangeline were also given by John O'Rourke, Mary Clogston, Dennis O'Neill, Hannah Sweeney, John Curry and Robert Sleeper. After a song with violin accompaniment by the girls, the class went through a fancy step exercise and then exemplified "The Builders." The program proved a delightful one to all present. The ushers were George Barris and Frank Brennan.

The Moody School.

In this school at 9 o'clock was graduated a large class of pupils, each pupil receiving his or her diploma from the hands of subcommitteeman Thomas P. Boulger.

The exercises as usual were of interest to a large gathering, and well they might, for the program was excellent in its composition, and each participant acquitted themselves finely, reflecting much credit upon Principal Greene and the corps of teachers. The program was as follows:

The Immaculate Conception.

The graduating exercises of the Immaculate Conception parochial school, were held last night in the school hall, and were largely attended by parents and friends of the pupils.

The clergymen present were Very Rev. J. M. Guillard, O. M. I., Rev. Frs. Joyce, Ducey, McAvinnue and Dorgan, O.M.I. The stage was tastefully decorated with flowers and potted plants.

The program throughout was highly interesting and reflected much credit upon the Sister Superior. The principal feature of the evening's entertainment was the pretty operatta, "Queen Flora's Day Dream." Miss Ella McQuade taking the part of the queen, with Miss Lauretta Mirault as her favorite maid.

The scarf drill deserves special mention, and the musical selections were very finely rendered, reflecting much credit on the musical instructress, Madame LaBelle. The special prizes offered by different donors were presented by Fr. Joyce as follows: Gold medal for Christian Doctrine, donated by J. J. Cluin, awarded to James Goukin; gold medal, donated by Rev. Fr. Joyce for highest rank in graduating class, boys' division, to William Martin; gold medal, donated by Rev. Fr. # OUR COMMON COUNCIL.

IT PASSED A RESOLUTION FOR THE FOURTH.

Lively Time in the Body Over Sites For New School Houses Needed.

The councilmen shot off vocal fireworks last evening to their own enjoyment, and that of the spectators who gathered in the chamber gallery.

The "cuckoos" started out to even up matters and had Clerk Simonds read the report of the previous meeting. The report must have covered about ten pages of a large book. Councilman Gordon of the committee on education succeeded in having resolutions passed for two new school houses.

When President Sparks called to order, Councilman O'Connell moved that the records of the last meeting be read. The motion passed and as the clerk was about to read the report, Councilman O'Brien moved to dispense with the reading of the record. Councilman O'Connell however insisted on his motion and the clerk proceeded to read the report in a manner that could scarcely be understood by the members. Councilman Oliver interrupted the clerk and asked that he raise his voice in order that he might be heard. The report was accepted.

A communication was received from the Central Labor Union, inviting the council to review the Labor Day parade. The invitation was accepted.

Councilman O'Connor moved that the building ordinance, laid on the table at the last meeting, be acted upon.

Councilman Ryan wanted the clerk to read the ordinance.

Councilman Lebarge moved that Councilman O'Connor read the ordinance. Councilman Ryan objected, and said we have a clerk for that purpose.

Clerk Simonds remarked that the clerk declined to read it.

The ordinance was finally referred to the Committee on Ordinance and Legislation without being read.

Several petitions were referred in concurrence.

The report relative to the watering of streets for the year 1894 was accepted.

The following reports were accepted: To continue the watering of Loring street; to discontinue the watering of Concord street.

On the question relative to the donation of the cannon in Monument square to the trustees of the Lowell Cemetery, Councilman Killpatrick moved to adhere to former action, and the motion passed.

Notice of suit for damages to the amount of $5000 was received from John McKenzier also one for $5000 from Ann Webb, and one for $5000 from Hannah Welch.

To Celebrate the Fourth.

Councilman Curtin's notice of reconsideration of the $2000 Fourth of July resolution was then acted upon.

Councilman Curtin expressed himself in favor of reconsideration. The members have had sufficient time to consider the question. The Ward Six councilman referred to the "hard times" and spoke a word for the toilers, whose interests he said should be considered as well as those who are to reap the harvest.

Councilman Curtin's motion to reconsider was passed, 15 to 8.

The resolution was then passed to a second reading, 16 to 7.

Councilman Robinson moved the suspension of the 35th rule and the motion was passed, 15 to 7.

Before a vote was taken on final passage, Councilman Ryan said he was opposed to the resolution because it is too late to arrange for a celebration. The council should know very well that this resolution will never leave the upper board.

Councilman O'Connor claimed that the people demand this celebration.

"We should impress upon the minds of the young the significance of the day and vote this sum of $2000."

Councilman Curtin said he was sorry to see the patriotism of the councilman from the third ward measured by $2000. If the councilman desired to display his patriotic feelings, he should have introduced this resolution six weeks ago.

Councilman O'Connor replied that he was not bulging over with patriotism, but he had as much in him as the average man.

Councilmen Robinson and Tryder spoke in favor of the resolution, and Councilman Kittredge said that he heard that Peter H. Donohoe is willing to give $100 toward a celebration provided ten or twenty others do the same.

"What's the matter with you?" interrupted Councilman Ryan, and the members smiled.

The resolution then took its final passage, 15 to 8.

To Hasten Action.

Councilman Lebarge introduced an order asking the street committee to report to the council on the new Moody street bridge before August 1. The councilman criticized the committee for delay already experienced. The order passed.

The board of health renewed its petition for a $10,000 loan for a stable for the health department.

The Payne Firework Co. sent in a notice of willingness to submit bids on fireworks.

Sites for New Schools.

Upon recommendation of the committee on education a resolution was introduced for $25,000 for sites for two new school houses, one in Centralville, the other in Middlesex village.

Councilman O'Connor opposed the resolution because it gave to the committee on education, power that properly belongs to the lands and buildings committee.

Councilman Gordon believed the committee competent to select the sites and purchase them.

Councilman O'Connor did not think it business to recommend any man's site, and then purchase it afterwards.

Councilman Curtin reminded the councilman from the third ward that no committee is a sub-committee to the committee on lands and buildings. The report and recommendation of sites were adopted and the resolution to purchase land passed 16 to 7.

Then came the question of the loan of $25,000 to cover the matter. Of this $2400 is for the purchase of the lot corner Billings street and Aiken avenue, and $1900 for the lot corner Middlesex and Cornell streets. The remainder for buildings.

Councilman Ryan opposed the Middlesex village site and said one could be got cheaper.

Councilman Custy in a speech setting forth the claim for a new Bartlett school said he was in favor of the resolution, and though a member of the lands and buildings didn't care who made the purchase.

After a little more discussion the loan resolution passed by an unanimous vote.

The council then adjourned.

PLEASE ASK PERMISSION.

City Ordinances Must be Observed or Offenders Will Have to Pay Fines as One Did Today.

Three drunks.

Louis Tessier, a travelling vender of patent medicines who lives in Montreal, pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness. Louis said he comes here every summer and stays two months, after which he goes to Nashua, Manchester and Concord. He had been in before and had done 30 days for drunkenness. Said Judge Hadley to him, "How long do you intend to stay in this city?"

Tessier: "Two months, your Honor."

Judge Hadley: "How long will it take you to get out of this commonwealth?"

Tessier: "About two months and a half."

Judge Hadley: "Well, I will give you just one day. If you are found in this city after tomorrow you will go to Bridgewater."

Joseph Libbey, a dudishly dressed young man with a hair cut that was decidedly Berry Wall, was charged with breaking and entering the house of Gilbert P. Morton, and stealing, therefrom, a watch, ring and some money. Libbey said he didn't break into the house as the door was open. The case was continued until July 3.

Patrick Corcoran while erecting a derrick at the new St. Jean Baptiste church mutilated a shade tree in front of the residence of Jos. Smith on Merrimack street without asking permission of the city forester or any one else. He was fined one dollar.

Harriet Bourdeau, a stubborn child was placed on probation.

Wm McShea was fined $2 for an alleged assault on Michael J. O'Boyle.

Thomas Drew wanted to go to the brewery opening last week and not caring to walk took a horse and wagon belonging to Roswell Fox. He had not gone far when Mr. Fox took the team away from him. He was fined $5.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

BOSTON, June 27.—There was a fire and outbreak at Charlestown state prison at 1.55 p. m. In the rumpus two men were shot and one was reported to be dead. It is learned that the chair shop was found to be on fire, and the men at work there at once broke out in disorder.

In the trouble the officers drew their clubs and charged the men to force them back into their cells, but failing in this they drew their revolvers and fired.

Many of the officers fired in the air, but one, Thomas Donovan, fearing for his life, shot a convict, Joseph Oakes, fatally wounding him.

Later—It is now learned that the second man was not shot; he was badly clubbed. A detail of officers from station 15 assisted in restoring order.

The chair shop was a 2½ story building and probably caught fire from a locomotive spark.

The damage by fire was $500, but by water will be very heavy.

Prisoners in other departments became restless and were with difficulty restrained. There is still great excitement inside and outside the prison.

FIGHT IS ON.

TWO RAILROADS TIED UP BY THE SWITCH TENDERS.

Latest Move in the Pullman Contest—All Chicago Suburban Trains Abandoned—Leaders are Confident of Success of Boycott.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

CHICAGO, June 27.—The switch tenders and the crews of the switch engines on the Illinois Central Railroad in this city struck at 12 o'clock last night, by orders from the American Railway Union, of which they are members.

This is the latest extension of the strike in connection with the boycott of Pullman cars. It practically ties up the Illinois Central and the roads depending on it (the Michigan Central and Big Four) in this city.

Late last night all suburban trains on the Illinois Central were abandoned on account of the trainmen who are members of the American railway union joining the switchmen in their strike.

Chief Arthur of the brotherhood of locomotive engineers, telegraphed:

"The rules of our order will not allow us to cooperate with you. We blame Pullman for refusal to arbitrate differences."

NO JAPANESE.

Decision in an U. S. Court To-Day Over Citizenship Papers.

Associated Press to THE SUN.

BOSTON, June 27.—In the U. S. Court to-day Judge Colt gave a decision in the Sneeka Sitko case, refusing to issue citizenship papers to the Japanese. This case has been under consideration for a month. Siiko was the first Japanese to apply for citizen's papers.

Child's Funeral.

The funeral of John William, the infant son of John J. Delaney, the well known tailor, residing at 63 Willow street occurred yesterday afternoon and was largely attended by friends and relatives of the parents. There were a great many floral tributes, among them a pillow from the parents inscribed "Our Babe." The child died after a few days illness of cholera infantum. The parents have the widest sympathy in their bereavement.

Water Sets.

We have a very fine display of water sets in one of our show windows this week. They range in price from 50c. to $2.50 a set. The U. S. Tea Co., corner Central and Prescott streets.

Sugar Still Down.

23 pounds of the best granulated sugar for $1. Delivered free to all purchasers. Dickson Bros., Tea store, 98 Merrimack street.

We've had about all we could attend to supplying the demand for thin underwear.

Imported French Balbriggan for 50c, and other good qualities, some for less price, some costing more. Extra sizes, 46 to 50 inch Underwear, in half a dozen qualities.

What interests most men more than price, is our underwear that fits. Shirts with various lengths of sleeves; Drawers with three lengths of legs.

Isn't it a privilege to buy Underwear as rightly proportioned as your clothes?

PRESIDENT ELECTED.

M. CASIMIR-PERIER SUCCEEDS THE MARTYRED PRESIDENT.

Election Took Place at Palais de Versailles This Morning and the Result Was as Predicted.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

VERSAILLES, June 27.—C. Casimir-Perier was elected president of France in the place of the late President Carnot, this morning.

P. O. APPOINTMENTS.

More Money For Clerk Hire and Stamp Clerk Appointed.

Postmaster Pearson this morning appointed William J. Garvey, of Adams street, a stamp clerk in the post office. Mr. Garvey a popular young man and had been engaged as a book-keeper prior to his appointment.

Frank J. Redhead has been made a permanent clerk.

Mr. Pearson also has succeeded in having the appropriation for clerk hire at the local office raised $3000.

Mr. Pearson as a postmaster is a great success.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

The funeral of Cecil Page took place yesterday afternoon from his parents' home, on Westford street, and was largely attended. Rev. R. A. Greene conducted the services, and selections were rendered by the American Quartette. The bearers were six students of Tufts College. There were many beautiful floral offerings.

The funeral of the late Jane Osgood occurred this afternoon from 108 Church street, Rev. Dr. Seymour officiated and a quartet rendered appropriate selections. The bearers were N. D., F. W. and A. B. Puffer and George Scribner. Mr. Arthur Pollard had charge of the arrangements.

DEATHS.

Patrick O'Neil, aged 30 years, died last night at his home, 39 Concord street. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning.

McManmon, florist, Prescott & Merr'k sts

Honors for Lowell Boys.

The 51st annual commencement exercises of Holy Cross college were held yesterday, and among those present were many Lowell people. The degree of bachelor of arts was conferred upon Timothy J. Halloran, Dennis J. Murphy, and Wm. J. McCluskey, of this city. Dennis J. Murphy delivered the valedictory.

The commencement exercises at Mt. St. Mary's College occurred at 9.30 o'clock this morning. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Saunders of this city. Mr. Edward F. Saunders of this city graduated with honors.

Stole Ham and Lager.

A mean trick was played on Patrick Dempsey who resides on Jefferson street, Saturday night.

Mr. Dempsey was expecting a party of friends to spend Sunday with him and on the previous day bought a case of lager and boiled a fifteen pound ham for their entertainment. During the night, however, when all in the house were asleep, the house was entered and the ham and beer stolen. The police went to work on the case, and while they could not find the ham, Officers Redmond Welch and Maguire arrested John J. Fahey and William Shea charged with breaking and entering and larceny. In court this morning they pleaded guilty and were held in $500 each for the grand jury.

Ward Six Caucus.

The contest in Ward Six for the nomination of a candidate for the common council closes to-night. It is a hot battle. A friend of Dennis O'Neill called at the SUN office to say that he is a good Democrat, but everybody who knows Dennis is sure of that already.

Jerry Tompkins is prominent in the ward, and is making a big fight. His friends are confident that he will win. Meanwhile Thomas E. O'Day, Cornelius Dugan, P. McGilnehy and Mr. Donohoe are quietly hustling.

The candidates met last night and elected these caucus officers: Timothy F. Hourihan, chairman; William F. Curtin, secretary; William F. Martin, ballot distributor. The polls will open at 5 o'clock this evening.

Marriage Intentions.

The following intentions were recorded at the city clerk's office to-day:

Michael Donnelly 30, to Mary McAndrews 32.
James P. Maguire 26, to Mamie E. Grinnell 23.

Fooling the People.

You can fool some of the people all the time; you can fool all the people some of the time; but you can't fool all the people all the time by getting out a second-hand newspaper. Compare THE SUN with other local papers.

THE BOSTON elevated is not much higher than the West End as yet.

HON. GEORGE A. Marden takes exception to the charge that the Jesuits are running the Courier.

THE STREET department has a big gang of men at work and the employes are earning every cent they receive.

ON SATURDAY the owners of the various sites offered for the normal school will have an opportunity to show their liberality.

GOV. GREENHALGE probably thinks that once is enough to be blamed and criticized for appointing the same man. He is not going to leave himself open to criticism for appointing his friends.

MUNICIPAL reform is taking deep root in many cities notably New York, Boston, Portland and in other cities of less importance. The craze will spread and may strike Lowell very severely.

THE COURSE of the Meigs bill in the legislature somewhat resembles that of the tariff bill in congress. The bill passed by the lower board in each case will pass the upper in a very different form.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT that several mills in Lowell and Lawrence will close during July and August betokens hard times ahead. It is not likely that the passage of the tariff bill will effect a change before the fall.

THE SCHOOL BOARD adjourned without doing any important business Monday evening. The business of two meetings had been laid over awaiting attention and yet a few members agreed to adjourn. This was done in the interest of the schools of course.

ANTHONY COMSTOCK and the Supreme court do not agree in regard to what Anthony would term the immorality of the Arabian Nights and the Decameron. It is well always that there is a tribunal in which there is a big residue of justice and common sense.

THE MAYOR of Woburn suspended the chief of police for ten days recently and was sustained in so doing by the city council although he refused to state his reasons. The chief himself was not heard from either. Perhaps he was unconscious of the affair until it was all over.

THE INDIGNATION meeting at East Weymouth called to denounce a number of Italians who took the place of union workmen in a shoe shop, was calculated to frighten the foreigners. The unusual accompaniment of cannon booming in the vicinity was a very impressive sort of emphasis given to the speeches made at the meeting. The Italians should be shipped back to New York.

THERE IS a political committee appointed by the legislature to sit during the recess and prepare campaign material for the fall. There is also to be a committee to sit during the same time to investigate whether undue influence was used in the passage of the Bell Telephone, the Meigs and Cape Cod canal bills. The committee may make some exposures if it does its duty.

AT A certain post office it was found that letters were being stolen. A decoy letter was sent by a detective addressed to a fictitious name and number. The carrier could not find the person addressed and put the money in his pocket. He was brought to court and found guilty of taking the money, but as the letter was not intended to be delivered to anybody the judge discharged him. How is that for law? It may be law, but it certainly is not justice.

THE GHOULISH glee of the anarchists at the death of President Carnot is sufficient to excite the bitterest hatred of this fell society. If the French people adopted the Roman method of executing anarchists proved guilty of murder, the latter would not be so ready to assassinate high government officials. To tear one of these wretches, Sante, for example, to pieces limb from limb, would be none too cruel considering the enormity of his crime. No ordinary death will deter these fanatics from similar acts.

The dignity of the senate was exemplified when one member characterized another as "a man performing the role of a baboon," and still further when another honorable gentleman changed the form to "a baboon performing the functions of a man." It is pretty clear that "rules" in such a body would be in order.—Newport News.

It would have been timely for a third to remark you're both a pair of chimpanzees.

GOV. GREENHALGE deserves the gratitude of the commonwealth for his veto of the Bell Telephone bill. The people will rejoice to know that in this notorious swindle he has taken a bold stand against monopoly and for the commonweal. In this veto the lobby has received a heavy blow and the honor of the old Bay State has been saved.

SECY CARLISLE is seriously considering some method of stamping out the padrone system, by which Italians are given to a species of bossism equal to slavery, on their landing here. The padroni will have to be careful or they will soon find themselves in trouble.

THE PEOPLE of Boston should know whether they want the Meigs bill. The republican legislature denies them the use of the referendum which is a plank in the republican platform put there for effect only.

WE HAVE not had a drowning accident this summer, so far, nor a shooting accident, but wait till after the Fourth before offering felicitations.

IF GOV. Tillman was in the U. S. senate he would make things hum. He might favor calling out the troops to count a quorum.

CURRENT CLIPPINGS.

The Children.

Only to keep them so,
Soft, warm and young,
The wee, feeble fingers,
The babbling tongue,
Tears that we kiss away,
Smiles that we win,
Careless of knowledge,
As guiltless of sin.

Only to keep them so,
Frank, true and pure—
Of our full wisdom
So lovingly sure.
Our frown all they shrink from,
Our liat their law;
Our store, whence all gladness
They fearlessly draw.

Only to keep them so,
Sweet hands that cling,
Sweet lips that laugh for us,
Sweet tones that ring,
Curls that we train to wave,
Feet that we guide,
Each fresh step a wonder,
Each new word a pride.

Only to keep them so!
Wo—n and men
Are the times that circled us,
Lovingly then;
Gentle and good to us,
Patient and strong,
Guarding our weaknesses,
Bearing us long.

Tenderly mocking us,
Old thoughts and ways
That scarcely keep measure
With life's rapid days;
Good to us—waiting.
Our sunset shows fair!
But only to have them so,
Just as they were!

—All the Year Round.

That Wonderful Baby Boy.

The proud young mother had come to pay her first visit, accompanied by the infant son and heir and his nurse.

"I don't wish to appear in any way partial," she said, "but really for a child of 16 months I consider Algernon a marvel of intelligence. He understands every word that is said and joins in the conversation with a sagacity that almost alarms me at times. Speak to the lady, Algernon."

"Boo boo," said Algernon.

"Listen to that!" cried the delighted mother. "He means, 'How do you do?' Isn't it wonderful!"

"Now, Algernon, ask the lady to play for you (he adores the piano). Now, Algie, dear" (very coaxingly).

"Boo boo!" said Algernon.

"He means music by that. 'Boo boo'—'mu-sic.' Isn't he too smart for anything? Now, love, tell the lady mamma's name?"

"Boo boo!" said Algernon.

"That's right. 'Boo boo'—'Louise!' My name's Louise, you know. Oh, dear, I do hope he isn't too clever to live! Now, say by by to the lady, precious."

"Boo boo!" said Algernon.

"'Boo boo'—'by by.' Why, upon my word there's hardly any difference. Bless his little darling heart! Isn't he a wonder?"—Chicago Herald.

DR. R. V. PIERCE: Dear Sir—I could tell of a number of cases where Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines have cured. A friend of mine, Mr. Williams, was about used up with liver troubles; now he says that "Pleasant Pellets" have helped him more than any or all the medicines that he has ever taken.

Need For Lawyers.

It was a great satisfaction to Mr. and Mrs. Barclay when their son Henry decided to study law. He had not been a particularly forward boy in his studies, but the parents were glad to recall several instances where dull boys had developed into great statesmen or smart business men, and Henry received every encouragement. In due time he was admitted to the bar and opened an office in a neighboring town. After long months of waiting he was employed as counsel over a disputed will. The case was taken into court, and Henry's client won. The will was broken, and Henry sent in his bill, but the man was not prompt in payment.

Mrs. Barclay was delighted at her son's success, and on his first visit home after the trial said:

"Now, Henry, I want you to tell your old ma just how much money you made. Of course, getting the will set aside as you did, the man must have given you a considerable sum. How much property was there?"

"The will left $10,000 to public charities, $5,000 for a town library, and the remainder of the property to an old schoolmate," replied Henry.

"And never mentioned his own nephew! Do tell! I don't wonder he took it to law. He must be real pleased to think you done so well for him."

"I don't know," replied Henry thoughtfully. "I gave a good deal of time to it, but the judge said there wasn't any need of going in to the case. He said that, as old Mr. Griggs didn't leave a cent anyway, his will wasn't of any account."

"Is his nephew real bright minded?" asked Mrs. Barclay.

"He seems to be, but he's dreadful slow pay."

"Well, my son, I don't wonder there has to be lawyers. If folks don't know no more than to make such wills, and their relations don't know no more than to go to law about it, why, it seems to me that you'll do real well," and Mrs. Barclay smiled hopefully as she bade her son goodby and watched him walk slowly down the street.—Youth's Companion.

Fooling the People.

You can fool some of the people all the time; you can fool all the people some of the time; but you can't fool all the people all the time by getting out a second-hand newspaper. Compare THE SUN with other local papers.

THE BOSTON elevated is not much higher than the West End as yet.

HON. GEORGE A. Marden takes exception to the charge that the Jesuits are running the Courier.

THE STREET department has a big gang of men at work and the employes are earning every cent they receive.

ON SATURDAY the owners of the various sites offered for the normal school will have an opportunity to show their liberality.

GOV. GREENHALGE probably thinks that once is enough to be blamed and criticized for appointing the same man. He is not going to leave himself open to criticism for appointing his friends.

MUNICIPAL reform is taking deep root in many cities notably New York, Boston, Portland and in other cities of less importance. The craze will spread and may strike Lowell very severely.

THE COURSE of the Meigs bill in the legislature somewhat resembles that of the tariff bill in congress. The bill passed by the lower board in each case will pass the upper in a very different form.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT that several mills in Lowell and Lawrence will close during July and August betokens hard times ahead. It is not likely that the passage of the tariff bill will effect a change before the fall.

THE SCHOOL BOARD adjourned without doing any important business Monday evening. The business of two meetings had been laid over awaiting attention and yet a few members agreed to adjourn. This was done in the interest of the schools of course.

ANTHONY COMSTOCK and the Supreme court do not agree in regard to what Anthony would term the immorality of the Arabian Nights and the Decameron. It is well always that there is a tribunal in which there is a big residue of justice and common sense.

THE MAYOR of Woburn suspended the chief of police for ten days recently and was sustained in so doing by the city council although he refused to state his reasons. The chief himself was not heard from either. Perhaps he was unconscious of the affair until it was all over.

THE INDIGNATION meeting at East Weymouth called to denounce a number of Italians who took the place of union workmen in a shoe shop, was calculated to frighten the foreigners. The unusual accompaniment of cannon booming in the vicinity was a very impressive sort of emphasis given to the speeches made at the meeting. The Italians should be shipped back to New York.

THERE is a political committee appointed by the legislature to sit during the recess and prepare campaign material for the fall. There is also to be a committee to sit during the same time to investigate whether undue influence was used in the passage of the Bell Telephone, the Meigs and Cape Cod canal bills. The committee may make some exposures if it does its duty.

AT A certain post office it was found that letters were being stolen. A decoy letter was sent by a detective addressed to a fictitious name and number. The carrier could not find the person addressed and put the money in his pocket. He was brought to court and found guilty of taking the money, but as the letter was not intended to be delivered to anybody the judge discharged him. How is that for law? It may be law, but it certainly is not justice.

THE GHOULISH glee of the anarchists at the death of President Carnot is sufficient to excite the bitterest hatred of this fell society. If the French people adopted the Roman method of executing anarchists proved guilty of murder, the latter would not be so ready to assassinate high government officials. To tear one of these wretches, Ravis for example, in pieces limb from limb, would be none too cruel considering the enormity of his crime. No ordinary death will deter these fanatics from similar acts.

The dignity of the senate was exemplified when one member characterized another as "a man performing the rolo of a baboon," and still further when another honorable gentleman changed the form to "a baboon performing the functions of a man." It is pretty clear that "rules" in such a body would be in order.—Newport News.

It would have been timely for a third to remark you're both a pair of chimpanzees.

GOV. GREENHALGE deserves the gratitude of the commonwealth for his veto of the Bell Telephone bill. The people will rejoice to know that in this notorious swindle he has taken a bold stand against monopoly and for the commonweal. In this veto the lobby has received a heavy blow and the honor of the old Bay State has been saved.

SEC'Y CARLISLE is seriously considering some method of stamping out the padrone system, by which Italians are given to a species of bossism equal to slavery, on their landing here. The padroni will have to be careful or they will soon find themselves in trouble.

THE PEOPLE of Boston should know whether they want the Meigs bill. The republican legislature denies them the use of the referendum which is a plank in the republican platform put there for effect only.

WE HAVE not had a drowning accident this summer, so far, nor a shooting accident, but wait till after the Fourth before offering felicitations.

IF GOV. Tillman was in the U. S. senate he would make things hum. He might favor calling out the troops to count a quorum.

CURRENT CLIPPINGS.

The Children.

Only to keep them so,
Soft, warm and young,
The wee, feeble fingers,
The babbling tongue,
Tears that we kiss away,
Smiles that we win—
Careless of knowledge,
As guiltless of sin.

Only to keep them so,
Frank, true and pure—
Of our full wisdom
So lovingly sure.
Our frown all they shrink from,
Our fiat their law;
Our store, whence all gladness
They fearlessly draw.

Only to keep them so,
Sweet hands that cling,
Sweet lips that laugh for us,
Sweet tones that ring.
Curls that we train to wave,
Feet that we guide,
Each fresh step a wonder,
Each new word a pride.

Only to keep them so!
Women and men
Are the cities that circled us,
Lovingly then;
Gentle and good to us,
Patient and strong,
Guarding our weaknesses,
Bearing us long.

Tenderly mocking us,
Old thoughts and ways
That scarcely keep measure
With life's rapid days;
Good to us—smiling,
Our sunset shows fair!
But only to have them so,
Just as they were!
—All the Year Round.

That Wonderful Baby Boy.

The proud young mother had come to pay her first visit, accompanied by the infant son and heir and his nurse.

"I don't wish to appear in any way partial," she said, "but really for a child of 16 months I consider Algernon a marvel of intelligence. He understands every word that is said and joins in the conversation with a sagacity that almost alarms me at times. Speak to the lady, Algernon."

"Boo boo," said Algernon.

"Listen to that!" cried the delighted mother. "He means, 'How do you do?' Isn't it wonderful?"

"Now, Algernon, ask the lady to play for you (he adores the piano). Now, Algie, dear" (very coaxingly).

"Boo boo!" said Algernon.

"Boo boo!" said Algernon.

"He means music by that. 'Boo boo'—'music.' Isn't he too smart for anything? Now, love, tell the lady mamma's name?"

"Boo boo!" said Algernon.

"That's right. 'Boo boo'—'Louise!' My name's Louise, you know. Oh, dear, I do hope he isn't too clever to live! Now, say by by to the lady, precious."

"Boo boo!" said Algernon.

"'Boo boo'—'by by.' Why, upon my word there's hardly any difference. Bless his little darling heart! Isn't he a wonder?"—Chicago Herald.

Not at Home.

Strawber—Miss Palisade wouldn't see me when I called on her last night.

Singerly—No. You were 10 minutes too late.

Strawber—What do you mean?

Singerly—I got there first.—Vogue.

A Good Definition.

Tommy—Pa, what does the paper mean when it says "comment is unnecessary."

Mr. Figg—Hmmm—that the writer didn't know what to say. Indianapolis Journal.

Liked It.

She (at piano)—Listen! Do you enjoy this refrain?

He—Very much. The more you refrain the better I like it.—Texas Siftings.

IT SEEMS TOO SMALL

to do any good, when you look at one of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. But just try it, when you're bilious or constipated, or have a sour stomach, or a fit of indigestion—and you'll own up that they're the best things in the world.

That's because they cure permanently, and do it pleasantly. They're tiny, sugar-coated, and easy to take. There's no disturbance to the system, diet, or occupation. Satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded.

DR. R. V. PIERCE: Dear Sir—I could tell of a number of cases where Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines have cured. A friend of mine, Mr. Williams, was almost used up with liver trouble, but now he says that "Pleasant Pellets" have helped him more than any or all the medicines that he had ever taken.

James Colby

SUNBEAMS.

Prepared For an Emergency.

Widow—Arrah, an is it yorsilf, Policeman Murphy, I danno?

Policeman—It is that same, by this token. I've got orders to go down an arrist two mimbers of the slaughter house gang!—Life.

Need For Lawyers.

It was a great satisfaction to Mr. and Mrs. Barclay when their son Henry decided to study law. He had not been a particularly forward boy in his studies, but the parents were glad to recall several instances where dull boys had developed into great statesmen or smart business men, and Henry received every encouragement. In due time he was admitted to the bar and opened an office in a neighboring town. After long months of waiting he was employed as counsel over a disputed will. The case was taken into court, and Henry's client won. The will was broken, and Henry sent in his bill, but the man was not prompt in payment.

Mrs. Barclay was delighted at her son's success, and on his first visit home after the trial said:

"Now, Henry, I want you to tell your old ma just how much money you made. Of course, getting the will set aside as you did, the man must have given you a considerable sum. How much property was there?"

"The will left $10,000 to public charities, $5,000 for a town library, and the remainder of the property to an old schoolmate," replied Henry.

"And never mentioned his own nephew! Do tell! I don't wonder he took it to law. He must be real pleased to think you done so well for him."

"I don't know," replied Henry thoughtfully. "I gave a good deal of time to it, but the judge said there wasn't any need of going in to the case. He said that, as old Mr. Griggs didn't leave a cent anyway, his will wasn't of any account."

"Is his nephew real bright-minded?" asked Mrs. Barclay.

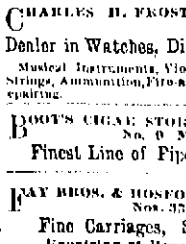

"He seems to be, but he's dreadful slow pay."

"Well, my son, I don't wonder there has to be lawyers. If folks don't know no more than to make such wills, and their relations don't know no more than to go to law about it, why, it seems to me that you'll do real well," and Mrs. Barclay smiled hopefully as she bade her son goodby and watched him walk slowly down the street.—Youth's Companion.

So Much Female Suffering Needless

Mrs. Julia A. Rice, Florence, Kentucky, says:—

"I suffered eight years "From woman's early troubles.

"I could find no permanent relief until, one year ago, I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Relief then came with it almost immediately, and at this time I am a well woman.

"I absolutely know, not only by my own experience, but by others also, that this is a harmless and sure remedy for:

"Irregularity, suppressed or painful menstruations, weakness of the stomach, sick headache, and female complaints generally. There is no need of so much female suffering. Here is the remedy. It is wicked not to accept the relief it will bring." At druggists.

ITALIANS

Are Now in Great Danger in France.

CARNOT'S FATE HAS TAMED POLITICAL AMBITION.

Santo is Proud of His Bloody Work.

GRENOBLE, June 27.—There has been serious rioting here, and all trouble does not seem to be ended. After the news of the attempted assassination of the president had reached here, and before it was known that he was mortally wounded, a number of French and Italian workmen employed on the horsecar lines were drinking in a wineshop. An Italian made a remark which the Frenchmen regarded as an insult. A free fight followed and caused the gathering of a mob of Frenchmen.

The latter invaded the yards of the horsecar company and attacked and badly beat the Italians who were employed there.

Another riotous French mob formed on the Avenue Thiers. The Italian cafes were attacked and their contents destroyed in some cases, and in others they were simply compelled to close. A number of Italians' stores were treated in the same manner.

The mob marched through the streets shouting: "Down with the Italians."

The police were unable to disperse the rioters, and several Italians were beaten and kicked. Later the mob was re-enforced and proceeded to the Rue Gambetta. There somebody cried: "To the Italian consulate."

The police in vain tried to check the mob, but they were overpowered. The leaders of this demonstration procured a ladder, fixed it to the balcony of the Italian consulate and several of the rioters entered the consulate, tore up the Italian flag, smashed the escutcheon, broke the furniture, threw the statuettes upon the floor and kicked them to pieces, and finally seizing upon two large and handsome oil paintings, representing King Humbert and Queen Margherita of Italy, they threw them into the street.

Soldiers then charged upon the mob. After a short conflict the rioters were driven out of the consulate and out of the street in which it is situated. The prefect made an apology to the Italian consul for the outrageous manner in which the rioters had behaved.

The two leaders of the attack upon the Italian consulate were arrested, and this caused a renewal of the disturbance. Several dangerous mobs gathered as soon as the news of the arrest of the ringleaders became known, and finally matters assumed such a serious aspect that the prefect was compelled to summon the troops of the garrison.

The military authorities occupied all the public squares and boulevards with infantry, cavalry and artillery, and Grenoble was to all intents and purposes in a state of siege. The officers in command of the troops were given orders to take stern measures to prevent rioting.

Widow Bears Up Bravely

Mme. Carnot returned to Paris from Lyons with the remains of the president coffined in plain oak. The civil and police authorities received her, but no time was spent in vain compliments.

About 7000 persons, chiefly members of the working class, were massed outside the railway station. The widow was accompanied by her three sons to Paris. The train was awaited at the terminus by a funeral wagon, two landaus and a coupe for the officers who went with the president to Lyons. The mournful party were soon conveyed to the palace of the Elysee.

Mme. Carnot has not touched food since Sunday night, but she was able yesterday to drink deep draughts of milk, flavored with coffee. Her mental and moral vigor sustains her. She spent yesterday ordering mourning, arranging for the funeral, dictating answers to the telegrams from Queen Victoria, President Cleveland, Emperor William, Empress Augusta, the czar, King Humbert and others, and receiving the ambassadors bringing them.

Danger Was In the Air.

Madame Carnot has piles of letters threatening her husband and sons, received before and after the executions of Vaillant and Henry. Not long ago, M. Carnot, when walking in the bois with General Borius, was shadowed by a fellow of whom he could only rid himself of by retreating to his carriage. He had been warned from Italy to keep well guarded. Other warnings came from Brussels to beware of the Grand Prix on June 17.

On June 20 the prefect of Herault telegraphed the minister of the interior that a dangerous Italian anarchist named Santo had arrived at Cette. This intimation was also ignored, with the Lyons tragedy for the consequence.

Ambition Dwindling.

Seemingly M. Carnot's fate tames the ambition of those politicians who coveted the presidency. M. Lacour, speaker of the senate, refuses to run for the office. Prime Minister Dupuy seemingly has the best chances, but is less keen than was M. Casimir-Perier.

M. Brisson, who has been a candidate twice already, has some chances. M. Casimir-Perier would just now be dangerous, because he is repugnant to the industrial working classes. A large number of Opportunists may unite with the Radicals and Socialists on M. Brisson, or M. Bourgeois. Bourgeois is a dark horse, but so was Carnot in 1887, under different circumstances, however. A presidential election is in the nature of a vatican conclave, and is the object of endless bargaining and intriguing.

M. Casimir-Perier is the man for the wealthy bourgeoisie and aristocratic society. He is wise in his own conceit, but the responsibility involved in the presidency might cure this. In America he might pass for an old-fashioned Whig.

Anarchist Ravings.

According to The Matin, Louise E. Michel, the notorious woman anarchist, says that the execution of President Carnot was not more than a simple act of justice. In M. Carnot a whole class, the whole bourgeois world, has been struck at. M. Carnot embodied the capitalist republic. It was not merely Deibler's (the executioner's) president, but also the Panamaists' president, who has fallen under Cesario's dagger. Anarchy will once more have deserved well of mankind, for love of mankind is the sole object of anarchy. Individual revolt is the prelude to a grand plebian revolution from which social harmony will emerge.

Alexander E. Cohen, a Belgian anarchist, who was recently expelled from France, says it was not an assassination, but an execution. Ravachol, Vailiant and Henry have been avenged. Carnot was pitiless to anarchists. Coldly and cruelly, despite counsels to clemency, he handed them over to Deibler. He who sows the wind will reap the whirlwind.

An article from The Parti Socialiste, published prior to the execution of Vaillant, declares that if he allowed the execution nobody would pity Carnot if one day he should meet the little unpleasantness of seeing his wooden carcass shattered by a bomb. The Radical papers objected to The Parti Socialiste being prosecuted for the article.

LYONS, June 27.—At 7 o'clock last evening a riotous mob gathered and marched upon the northern district of the city. Upon arriving there the rioters attacked and looted a number of stores owned by Italians. During the pillaging, a barrel of petroleum exploded and three of the rioters were burned to death.

The rioting continues at this hour, and troops have been hastily dispatched to the northern district. In addition, all the dangerous points about Lyons have been occupied by the military, and most serious trouble is apprehended.

About 600 people were arrested during the rioting yesterday.

The mayor of Lyons has issued a proclamation in which he says: "The malefactors, who in the guise of patriots are committing heinous deeds of vandalism and pillage, will be punished as vulgar criminals." The mayor then appealed to all honest citizens to assist the authorities in repressing rioting.

No Personal Grievance.

LONDON, June 27.—A dispatch from Lyons says that Santo stated while being examined by the magistrate that he had no personal grievance against President Carnot. He killed him because he was a tyrant.

The magistrate asked: "Are you an anarchist?"

Santo replied: "Yes, and I am proud of it."

"Why did you kill the president?"

"I will tell a jury, they shall know the motives that prompted my action."

"How did you stab M. Carnot?"

"I pushed aside a cuirassier's horse. I had the dagger concealed in my sleeve and I only had to raise my hand. I aimed at his stomach and brought my arm down sharply, at the same time shouting, 'Vive l'anarchie.' The crowd rushed at and prostrated me, and I was beaten mercilessly."

"You persist in affirming that you did not have accomplices?"

"Yes, but is the president dead?"

Santos gathered from the magistrate's silence that his blow had been effective. He smiled with satisfaction, and, raising his hand, simulated the stabbing.

The examination lasted four hours, and the magistrate was convinced that Santo acted alone.

Carnot's Successor.

PARIS, June 27.—At a plenary meeting of all the Republican senators to decide upon a candidate for the presidency, a vote was taken with the following result: M. Casimir-Perier, 114; M. Dupuy, 15; M. Brisson, 6; M. de Freycinet, 4; M. Constans, 2; M. Arago, 2; M. Loubet, 2; M. Cavaignac, 1.

England's Sorrow.

LONDON, June 27.—In the house of commons a resolution of sorrow and indignation at the murder of President Carnot was adopted. In the house of lords a motion expressing sympathy with France in her sorrow was adopted.

No Serious Rioting.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

Doings at Brighton and Waterlown For the Week Ending June 27.

Amount of live stock on the market:

| | Cattle. | Sheep and lambs. | Swine. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Western | 3,526 | 10,752 | 28,5[illegible] |
| Massachusetts | 84 | 6 | 71 |
| Maine | 95 | ... | [illegible] |
| New Hampshire | 143 | 78 | 3[illegible] |
| Vermont | 116 | 230 | [illegible] |
| Totals | 4,[illegible]64 | 11,276 | 21,[illegible] |

Prices for western beef cattle per 100 lbs. live weight: Choice, $4.50@4.75; second quality, $[illegible]@4.50; third quality, $[illegible]@3.50; poorest grades of coarse oxen, cows, bulls, stags, Texans, Colorados, etc, 3c per lb.

Prices for northern and eastern beef cattle per lb. dressed weight. Choice, 7½@[illegible]; first quality, 5½@[illegible]; second quality, 4½@4[illegible].

Hides, tallow, etc. Hides, 4½@5c per lb, tallow, 2@4c per lb, calf skins, 70c each; lamb skins, 5[illegible] each; sheared skins, 25c each, branded hides, [illegible] per lb.

Northern and eastern beef cattle—There was a good supply of stock from these states, and there was a fairly active demand. Good cattle sold readily at values from [illegible] per lb stronger than last week.

Milch cows and springers—There was a good supply of fairly good cows on the market, but the demand was slow and the market dull.

Veal calves—The supply was a trifle lighter than last week. Among the arrivals were some very good veals, but the majority of the offerings were of a rather poor quality. Prices showed a decline of from ¼@½c per lb from last week.

Sheep and lambs—The supply was much lighter than last week, but it cannot be said that the market is any better. A few young spring lambs were among the offerings, but it is hard to dispose of even these to advantage. Drovers would do better to let the stock run till next fall, when the dressed mutton market will undoubtedly be improved. No change could be quoted in values.

Bunked In a Barn.

PROVIDENCE, June 27.—The Swift industrial delegation of the Boston tramps arrived at East Greenwich, Mass., last evening, 23 strong. They lunched in a saloon, were talked to by Mrs. H. S. Merryfield of Boston, and went to sleep in a barn.

Bullets Hit the Mark.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., June 27.—Edward St. Onge last night discovered his wife sitting in the lap of Charles Reed, a well-known man of the town, and fired two shots from a revolver at him, both taking effect.

Windle's Record Lowered

WALTHAM, Mass., June 27.—John S. Johnson rode right through the record for a flying mile on a wheel here yesterday, doing the distance in 1:56, breaking the record of Windle, which was 1:58.

Train Robbery In Georgia.

SAVANNAH, June 27.—A train on the Savannah and Western railroad was held up near Homerville by six masked men. The safe in the express car was robbed of its contents, $1232 in cash.

A Remarkable Fall of Rain.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 27.—The heaviest rainfall in 40 years fell here Sunday and Monday. Twelve inches was the amount that fell. Great damage has been done to fencing and growing crops.

REPUBLICANS

In National League Will Declare Their Policy.

OPPOSED TO FREE COINAGE AND WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Maine Democrats Choose a Standard Bearer.

DENVER, June 27.—Standing room was at a premium at the spacious Broadway theater when the Republican National league convention assembled. The number of strangers in the city is estimated at 6,000, of whom about one-third are delegates.

The committee on resolutions, the members of which are appointed by the states, held a caucus which developed a strong majority in favor of frowning down all issues, such as free coinage of silver at 16 to 1, and woman suffrage.

The Texas delegation will attempt to have the basis of representation of the colored vote in the league of the southern states changed so that the power of the colored men will be cut down one-half.

The New York delegation is pushing Colonel E. A. McAlpin for the presidency, but the Illinois delegation insists that President William Tracy shall have a second term.

Opening of the Session.

Dr. Kerr B. Tupper of the First Baptist church of Denver opened the session with prayer. President Tracy then introduced F. C. Goudy, president of the State Republican league of Colorado, who welcomed the delegates to Denver and the state.

The Nebraska Glee club sang a brand new campaign song, and President W. W. Tracy of Springfield, Ills., then delivered his annual address.

A motion was adopted that the president and secretary be authorized to prepare and transmit to Mme. Carnot and the republic of France the sense of the league on the assassination of President Carnot. A resolution was adopted that the chairman of each delegation prepare a list of names for each of the committees.

A mass meeting was held last night, at which addresses were made by General D. H. Hastings of Pennsylvania, Hon. John M. Thurston of New York, Hon. A. B. Cummings of Georgia, Mrs. J. Ellen Foster of Iowa, Senator Fred F. Dubois of Idaho and General Cyrus Bussy of New York.

Saunders Defended Cleveland.

When the Carnot resolution came up objection was made on the ground that the President of the United States had already expressed the sympathy of himself and the American people. A delegate shouted that Grover Cleveland did not represent all the people of the United States.

This roused the ire of Senator Saunders of Montana, who said that Cleveland did represent every citizen of the United States.

"How about Queen Lili?" interrupted a delegate, but the senator ignored the question.

In the afternoon Henry B. Blackwell of Massachusetts offered a resolution in favor of woman suffrage, which, under the rules, went to the committee on resolutions.

Delegate Harringdon of Arizona introduced a resolution in favor of bi-metallism.

Ex-Governor Prince of New Mexico submitted a resolution favoring the admission of New Mexico as a state.

Letters of regret were then read from Henry C. Lodge, Thomas B. Reed, J. S. Fassett, Governor Nelson of Minnesota, General Alger, Robert T. Lincoln, J. S. Clarkson and others.

JOHNSON ACCEPTS.

Nominated For Governor by Democrats of the Pine Tree State.

LEWISTON, Me., June 27.—The Democratic state convention adopted a resolution of sympathy to France, one favoring the election of the next United States senators by popular vote, one disapproving the practice of trusts of bringing pauper labor to this country to take the place of citizens, one favoring the limitation of the hours of labor for women and minors to 58 hours a week, one condemning the labor bureau of this state as partisan, run in the interests of Republicans, one condemning the legislative acts relating only to single towns or cities, such as the one creating the police commission of Biddeford, the recent increase of salaries of state officers, and one endorsing the Chicago platform in the last campaign, especially its clause on the money question.

In the district convention D. J. McGillicuddy of Lewiston was nominated for congress by acclamation.

The chairman then announced that the next business was the nomination of a candidate for governor, and the delegates shouted for John Scott.

The nomination for governor, the chief duty of the convention, was made by John Scott of Bath, seconded by D. J. McGillicuddy, Tristram Goldthwait and William Henry Clifford, and was adopted unanimously by the convention. The man thus selected is Charles F. Johnson of Waterville. He accepted the nomination.

The following state committee was appointed: Androscoggin, D. J. McGillicuddy, Lewiston; Aroostook, Peter C. Kegan, Van Buren; Cumberland, Llewellyn Barton, Portland; Franklin, Enoch W. Whitcomb; Hancock, Edward E. Brady, Ellsworth; Kennebec, Fred Emery Beane, Hallowell; Knox, J. H. Montgomery, Camden; Lincoln, George H. Coombs, Waldoboro; Somerset, W. J. Bradbury, Fairfield; Washington, Frank W. Sawyer, York; Tristram Goldthwaite, Biddeford; Waldo, W. P. Kilgore, Belfast; Oxford, Byron L. Kimball, Norway; Penobscot, Edward Connors, Bangor; Piscataquis, Henry Hudson, Guilford; Sagadahoc, George E. Hughes, Bath.

Vermont Populists' Ticket.

MONTPELIER, Vt., June 27.—The Populist state convention nominated the following ticket: Governor, Thomas S. McGinnis of Jericho, farmer; lieutenant governor, Henry W. Conro of South Hero; secretary of state, A. L. Bowen of South Dorset; treasurer, Dr. Walter S. Curtis of West Randolph; auditor of accounts, Charles S. Lewis of South Reading. The convention adopted the Omaha platform as the state platform. Several lurid speeches were made. Less than 50 were present, including reporters.

SENATOR HILL'S

Amendments Debated and Defeated by Senate.

THREE OTHER SENATORS ENDORSE HILL'S POSITION.

The Sugar Schedule Causes Some Annoyance.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The senate spent another day debating the income tax provisions of the tariff bill, without making any perceptible progress.

Over five hours were devoted to the discussion of two amendments offered by Senator Hill, the first to exempt the income on state, county and municipal bonds, and the second to exempt the interest on state bonds from the operation of the tax. The debate drifted into an exhaustive examination of the power of congress and states' rights. Three Democrats, Messrs. Gray, Pugh and Caffery, sided with the New York senator. Both amendments were defeated.

The Democratic managers, having learned that Senator Hill intended to turn his batteries on the sugar schedule when it was reached, set to work to ascertain if there was any break in their lines. They were in conference for several hours Monday and yesterday, talking over the situation. There has been considerable alarm felt, and they appear to be rather nervous as the time approaches when a vote is to be taken.

They appear to be fully aware of the fact that there are a great many points in the bill that are not altogether satisfactory to the compromisers—Gorman, Brice, Camden and Murphy.

Coal and Sugar.

The conferences are understood to be for the purpose of perfecting the measure so that these senators and one or two others who are looked upon as doubtful would be sure to vote for it.

The greatest alarm is felt for coal and sugar. The indications are that there will be some change made in the sugar schedule. Although the compromisers, Gorman, Brice and others, have steadily insisted that the schedule should not take effect until next January, they have, it is understood, consented to yield this point.

The amendment suggested by Secretary Carlisle, relieving sugar importers from foreign countries from the payment of the discriminating 1-cent duty, will also be adopted. This concession is regarded as necessary in view of the attitude Germany has taken with regard to her products. No other changes or modifications on sugar will be made.

The Democratic managers made strenuous efforts yesterday to ascertain how the Populists intend to vote on the proposition to strike out the sugar schedule when it is made, but they decline to state what their attitude will be on that motion. Irby of South Carolina, however, informed them he would vote for the proposition.

If the three other Populists vote to strike out the sugar schedule the Democratic margin will be very small, and it may take the vote of the vice president to save it. It is no wonder, therefore, that the Democratic managers are alarmed.

A New National Holiday.

The warm weather and the uninteresting nature of the proceedings in the house kept both members and sightseers away, and the chamber wore a somewhat deserted appearance. The deficiency bill occupied the greater part of the day, the main fight being on the paragraph relative to Indian depredation claims. This, as finally agreed to, carries an appropriation of $100,000. A number of bills and resolutions were passed, the most important being a senate bill to make Labor Day a national holiday. The bill requires but the signature of the president to become a law. The day set is the first Monday in September.

Full of Water.

Mr. Phelps' Bequests.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The brief will of the late William Walter Phelps is dated Sept. 11, 1880. To his son, John, Judge Phelps leaves the family vault and homestead farm near Simsbury, Conn. A trust of $500,000 is created for his son Sheffield, and one of $300,000 for his daughter Marian. The balance of the estate is left to his wife and children in equal shares. The sum of $50,000 is to be added to a like amount left by Mr. Phelps' father to Yale university.

Are Now in Great Danger in France.

CARNOT'S FATE HAS TAMED POLITICAL AMBITION.

Santo is Proud of His Bloody Work.

GRENOBLE, June 27.—There has been serious rioting here, and all trouble does not seem to be ended. After the news of the attempted assassination of the president had reached here, and before it was known that he was mortally wounded, a number of French and Italian workmen employed on the horsecar lines were drinking in a wineshop. An Italian made a remark which the Frenchmen regarded as an insult. A free fight followed and caused the gathering of a mob of Frenchmen.

The latter invaded the yards of the horsecar company and attacked and badly beat the Italians who were employed there.

Another riotous French mob formed on the Avenue Thiers. The Italian cafes were attacked and their contents destroyed in some cases, and in others they were simply compelled to close. A number of Italians' stores were treated in the same manner.

The mob marched through the streets shouting: "Down with the Italians."

The police were unable to disperse the rioters, and several Italians were beaten and kicked. Later the mob was re-enforced and proceeded to the Rue Gambetta. There somebody cried: "To the Italian consulate."

The police in vain tried to check the mob, but they were overpowered. The leaders of this demonstration procured a ladder, fixed it to the balcony of the Italian consulate and several of the rioters entered the consulate, tore up the Italian flag, smashed the escutcheon, broke the furniture, threw the statuettes upon the floor and kicked them to pieces, and finally seizing upon two large and handsome oil paintings, representing King Humbert and Queen Margherita of Italy, they threw them into the street.

Soldiers then charged upon the mob. After a short conflict the rioters were driven out of the consulate and out of the street in which it is situated. The prefect made an apology to the Italian consul for the outrageous manner in which the rioters had behaved.

The two leaders of the attack upon the Italian consulate were arrested, and this caused a renewal of the disturbance. Several dangerous mobs gathered as soon as the news of the arrest of the ringleaders became known, and finally matters assumed such a serious aspect that the prefect was compelled to summon the troops of the garrison.

The military authorities occupied all the public squares and boulevards with infantry, cavalry and artillery, and Grenoble was to all intents and purposes in a state of siege. The officers in command of the troops were given orders to take stern measures to prevent rioting.

Widow Bears Up Bravely

Mme. Carnot returned to Paris from Lyons with the remains of the president coffined in plain oak. The civil and police authorities received her, but no time was spent in vain compliments.

About 7000 persons, chiefly members of the working class, were massed outside the railway station. The widow was accompanied by her three sons to Paris. The train was awaited at the terminus by a funeral wagon, two landaus and a coupe for the officers who went with the president to Lyons. The mournful party were soon conveyed to the palace of the Elysee.

Mme. Carnot has not touched food since Sunday night, but she was able yesterday to drink deep droughts of milk, flavored with coffee. Her mental and moral vigor sustains her. She spent yesterday ordering mourning, arranging for the funeral, dictating answers to the telegrams from Queen Victoria, President Cleveland, Emperor William, Empress Augusta, the czar, King Humbert and others, and receiving the ambassadors bringing them.

Danger Was In the Air.

Madame Carnot has piles of letters threatening her husband and sons, received before and after the executions of Vaillant and Henry. Not long ago, M. Carnot, when walking in the bois with General Borius, was shadowed by a fellow of whom he could only rid himself of by retreating to his carriage. He had been warned from Italy to keep well guarded. Other warnings came from Brussels to beware of the Grand Prix on June 17.

On June 20 the prefect of Herault telegraphed the minister of the interior that a dangerous Italian anarchist named Santo had arrived at Cette. This intimation was also ignored, with the Lyons tragedy for the consequence.

Ambition Dwindling.

Seemingly M. Carnot's fate tames the ambition of those politicians who coveted the presidency. M. Lacour, speaker of the senate, refuses to run for the office. Prime Minister Dupuy seemingly has the best chances, but is less keen than was M. Casimir-Perier.

M. Brisson, who has been a candidate twice already, has some chances. M. Casimir-Perier would just now be dangerous, because he is repugnant to the industrial working classes. A large number of Opportunists may unite with the Radicals and Socialists on M. Brisson or M. Bourgeois. Bourgeois is a dark horse, but so was Carnot in 1887, under different circumstances, however. A presidential election is in the nature of a vatican conclave, and is the object of endless bargaining and intriguing.

M. Casimir-Perier is the man for the wealthy bourgeoisie and aristocratic society. He is wise in his own conceit, but the responsibility involved in the presidency might cure this. In America he might pass for an old-fashioned Whig.

Anarchist Ravings.

According to The Matin, Louise E. Michel, the notorious woman anarchist, says that the execution of President Carnot was not more than a simple act of justice. In M. Carnot a whole class, the whole bourgeois world, has been struck at. M. Carnot embodied the capitalist republic. It was not merely Deibler's (the executioner's) president, but also the Panamaists' president, who has fallen under Caserio's dagger. Anarchy will once more have deserved well of mankind, for love of mankind is the sole object of anarchy. Individual revolt is the prelude to a grand plebian revolution from which social harmony will emerge.

Alexander E. Cohen, a Belgian anarchist, who was recently expelled from France, says it was not an assassination, but an execution. Ravachol, Vaillant and Henry have been avenged. Carnot was pitiless to anarchists. Coldly and cruelly, despite counsels to clemency, he handed them over to Deibler. He who sows the wind will reap the whirlwind.

An article from The Parti Socialiste, published prior to the execution of Vaillant, declares that if he allowed the execution nobody would pity Carnot if one day he should meet the little unpleasantness of seeing his wooden carcass shattered by a bomb. The Radical papers objected to The Parti Socialiste being prosecuted for the article.

LYONS, June 27.—At 7 o'clock last evening a riotous mob gathered and marched upon the northern district of the city. Upon arriving there the rioters attacked and looted a number of stores owned by Italians. During the pillaging, a barrel of petroleum exploded and three of the rioters were burned to death.

The rioting continues at this hour, and troops have been hastily dispatched to the northern district. In addition, all the dangerous points about Lyons have been occupied by the military, and most serious trouble is apprehended.

About 600 people were arrested during the rioting yesterday.

The mayor of Lyons has issued a proclamation in which he says: "The malefactors, who in the guise of patriots are committing heinous deeds of vandalism and pillage, will be punished as vulgar criminals." The mayor then appealed to all honest citizens to assist the authorities in repressing rioting.

No Personal Grievance.

LONDON, June 27.—A dispatch from Lyons says that Santo stated while being examined by the magistrate that he had no personal grievance against President Carnot. He killed him because he was a tyrant.

The magistrate asked: "Are you an anarchist?"

Santo replied: "Yes, and I am proud of it."

"Why did you kill the president?"

"I will tell a jury; they shall know the motives that prompted my action."

"How did you stab M. Carnot?"

"I pushed aside a cuirassier's horse. I had the dagger concealed in my sleeve and I only had to raise my hand. I aimed at his stomach and brought my arm down sharply, at the same time shouting, 'Vive l'anarchie.' The crowd rushed at and prostrated me, and I was beaten mercilessly."

"You persist in affirming that you did not have accomplices?"

"Yes, but is the president dead?"

Santos gathered from the magistrate's silence that his blow had been effective. He smiled with satisfaction, and, raising his hand, simulated the stabbing.

The examination lasted four hours, and the magistrate was convinced that Santo acted alone.

Carnot's Successor.

PARIS, June 27.—At a plenary meeting of all the Republican senators to decide upon a candidate for the presidency, a vote was taken with the following result: M. Casimir-Perier, 144; M. Dupuy, 15; M. Brisson, 6; M. de Freycinet, 4; M. Constans, 2; M. Arnget, 2; M. Loubet, 2; M. Cavaignac, 1.

England's Sorrow.

LONDON, June 27.—In the house of commons a resolution of sorrow and indignation at the murder of President Carnot was adopted. In the house of lords a motion expressing sympathy with France in her sorrow was adopted.

No Serious Rioting.

ROUEN, June 27.—Several Italians have been beaten here, but no serious rioting has occurred.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

Doings at Brighton and Watertown For the Week Ending June 27.

Amount of live stock on the market:

| | Cattle. | Sheep and lambs. | Swine. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Western | 3,826 | 10,962 | 23,850 |
| Massachusetts | 84 | 6 | 71 |
| Maine | 95 | .... | 11 |
| New Hampshire | 143 | 78 | 314 |
| Vermont | 116 | 230 | 163 |
| Totals | 4,264 | 11,276 | 24,448 |

Prices for western beef cattle pr 100 lbs, live weight: Choice, $4.50@4.75; second quality, $4@4.50; third quality, $3@3.50; poorest grades of coarse oxen, cows, bulls, stags, Texans, Colorados, etc, 3c pr lb.

Prices for northern and eastern beef cattle pr lb, dressed weight: Choice, 5½@6½c; first quality, 5@5½c; second quality, 4½@5½c.

Hides, tallow, etc—Hides, 4½@5c pr lb; tallow, 3@4c pr lb; calf skins, 7oc each; lamb skins, 50c each; sheared skins, 25c each; branded hides, 3c pr lb.

Northern and eastern beef cattle—There was a good supply of stock from these states, and there was a fairly active demand. Good cattle sold readily at values from ¼@½c pr lb stronger than last week.

Milch cows and springers—There was a good supply of fairly good cows on the market, but the demand was slow and the market dull.

Veal calves—The supply was a trifle lighter than last week. Among the arrivals were some very good veals, but the majority of the offerings were of a rather poor quality. Prices showed a decline of from ¼@½c pr lb from last week.

Sheep and lambs—The supply was much lighter than last week, but it cannot be said that the market is any better. A few young spring lambs were among the offerings, but it is hard to dispose of even these to advantage. Drovers would do better to let the stock run till next fall, when the dressed mutton market will undoubtedly be improved. No change could be quoted in values.

Bunked In a Barn.

PROVIDENCE, June 27.—The Swift industrial delegation of the Boston tramps arrived at East Greenwich, Mass., last evening, 23 strong. They lunched in a saloon, were talked to by Mrs. H. S. Merryfield of Boston, and went to sleep in a barn.

Bullets Hit the Mark.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., June 27.—Edward St. Onge last night discovered his wife sitting in the lap of Charles Reed, a well-known man of the town, and fired two shots from a revolver at him, both taking effect.

Windle's Record Lowered.

WALTHAM, Mass., June 27.—John S. Johnson rode right through the record for a flying mile awheel here yesterday, doing the distance in 1:56, breaking the record of Windle, which was 1:58.

Train Robbery In Georgia.

SAVANNAH, June 27.—A train on the Savannah and Western railroad was held up near Homerville by six masked men. The safe in the express car was robbed of its contents, $1222 in cash.

A Remarkable Fall of Rain.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 27.—The heaviest rainfall in 40 years fell here Sunday and Monday. Twelve inches was the amount that fell. Great damage has been done to fencing and growing crops.

REPUBLICANS

In National League Will Declare Their Policy.

OPPOSED TO FREE COINAGE AND WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Maine Democrats Choose a Standard Bearer.

DENVER, June 27.—Standing room was at a premium at the spacious Broadway theater when the Republican National league convention assembled. The number of strangers in the city is estimated at 6000, of whom about one-third are delegates.

The committee on resolutions, the members of which are appointed by the states, held a caucus which developed a strong majority in favor of frowning down all issues, such as free coinage of silver at 16 to 1, and woman suffrage.

The Texas delegation will attempt to have the basis of representation of the colored vote in the league of the southern states changed so that the power of the colored men will be cut down one-half.

The New York delegation is pushing Colonel E. A. McAlpin for the presidency, but the Illinois delegation insists that President William Tracy shall have a second term.

Opening of the Session.

Dr. Kerr B. Tupper of the First Baptist church of Denver opened the session with prayer. President Tracy then introduced F. C. Goudy, president of the State Republican league of Colorado, who welcomed the delegates to Denver and the state.

The Nebraska Glee club sang a brand new campaign song, and President W. W. Tracy of Springfield, Ills., then delivered his annual address.

A motion was adopted that the president and secretary be authorized to prepare and transmit to Mme. Carnot and the republic of France the sense of the league on the assassination of President Carnot. A resolution was adopted that the chairman of each delegation prepare a list of names for each of the committees.

A mass meeting was held last night, at which addresses were made by General D. H. Hastings of Pennsylvania, Hon. John M. Thurston of New York, Hon. A. B. Cummings of Georgia, Mrs. J. Ellen Foster of Iowa, Senator Fred F. Dubois of Idaho and General Cyrus Bussy of New York.

Saunders Defended Cleveland.

When the Carnot resolution came up objection was made on the ground that the President of the United States had already expressed the sympathy of himself and the American people. A delegate shouted that Grover Cleveland did not represent all the people of the United States.

This roused the ire of Senator Saunders of Montana, who said that Cleveland did represent every citizen of the United States.

"How about Queen Lil?" interrupted a delegate, but the senator ignored the question.

In the afternoon Henry B. Blackwell of Massachusetts offered a resolution in favor of woman suffrage, which, under the rules, went to the committee on resolutions.

Delegate Herringdon of Arizona introduced a resolution in favor of bi-metallism

Ex-Governor Prince of New Mexico submitted a resolution favoring the admission of New Mexico as a state.

Letters of regret were then read from Henry C. Lodge, Thomas B. Reed, J. S. Fassett, Governor Nelson of Minnesota, General Alger, Robert T. Lincoln, J. S. Clarkson and others.

JOHNSON ACCEPTS.

Nominated For Governor by Democrats of the Pine Tree State.

LEWISTON, Me., June 27.—The Democratic state convention adopted a resolution of sympathy to France, one favoring the election of the next United States senators by popular vote, one disapproving the practice of trusts of bringing pauper labor to this country to take the place of citizens, one favoring the limitation of the hours of labor for women and minors to 58 hours a week, one condemning the labor bureau of this state as partisan, run in the interests of Republicans, one condemning the legislative acts relating only to single towns or cities, such as the one creating the police commission of Biddeford, the recent increase of salaries of state officers, and one endorsing the Chicago platform in the last campaign, especially its clause on the money question.

In the district convention D. J. McGillicuddy of Lewiston was nominated for congress by acclamation.

The chairman then announced that the next business was the nomination of a candidate for governor, and the delegates shouted for John Scott.

The nomination for governor, the chief duty of the convention, was made by John Scott of Bath, seconded by D. J. McGillicuddy, Tristram Goldthwait and William Henry Clifford, and was adopted unanimously by the convention. The man thus selected is Charles F. Johnson of Waterville. He accepted the nomination.

The following state committee was appointed: Androscoggin, D. J. McGillicuddy, Lewiston; Aroostook, Peter C. Kegan, Van Buren; Cumberland, Llewellyn Barton, Portland; Franklin, Enoch W. W. Whitcomb; Hancock, Edward E. Brady, Ellsworth; Kennebec, Fred Emery Bean, Hallowell; Knox, J. H. Montgomery, Camden; Lincoln, George H. Coombs, Waldoboro; Somerset, W. J. Bradbury, Fairfield; Washington, Frank W. Sawyer; York, Tristram Goldthwaite, Biddeford; Waldo, W. P. Kilgore, Belfast; Oxford, Byron L. Kimball, Norway; Penobscot, Edward Connors, Bangor; Piscataquis, Henry Hudson, Guilford; Sagadahoc, George E. Hughes, Bath.

Vermont Populists' Ticket.

MONTPELIER, Vt., June 27.—The Populist state convention nominated the following ticket: Governor, Thomas S. McGinnis of Jericho, farmer; lieutenant governor, Henry W. Conro of South Hero; secretary of state, A. L. Bowen of South Dorset; treasurer, Dr. Walter S. Curtis of West Randolph; auditor of accounts, Charles S. Lewis of South Reading. The convention adopted the Omaha platform as the state platform. Several lurid speeches were made. Less than 50 were present, including reporters.

SENATOR HILL'S

Amendments Debated and Defeated by Senate.

THREE OTHER SENATORS ENDORSE HILL'S POSITION.

The Sugar Schedule Causes Some Annoyance.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The senate spent another day debating the income tax provisions of the tariff bill, without making any perceptible progress.

Over five hours were devoted to the discussion of two amendments offered by Senator Hill, the first to exempt the interest on state, county and municipal bonds, and the second to exempt the interest on state bonds from the operation of the tax. The debate drifted into an exhaustive examination of the power of congress and states' rights. Three Democrats, Messrs. Gray, Pugh and Caffery, sided with the New York senator. Both amendments were defeated.

The Democratic managers, having learned that Senator Hill intended to turn his batteries on the sugar schedule when it was reached, set to work to ascertain if there was any break in their lines.

They were in conference for several hours Monday and yesterday, talking over the situation. There has been considerable alarm felt, and they appear to be rather nervous as the time approaches when a vote is to be taken.

They appear to be fully aware of the fact that there are a great many points in the bill that are not altogether satisfactory to the compromisers—Gorman, Brice, Camden and Murphy.

Coal and Sugar.

The conferences are understood to be for the purpose of perfecting the measure so that these senators and one or two others who are looked upon as doubtful would be sure to vote for it.

The greatest alarm is felt for coal and sugar. The indications are that there will be some change made in the sugar schedule. Although the compromisers, Gorman, Brice and others, have steadily insisted that the schedule should not take effect until next January, they have, it is understood, consented to yield this point.

The amendment suggested by Secretary Carlisle, relieving sugar importers from foreign countries from the payment of the discriminating 1-cent duty, will also be adopted. This concession is regarded as necessary in view of the attitude Germany has taken with regard to her products. No other changes or modifications on sugar will be made.

The Democratic managers made strenuous efforts yesterday to ascertain how the Populists intend to vote on the proposition to strike out the sugar schedule when it is made, but they decline to state what their attitude will be on that motion. Irby of South Carolina, however, informed them he would vote for the proposition.

If the three other Populists vote to strike out the sugar schedule the Democratic margin will be very small, and it may take the vote of the vice president to save it. It is no wonder, therefore, that the Democratic managers are alarmed.

A New National Holiday.

The warm weather and the uninteresting nature of the proceedings in the house kept both members and sightseers away, and the chamber wore a somewhat deserted appearance. The deficiency bill occupied the greater part of the day, the main fight being on the paragraph relative to Indian depredation claims. This, as finally agreed to, carries an appropriation of $100,000. A number of bills and resolutions were passed, the most important being a senate bill to make Labor Day a national holiday. The bill requires but the signature of the president to become a law. The day set is the first Monday in September.

Full of Water.

NEWPORT, R. I., June 27.—Steamer Plymouth left early this morning for New York under her own steam, under convoy of tugs Right Arm and Hustler. She will go direct to Hoboken, N. J. She is filled with water between the two hulls.

Would Borrow $500,000.

BOSTON, June 27.—The receivers of the New York and New England railroad have petitioned the United States circuit court for permission to borrow the sum of $500,000 with which to pay interest on first mortgage ... and taxes.

COTTOLENE IS MADE TO EAT

It is a vegetable product, made from clarified cotton seed oil—as bright, pure and golden as the Southern sunshine in which it grew.

From this clean and appetizing source comes the new food-product, Cottolene, which is fast revolutionizing the art of cooking, and with which, in healthfulness, flavor, adaptability and economy, no other shortening or cooking fat can compare.

IMITATIONS are MADE TO SELL

To sell on the merits of the genuine. To sell by substitution; or by deception. To sell to the injury of the genuine, to the dissatisfaction of the consumer, to the detriment of the dealer, to the loss of all concerned.

If you wish the best food and the best health, you should insist that your cooking be done with genuine Cottolene. Refuse all counterfeits.

Sold in 3 and 5 pound pails.

Mr. Phelps' Bequests.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The brief will of the late William Walter Phelps is dated Sept. 11, 1880. To his son, John, Judge Phelps leaves the family vault and homestead farm near Simsbury, Conn. A trust of $500,000 is created for his son Sheffield, and one of $900,000 for his daughter Marian. The balance of the estate is left to his wife and children in equal shares. The sum of $50,000 is to be added to a like amount left by Mr. Phelps' father to Yale university.

GENTS:—Some ten years ago I commenced to fail. INDIGESTION and EXTREME CONSTIPATION caused me to lose flesh very fast. I employed Physicians and tried Sarsaparillas, but continued to grow worse. I had a continuous headache, my skin turned yellow, and my friends thought I must die. My strength left me and courage also. This was my condition last February when I commenced to take

Before the first bottle was gone, there was a great improvement. My friends wanted to know what caused such a change in me. I replied "DANA'S SARSAPARILLA." I am now taking my third bottle and consider myself at the age of 53, after Doctors had failed, a CURED MAN.

Yours respectfully, J. R. HERSEY.

THE LITTIG MURDER.

Mrs. Butchman, Said to Have Made an Incriminating Statement.

NATICK, Mass, June 27.—The mysterious murder of Jacob Littig at Wellesley on June 1, 1893, was, it is reported, suddenly recalled on Sunday last at the Cape district, the German colony on the line between South Natick and Wellesley. It is stated that on that date Mary, the wife of Fritz Butchman, the engineer at Pfeiffer's shoeshop, over-indulged in wine.

When Fritz attempted to upbraid her she became furious, and a battle ensued, in which the woman had two ribs broken. In this condition she is said to have rushed into the streets, yelling at the top of her voice: "You have killed Littig, and now you want to kill me!" She was placed under a doctor's care, and is reported as convalescing. It is expected that Butchman will be brought up for trial.

Jacob Littig, with the back of his head battered in as if with a stone or a club, was found on the Wellesley boundary line, a few rods from Butchman's house Butchman was held for investigation, but discharged subsequently, as his wife refused to testify against him.

The last time Littig was seen alive he was seen leaving Butchman's house. Half an hour afterward Charles Georke heard sounds of a scuffle in front of his house, and heard Littig's groans, but was afraid to go out, and waited till the morning, when the body was found near the fence on the roadside.

Butchman told a straight story and was released from custody. Of late he has been acting as a special police officer in Wellesley. Littig's was the sixth murder in almost as many years in this section, and nobody has ever been brought to punishment for the crimes.

STORE IS CLOSED.

Victims Would Like to Know the Whereabouts of Druggist Frank Moulton.

WORCESTER, Mass., June 27.—A man who gave his name as Frank Moulton bought a drug store at 235 Main street six weeks ago. He attended church, exhorted in prayer meetings and attained a reputation for piety. He opened an account with the Quinsigamond National bank. Ten days ago he deposited a cashier's check for $5400, purporting to be drawn by the National bank of Tama, on the First National bank of Chicago, payable to Moulton on order.

June 20 he drew $1800 against it, taking a cashier's check from the Quinsigamond bank on a New York bank.

He went to Providence, where he is known as W. B. Snow, and has a reputation for zeal in temperance work. He got a reputable citizen to identify him, cashed his check and skipped. He only paid $300 down on the drug store, and last night the mortgagee foreclosed and closed up the store. The police are looking for the forger.

Mr. Patrick Cox, the well known clerk for P. Dempsey, and Miss Sarah Cannon, were married at St. Patrick's parochial residence yesterday afternoon After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Cox repaired to their new home, 35 Marsh street where a wedding feast was in waiting, and of which immediate friends and relatives of the couple partook. The bride looked charming in a gown of white silk with pearl trimmings. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Mary Lowe, who wore a gown of pearl gray silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of tea roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Edward Cox. The happy couple left the city on an evening train for a bridal trip to include New York and Montreal, the latter place being the home of the bride. They were the recipients of many costly wedding gifts, and their friends wish them a happy future.

BOARD OF TRADE.

REVIEW OF ITS OWN EFFORTS THE PAST WINTER.

Self Congratulations Seemed to be in Order Among the Members For What Had Been Accomplished

The Board of Trade held a very lightly attended meeting last evening, nine members being present when President Hanscom called to order.

A vote of thanks from the Orchestral club for the use of the rooms was received.

Sec. Smith read a letter from Capt. Dolan of Lawrence, secretary of the Board of Trade of that city, relating to the regular outing of the Merrimack valley boards of trade.

D. H. Varnum, who has been in communication with the Lawrence board, spoke of the elaborate arrangements which were being made for the outing. He also spoke on the meeting held in Lawrence yesterday, at which the matter of a state highway was discussed.

Mr. Charles E. Adams made brief remarks on the matter of a state highway.

The report of the committee on insurance rates was not ready to be given. Secretary Smith said the committee had got together much matter but it had not been congested as yet, and he suggested laying over the matter until the September meeting.

The next business was Secretary Smith's report on legislation which reviewed the legislative matters discussed by the board and the outcome of their discussion. The matter of grade crossings was reviewed and the secretary thought this the time for a complete reorganization of the local railroad system The revision of the charter relating to the election of the overseers of the poor and the normal school matters were also dwelt upon. He complimented the unity of action which was noticeable among the citizens of Lowell in the latter fight.

The highway commission was mentioned after which discussion of the comparison between the system of governments in an English and American manufacturing city, the outcome of which was the presentation to the legislature by the board of a bill for license commission, thus taking the granting of licenses out of the hands of the board of aldermen, was taken up, and the subsequent fate of the bill and the present commission were reviewed.

He then mentioned the prospects for a better municipal government. Among other things he said that a committee of the city government had found sewers near home built for a third what they cost here.

"There are already indications of a revival of interest in legitimate municipal affairs here," the report said, "We are going to have better streets among other things."

"The human product of our common schools is the raw material of Massachusetts, and wealth lies in working it up by creating self sustaining men and women to engage in profitable occupations. If we are not to utilize it for its own profit and the consequent profit of the whole community, it is folly to spend one quarter million of our revenues in our schools."

The report intimated that the money which could be saved on sewers would be alone sufficient to open up higher departments in our school system, giving the children of the wage earner a more general and better education.

It was unanimously accepted.

Pres. Hanscom then spoke on the matter of a normal school site. He hoped the members would do all that was in their power to make the visit of the state board of education both pleasant and profitable. There were 30 or more cars to be seen.

Charles E. Adams spoke further on the outing, and urged a big representation of the local board. Lowell has the largest board, and should have 60 per cent. of its member present. There should be more concerted action among the members.

D. H. Varnum said that the Lawrence people believe that were it not for the hustlers in Lowell, the normal school would have been in that city. He thought that a big crowd of these hustlers should go down.

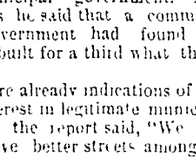

Mr. Chalifoux suggested that each member be appointed a committee of one to see a certain number of members and get them out for the outing.

The matter was finally referred to the directors.

The board then adjourned.

VETOED BILL

The Covernor Kills the Bell Telephone Swindle.

ALLEGED CORRUPT PRACTICES TO BE INVESTIGATED.

The Color Line to be Obliterated in Records.

BOSTON, June 27.—The senate spent another day in conference on the Meigs elevated railway bill. Several amendments were agreed upon.

Governor Greenhalge has vetoed the bill to authorize the American Bell Telephone company to increase its capital to $50,000,000.

To the press the governor furnished the following statement regarding his disapproval: First, there is no immediate call for such an increase. Second, the company claims not to be a quasi-public corporation. The claim is not tenable It is potentially and legally, by its charter, entitled to do a telephone business itself. Third, it should not be exempt from laws as to stock watering. Fourth, it is in effect a quasi-public corporation, and should be subject to all laws and restrictions imposed upon such corporations. It is believed that the bill cannot be passed over the veto in spite of its support in the house and senate.

In the house Mr. Bennett introduced an order providing for the appointment of a special committee composed of seven members of the house, to sit during the recess, to investigate what undue influence or corrupt practices were resorted to to secure the passage of the bills to increase the capital stock of the American Bell Telephone company, to incorporate the Boston Elevated (Meigs) Railway company, to incorporate the Massachusetts Ship Canal company or any other measures concerning which the committee believe inquiry is necessary as to influence of the lobby.

Mr. Teamoh introduced a bill to terminate the use of the term "colored" applied to persons. The bill provides that the word "color" or "colored" shall be hereafter omitted in all official records of births, marriages or deaths, and if so requested by any applicant, it shall be omitted from existing records.

The death of Mr. Smalley of Nantucket was announced, and the house adjourned, after the speaker appointed the members to attend the funeral.

DIED IN A HOSPITAL.

Waltham Man Believed to Have Been the Victim of an Assault.

BOSTON, June 27.—Henry Cain, 25 years old, is charged with assaulting Daniel Connelly, 26 years old, a Waltham baseball player, on Monday night. Connelly, while under the influence of liquor, engaged a room at Hotel Royal, and upon being assigned a room he went out. About 11 o'clock he was brought into the hotel in a dazed condition. Two men who were with him said he had been assaulted by a man on Alden street, who had run away Dr. Thompson ordered him to the city hospital, where he died yesterday morning. Cain confessed that he had struck a man Monday night in self defense, but said that he did not know that he had injured the man. Cain is held to await an autopsy on the deceased to determine what was the cause of death.

THE LITTIG MURDER.

Mrs. Butchman Said to Have Made an Incriminating Statement.

NATICK, Mass., June 27.—The mysterious murder of Jacob Littig at Wellesley on June 1, 1893, was, it is reported, suddenly recalled on Sunday last at the Cape district, the German colony on the line between South Natick and Wellesley. It is stated that on that date Mary, the wife of Fritz Butchman, the engineer at Pfeiffer's shoeshop, over-indulged in wine.

When Fritz attempted to upbraid her she became furious, and a battle ensued, in which the woman had two ribs broken. In this condition she is said to have rushed into the streets, yelling at the top of her voice: "You have killed Littig, and now you want to kill me!" She was placed under a doctor's care, and is reported as convalescing. It is expected that Butchman will be brought up for trial.

Jacob Littig, with the back of his head battered in as if with a stone or a club, was found on the Wellesley boundary line, a few rods from Butchman's house. Butchman was held for investigation, but discharged subsequently, as his wife refused to testify against him.

The last time Littig was seen alive he was seen leaving Butchman's house. Half an hour afterward Charles Geerke heard sounds of a scuffle in front of his house, and heard Littig's groans, but was afraid to go out, and waited till the morning, when the body was found near the fence on the roadside.

Butchman told a straight story and was released from custody. Of late he has been acting as a special police officer in Wellesley. Littig's was the sixth murder in almost as many years in this section, and nobody has ever been brought to punishment for the crimes.

STORE IS CLOSED.

Victims Would Like to Know the Whereabouts of Druggist Frank Moulton.

WORCESTER, Mass., June 27.—A man who gave his name as Frank Moulton bought a drug store at 295 Main street six weeks ago. He attended church, exhorted in prayer meetings and attained a reputation for piety. He opened an account with the Quinsigamond National bank. Ten days ago he deposited a cashier's check for $5400, purporting to be drawn by the National bank of Tama, on the First National bank of Chicago, payable to Moulton on order.

June 20 he drew $1800 against it, taking a cashier's check from the Quinsigamond bank on a New York bank.

He went to Providence, where he is known as W. B. Snow, and has a reputation for zeal in temperance work. He got a reputable citizen to identify him, cashed his check and skipped. He only paid $300 down on the drug store, and last night the mortgagee foreclosed and closed up the store. The police are looking for the forger.

At Bangor yesterday James Arthur Spare of Chelmsford, Mass., and Miss Sarah Jenness Freese were married at the home of the bride's mother, on Cedar street.

Rev. John McGaw Foster of St. John's Episcopal church officiated, and the bridal couple during the ceremony stood beneath the traditional bell.

Mr. Spare is in business in Lowell, and a number of his friends were here for the wedding.

HYMENEAL.

Mr. Patrick Cox, the well known clerk for P. Dempsey, and Miss Sarah Gannon, were married at St. Patrick's parochial residence yesterday afternoon. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Cox repaired to their new home, 35 Marsh street where a wedding feast was in waiting, and of which immediate friends and relatives of the couple partook. The bride looked charming in a gown of white silk with pearl trimmings. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Mary Lowe, who wore a gown of pearl gray silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of tea roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Edward Cox. The happy couple left the city on an evening train for a bridal trip to include New York and Montreal, the latter place being the home of the bride. They were the recipients of many costly wedding gifts, and their friends wish them a happy future.

BOARD OF TRADE.

REVIEW OF ITS OWN EFFORTS THE PAST WINTER.

Self Congratulations Seemed to be in Order Among the Members For What Had Been Accomplished.

The Board of Trade held a very lightly attended meeting last evening, nine members being present when President Hanscom called to order.

A vote of thanks from the Orchestral club for the use of the rooms was received.

Sec. Smith read a letter from Capt. Dolan of Lawrence, secretary of the Board of Trade of that city, relating to the regular outing of the Merrimack valley boards of trade.

D. H. Varnum, who has been in communication with the Lawrence board, spoke of the elaborate arrangements which were being made for the outing. He also spoke on the meeting held in Lawrence yesterday, at which the matter of a state highway was discussed.

Mr. Charles E. Adams made brief remarks on the matter of a state highway.

The report of the committee on insurance rates was not ready to be given. Secretary Smith said the committee had got together much matter but it had not been congested as yet, and he suggested laying over the matter until the September meeting.

The next business was Secretary Smith's report on legislation which reviewed the legislative matters discussed by the board and the outcome of their discussion. The matter of grade crossings was reviewed and the secretary thought this the time for a complete reorganization of the local railroad system. The revision of the charter relating to the election of the overseers of the poor and the normal school matters were also dwelt upon. He complimented the unity of action which was noticeable among the citizens of Lowell in the latter light.

The highway commission was mentioned after which discussion of the comparison between the system of governments in an English and American manufacturing city, the outcome of which was the presentation to the legislature by the board of a bill for license commission, thus taking the granting of licenses out of the hands of the board of aldermen, was taken up, and the subsequent fate of the bill and the present commission were reviewed.

He then mentioned the prospects for a better municipal government. Among other things he said that a committee of the city government had found sewers near home built for a third what they cost here.

"There are already indications of a revival of interest in legitimate municipal affairs here," the report said, "We are going to have better streets among other things."

"The human product of our common schools is the raw material of Massachusetts, and wealth lies in working it up by creating self sustaining men and women to engage in profitable occupations. If we are not to utilize it for its own profit and the consequent profit of the whole community, it is folly to spend one quarter million of our revenues in our schools."

The report intimated that the money which could be saved on sewers would be alone sufficient to open up higher departments in our school system, giving the children of the wage earner a more general and beneficial education.

It was unanimously accepted.

Pres. Hanscom then spoke on the matter of a normal school site. He hoped the members would do all that was in their power to make the visit of the state board of education both pleasant and profitable. There were 30 or more sites to be seen.

Charles E. Adams spoke further on the outing, and urged a big representation of the local board. Lowell has the largest board, and should have 60 per cent. of its members present. There should be more concentrated action among the members.

D. H. Varnum said that the Lawrence people believe that were it not for the hustlers in Lowell the normal school would have been in that city. He thought that a big crowd of these hustlers should go down.

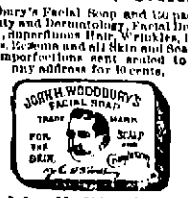

Mr. Chalifoux suggested that each member appoint himself a committee of one to see a certain number of members and get them out for the outing.

The matter was finally referred to the directors.

The board then adjourned.

VETOED BILL

The Governor Kills the Bell Telephone Swindle.

ALLEGED CORRUPT PRACTICES TO BE INVESTIGATED.

The Color Line to be Obliterated in Records.

BOSTON, June 27.—The senate spent another day in conference on the Meigs elevated railway bill. Several amendments were agreed upon.

Governor Greenhalge has vetoed the bill to authorize the American Bell Telephone company to increase its capital to $50,000,000.

To the press the governor furnished the following statement regarding his disapproval: First, there is no immediate call for such an increase. Second, the company claims not to be a quasi-public corporation. The claim is not tenable. It is potentially and legally, by its charter, entitled to do a telephone business itself. Third, it should not be exempt from laws as to stock watering. Fourth, it is in effect a quasi-public corporation, and should be subject to all laws and restrictions imposed upon such corporations. It is believed that the bill cannot be passed over the veto in spite of its support in the house and senate.

In the house Mr. Bennett introduced an order providing for the appointment of a special committee composed of seven members of the house, to sit during the recess, to investigate what undue influence or corrupt practices were resorted to to secure the passage of the bills to increase the capital stock of the American Bell Telephone company, to incorporate the Boston Elevated (Meigs) Railway company, to incorporate the Massachusetts Ship Canal company or any other measures concerning which the committee believe inquiry is necessary as to influence of the lobby.

Mr. Teamoh introduced a bill to terminate the use of the term "colored" applied to persons. The bill provides that the word "color" or "colored" shall be hereafter omitted in all official records of births, marriages or deaths, and if so requested by any applicant, it shall be omitted from existing records.

The death of Mr. Smalley of Nantucket was announced, and the house adjourned, after the speaker appointed the members to attend the funeral.

DIED IN A HOSPITAL.

Waltham Man Believed to Have Been the Victim of an Assault.

BOSTON, June 27.—Henry Cain, 25 years old, is charged with assaulting Daniel Connelly, 26 years old, a Waltham baseball player, on Monday night. Connelly, while under the influence of liquor, engaged a room at Hotel Royal, and upon being assigned a room he went out. About 11 o'clock he was brought into the hotel in a dazed condition. Two men who were with him said he had been assaulted by a man on Alden street, who had run away. Dr. Thompson ordered him to the city hospital, where he died yesterday morning. Cain confessed that he had struck a man Monday night in self defense, but said that he did not know that he had injured the man. Cain is held to await an autopsy on the deceased to determine what was the cause of death.

Is the President Uneasy?

WASHINGTON, June 27.—President Cleveland's statement on the safe condition of the treasury's finances is regarded by some members of congress as unusual. They say it indicates uneasiness which had not been previously made evident. It is not construed as paving the way for another issue of bonds.

Northampton Doctor In Trouble.

ORANGE, Mass., June 27.—A Northampton physician, Dr. Abbott M. Mason, was arrested here yesterday charged with adultery with Mrs. Newton Kent. Before he was arrested he was severely beaten by Mr. Kent, and the doctor's wounds were dressed in the lockup.

The Big University Race.

GALES FERRY, Conn., June 27.—The race between the crews representing Yale and Harvard colleges will be rowed on the Thames river tomorrow evening at 6:45 o'clock. This time was settled upon yesterday by the representatives of both crews in conference. Herman Oelrichs is the referee agreed upon.

Cyclist Held For Manslaughter.

HARTFORD, June 27.—In the police court Assistant Judge Bill held Timothy Conners in $500 for trial in the superior court on the charge of manslaughter. Conners, while riding on his bicycle, run down Mrs. Juliet Closson. She received injuries which caused her death.

Lieutenant Nichols Retires.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Lieutenant Frank W. Nichols, U. S. N., has been retired at his present rank with three-quarters pay. The president finds that the disability from which the officer suffers was incurred in the line of duty.

Seeking New Industries.

PROVIDENCE, June 27.—A committee has been appointed by the city council to persuade new industries to locate in Providence. A pamphlet description of the city's advantages is to be issued.

Charley Henney Is Dead.

The wavery among the masses is for low-profit prices. The demand is more than answered by our June offerings.

In These Hard Times the Retailer Is King.

In ordinary times the manufacturer holds the key to the situation, but now, with unsettled markets, and a more unsettled future, the retailer is boss. Not the ordinary retailer, but the large MODERN CASH RETAILER.

He who enters the branches of trade, and controlling an immense outlet and capital, dictates terms to manufacturer and jobber, and thus buys merchandise stocks of all kinds for cash at practically his own prices.

These times have been most propitious and we have filled our lines with the choicest of goods at hard times prices.

STUPENDOUS OFFERINGS -IN- LADIES' SUITS AND WAISTS

Thursday, Friday, Saturday, of This Week.

Like the man who made it an invariable rule of his life, to take a bath once a year whether he needed it or not, it is a good plan for every lady whose eye rests upon this announcement to inspect the wonderful bargains we offer in seasonable and much-sought for goods.

All our high grade LADIES' SUITS AND WAISTS will be thrown into an unrelenting vortex at prices which will constitute the most stupendous offering ever made in mid-season.

Ladies' Black and Blue Serge Suits that were $7, down to $3.98 each.
Ladies' Black and Blue Serge, Cheviot and Covert Suits that were $10.50, down to $6.75 each.
All our Ladies' Novelty Suits that have sold at $15 to $23, down to $10 each.
Ladies' Duck Suits $1.49 to $4.98 each.

LADIES' VESTS AND WAISTS.

If there is a lady in town who hasn't got a new Shirt Waist by the end of this week, it's because she has not seen our stock. If you've got an eye for merit and a taste for economy, you may gratify both by taking advantage of this offer:

200 dozen LADIES' SHIRT WAISTS in printed Percales and Satines, Chambrays in pink, blue and lavender, striped and figured Dimity and White Lawns, many of them with Laundered Collars and Cuffs, worth from 75c. to $1.50. The entire aggregation will be offered at 50c. EACH.

LADIES' DUCK VESTS in Red, White, and Ecru, $1.23 EACH.

LADIES' COTTON UNDERWEAR.

You never bought stylish, well made Underwear as you buy here this week. An oversanguine manufacturer (overstocked) short of cash, unloads several thousand dollars' worth at less than half his original price, and they go to you the same way. This week will witness the season's most remarkable Cotton Underwear showing at Lowell's recognized Cotton Underwear centre, which of course you know is on our second floor. Never such a gathering—never such values.
